The Seven Deadly Sins of Small Group Ministry Bill Donahue, Russ G. Robinson, 2009-08-30 Assessment and solution for seven common obstacles to building small groups It's one thing to start a small group ministry It's another to keep the groups in your church healthy and headed in the same direction Whatever your church's approach maybe whether it is a church with groups or of groups sooner or later as a leader you'll need to do some troubleshooting That's when the expert to the point guidance in this book will prove its worth The beauty of this book lies in its unique diagnostic process It allows you to assess diagnose and correct seven common deadly sins that can drain the life from your church's small group ministry In The Seven Deadly Sins of Small Group Ministry what would take you years to learn through trial and error is distilled into some of the most useful information you can find Drawing on the knowledge they've gleaned from working inside Willow Creek Community Church from consulting with hundreds of churches and from conducting conferences and seminars worldwide small group experts Bill Donahue and Russ Robinson furnish you with proven real life solutions to the toughest problems in your small group ministry This is not theory it is hands on material you can read and apply today

Understanding

Deterrence Keith B. Payne, 2014-06-11 For decades the rational actor model served as the preferred guide for U.S. deterrence policy It has been a convenient and comforting guide because it requires little detailed knowledge of an opponent's unique decision making process and yet typically provides confident generalizations about how deterrence works The model tends to postulate common decision making parameters across the globe to reach generalizations about how deterrence will function and the types of forces that will be stabilizing or destabilizing Yet a broad spectrum of unique factors can influence an opponent's perceptions and his calculations and these are not easily captured by the rational actor model The absence of uniformity means there can be very few deterrence generalizations generated by the use of the rational actor model that are applicable to the entire range of opponents Understanding Deterrence considers how factors such as psychology history religion ideology geography political structure culture proliferation and geopolitics can shape a leadership's decision making process in ways that are specific and unique to each opponent Understanding Deterrence demonstrates how using a multidisciplinary approach to deterrence analysis can better identify and assess factors that influence an opponent's decision making process This identification and assessment process can facilitate the tailoring of deterrence strategies to specific purposes and result in a higher likelihood of success than strategies guided by the generalizations about opponent decision making typically contained in the rational actor model This book was published as a special issue of Comparative Strategy

Losing Our Religion? Kevin Ronald Ward, 2013-10-22 Church going in most Western societies has declined significantly in the wake of the social and cultural changes that began in the 1960s Does this mean that people in these societies are losing any religious dimension in their lives or is it being expressed in other forms and places This study begins by looking at comparative data on how church going patterns have changed in five countries Britain the United States Canada Australia and New Zealand examining reasons for the decline how churches have responded to these changes and why some churches have shown greater resilience It then explores some of the particular challenges these changes pose for the future of churches in these societies and some of the responses that have been made drawing on both sociological and theological insights The conclusion is that despite the loss of belonging believing persists and religion continues to play a significant role in these societies mediated in a variety of diffuse cultural forms Cases illustrating these changes are largely drawn from New Zealand which as the country most recently settled by Europeans has always been secular and thus provides helpful insights

Approaches to Human Geography Stuart C. Aitken, Gill Valentine, 2014-12-01 The book covers some of the traditionally most obtuse and difficult to grasp philosophical ideas that have influenced geographers geography The fact that these are presented in an inclusive and accessible manner is a key strength Many students have commented that the chapters they have read have encouraged them to read more in this field which is fantastic from a lecturer's perspective Richard White Sheffield Hallam University A new edition of the classic Approaches text for students organised in three sections which overviews and explains the history and philosophy of Human Geographies in all its applications by those who practise it Section One Philosophies Positivist Geography Humanism Feminist Geographies Marxisms Structuration Theory Human Animal Realism Postmodern Geographies Poststructuralist Theories Actor Network Theory Postcolonialism Geohumanities Technologies Section Two People Institutions and Cultures Places and Contexts Memories and Desires Understanding Place Personal and Political Becoming a Geographer Movement and Encounter Spaces and Flows Places as Thoughts Section Three Practices Mapping and Geovisualization Quantification Evidence and Positivism Geographic Information Systems Humanism Activism Feminist Geographies Poststructuralist Theories Psychoanalysis Environmental Inquiry Contested Geographies and Culture Wars Fully updated throughout and with eight brand new chapters this is the core text for modules on history theory and practice in Human Geography

Peoples and Places Matthew Hirt, 2022-05-27 Jesus's final command to his disciples was to make disciples of all nations But who are the nations How do we know we are being obedient to the task Do our current lists of ethnolinguistic people groups sufficiently answer the question For the last fifty years missiologists and missionaries have discussed this topic but much of the conversation has been focused on definitions that give little attention to biblical theology When we explore how the Bible describes the nations we find some other categories that have been overlooked forgotten or set aside in the development of missions strategy Geography is one of these categories However this is not simply bringing current geo political entities back into our missions strategy Instead Matthew Hirt is calling on missiologists missions researchers and missionaries on the field to discover how people groups identify their own geographies and in turn how that geography contributes to a people group's identity

Working Side by Side Shoshanna Sumka, Melody Christine Porter, Jill Piacitelli, 2023-07-03 This book constitutes a guide for student and staff leaders in alternative break and other community engagement both domestic and international programs offering practical

African Studies in Geography from Below Michel Ben Arrous, Lazare Ki-Zerbo, 2009

The doctrine of international relations inter state indeed territorial ideologies the logic of autochthony and its ramifications ethnic cleansing are all hinged at different levels upon the same pseudo fact to every society a closed and exclusive territory demarcated by fixed and linear borders This way of thinking totally foreign to African societies for a long time has generated today more contradictions than it can ever solve The authors of this book make a clear distinction between territory formation from the top as being a deliberate political project and its formation from below as being a more diffused historical process which is determined by the scheme of antagonisms and compromises between social forces In lieu of a stark opposition between the top and below the authors unveil the interdependence and mutual influence which form the basis of a dual system within which legal formation by the colonial authorities first then by the postcolonial one is confronted with a host of subaltern spatial dynamics neglecting thereby the legitimacy which only they can provide As an essential read for anyone who is interested in the relationship between knowledge and power this book offers stimulating perspectives on the issue of African unity and its epistemological and political challenges It renews profoundly our approaches to human security citizenship borders and mobility

Report of the Annual Meeting British Association for the Advancement of Science. Meeting, 1924

Community Brad House, 2011-09-07 Community within the church today is hemorrhaging Attention spans are dwindling noise levels are increasing and we can't seem to find time for real relationships The answer to such social fragmentation can be found in small groups and yet the majority of small groups at least in the traditional sense are often not the intentional transformational community we really want and need Somehow we need to get our groups off life support and into authentic community Pastor Brad House helps us to re imagine what gospel centered community looks like and shares from his experience leading and reproducing healthy small groups With wisdom and candor House challenges us to think carefully about our own groups and to take steps toward cultivating communities that are able to glorify Jesus bless one another and participate in the mission of God

Cultural Transmission and Material Culture Miriam T. Stark, Brenda J. Bowser, Lee Horne, 2022-07-12 How and why people develop maintain and change cultural boundaries through time are central issues in the social and behavioral sciences in general and anthropological archaeology in particular What factors influence people to imitate or deviate from the behaviors of other group members How are social group boundaries produced perpetuated and altered by the cumulative outcome of these decisions Answering these questions is fundamental to understanding cultural persistence and change The chapters included in this stimulating multifaceted book address these questions Working in several subdisciplines contributors report on research in the areas of cultural boundaries cultural transmission and the socially organized nature of learning Boundaries are found not only within and between the societies in these studies but also within and between the communities of scholars who study them To break down these boundaries this volume includes scholars who use multiple theoretical perspectives including practice theory and evolutionary traditions which are sometimes complementary and occasionally clashing Geographic coverage ranges from the indigenous Americas to Africa the Near East and South Asia and the time frame extends from the prehistoric or precontact to colonial periods and up to the ethnographic present Contributors include leading scholars from the United States Canada the United Kingdom and Europe Together they employ archaeological ethnographic ethnoarchaeological experimental and simulation data to link micro scale processes of cultural transmission to macro scale processes of social group boundary formation continuity and change
