Deslandes, 2021-12-20 A heavily illustrated history of two centuries of male beauty in British culture Spanning the decades from the rise of photography to the age of the selfie this book traces the complex visual and consumer cultures that shaped masculine beauty in Britain examining the realms of advertising health pornography psychology sport and celebrity culture Paul R Deslandes chronicles the shifting standards of male beauty in British culture from the rising cult of the athlete to changing views on hairlessness while connecting discussions of youth fitness and beauty to growing concerns about race empire and degeneracy From earlier beauty show contestants and youth obsessed artists the book moves through the decades into considerations of disfigured soldiers physique models body conscious gay men and celebrities such as David Beckham and David Gandy who populate the worlds of television and social media Deslandes calls on historians to take beauty and gendered aesthetics seriously while recasting how we think about the place of physical appearance in historical study the intersection of different forms of high and popular culture and what has been at stake for men in looking good Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics Claire Raymond, 2017-04-21

Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics makes the case for a feminist aesthetics in photography by analysing key works of twenty two women photographers including cis and trans woman photographers Claire Raymond provides close readings of key photographs spanning the history of photography from nineteenth century Europe to twenty first century Africa and Asia She offers original interpretations of well known photographers such as Diane Arbus Sally Mann and Carrie Mae Weems analysing their work in relation to gender class and race The book also pays close attention to the way in which indigenous North Americans have been represented through photography and the ways in which contemporary Native American women photographers respond to this history Developing the argument that through aesthetic force emerges the truly political the book moves beyond polarization of the aesthetic and the cultural Instead photographic works are read for their subversive political and cultural force as it emerges through the aesthetics of the image This book is ideal for students of Photography Art History Art and Visual Culture and Gender The Home, Nations and Empires, and Ephemeral Exhibition Spaces Dominique Bauer, Camilla Murgia, 2025-10-01 This book explores ephemeral exhibition spaces between 1750 and 1918 The chapters focus on two related spaces the domestic interior and its imagery and exhibitions and museums that display both national imperial identity and the otherness that lurks beyond a country's borders What is revealed is that the same tension operates in these private and public realms namely that between identification and self projection on the one hand and alienation otherness and objectification on the other In uncovering this the authors show that the self the citizen society and the other are realities that are constantly being asserted defined and objectified This takes place they demonstrate in a ceaseless dynamic of projection versus alienation and intimacy versus distancing Transnational Perspectives on Artists' Lives Marleen Rensen, Christopher Wiley, 2020-10-06 This book demonstrates the significance of transnationality for studying and writing the lives of artists While painters musicians and writers have long been cast as symbols of their associated nations recent research is increasingly drawing attention to those aspects of their lives and works that resist or challenge the national framework The volume showcases different ways of treating transnationality in life writing by and about artists investigating how the transnational can offer intriguing new insights on artists who straddle different nations and cultures It further explores ways of adopting transnational perspectives in artists biographies in order to deal with experiences of cultural otherness or international influences and analyses cross cultural representations of artists in biography and biofiction Gathering together insights from biographers and scholars with expertise in literature music and the visual arts Transnational Perspectives on Artists Lives opens up rich avenues for researching transnationality in the cultural domain at large Crafting Feminism from Literary Modernism to the Multimedia Present Amy E.

Christle,2025-04-15 For readers of Also a Poet Orwell s Roses and My Autobiography Of Carson McCullers as well as the legions of Virginia Woolf fanatics the acclaimed poet and author of The Crying Book crafts a deeply moving immersive and lyrical hybrid memoir about her mother Woolf and the transformative power of writing When Heather Christle realizes that she her mother and Virginia Woolf share a traumatic history she begins to rewrite and intertwine each of their stories in search of a more hopeful narrative and a future she can live with On a recent visit to London s Kew Gardens Christle s mother revealed details of a painful story from her past that took place there under circumstances that strangely paralleled Heather s own sexual assault during a visit to London as a teenager Her private British mother s revelation a rare burst of vulnerability in their strained relationship propels Christle down a deep and destabilizing rabbit hole of investigation as she both reads and wanders the streets of her mother's past peeling back the layers of family mythologies England's sanctioned historical narratives and her own buried memories Over the course of several trips to London with and without her mother she visits her family's birthday hill in Kew Gardens the now public homes of the Bloomsbury set the archives of the British Library and the backyard garden where Woolf wrote her final sentence All the while she finds that Woolf and her writings not only constantly seem to connect and overlap with her mother's story but also that the author becomes a kind of vital intermediary a sometimes confidante sometimes mentor sometimes distancing lens through which Christle can safely observe her mother and their experiences Wide ranging and prismatic the fruit of an insatiably curious delightfully brilliant mind In the Rhododendrons is part memoir part biography of Virginia Woolf part reckoning with the things we cannot change and the ways we can completely transform if we dare This utterly original book will stir readers into new ways of seeing their own lives

Instead of modernity Andrew Ginger,2020-10-13 This book revisits the claim that a key dimension of cultural modernity understood as a turn to the autonomy of the signs and the erasure of the face of man arose in the mid nineteenth century It presents an alternative to that obsession focusing instead on the aesthetic appreciation of forms through which connections are realised across place and time The book is one of few to offer a comparative approach to numerous major writers and artists of this period over diverse countries Specifically the comparative approach overcomes the constitutively ambiguous relation between the modern and the Hispanic The Hispanic is often imagined as at once foundational for and excluded from the modern world Its reincorporation into the story of the mid century unsettles the notion of modernity The book offers instead an experiment in writing tracing commonalities across place and time and drawing on mid century expressions of such likenesses
