

The background of the slide is a photograph of an open book, likely a Bible, with its pages slightly aged and yellowed. The book is open to a spread of two pages. A dark, semi-transparent rectangular overlay is positioned in the upper half of the image, serving as a background for the title and author's name. The title is written in a large, white, serif font, and the author's name is in a smaller, white, serif font, separated by a thin horizontal line.

Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book s wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry Inductive Preaching Ralph L. Lewis, Gregg Lewis, 1983 This book gives workable ideas that will help preachers capture and maintain the interest of their listeners without sacrificing the spiritual content of their message
