Extending The Boundaries Approaches To World Literature:

Extending the Boundaries Michael Tierce, 2000-08-01 How To Get a Life, Vol. 1: Empowering Wisdom for the Heart and Soul Lawrence Baines, Ph.D., Daniel McBrayer, Ph.D., 2003-04 Presented in an easy to digest format with an uplifting message How to Get a Life offers individual chapters on the life views of some of the most important and powerful people in history Written in an engaging style by college professors Lawrence Baines and Daniel McBrayer each chapter contains a brief biographical sketch with that luminary's advice for daily living Take a trip on How to Get a Life and learn easy to understand advice from some of the world's greatest thinkers on The importance of relationships How to get over misunderstandings How to rise above mediocrity What to do when things go wrong Along with topics ranging from God and the universe to conceptions of love sex and death historical figures featured include Martin Luther King Jr Joseph Campbell Bill Wilson Gerda Weissmann Klein Albert Schweitzer Oprah Winfrey Buddha Leo Buscaglia Jane Goodall the Dalai Lama Muhammad Confucius and Richard of St Victor Expanding Boundaries: Systems Thinking in the Built Environment

Guillaume Habert, Arno Schlueter, 2016-08-15 Consuming over 40% of total primary energy the built environment is in the centre of worldwide strategies and measures towards a more sustainable future To provide resilient solutions a simple optimisation of individual technologies will not be sufficient In contrast whole system thinking reveals and exploits connections between parts Each system interacts with others on different scales materials components buildings cities and domains ecology economy and social Whole system designers optimize the performance of such systems by understanding interconnections and identifying synergies The more complete the design integration the better the result In this book the reader will find the proceedings of the 2016 Sustainable Built Environment SBE Regional Conference in Zurich Papers have been written by academics and practitioners from all continents to bring forth the latest understanding on systems thinking in the built environment Methods for the Study of Literature as Cultural Memory , 2022-06-08 In this volume collaborators from different universities all over the world explore a wide variety of methods for the study of literature as cultural memory In literature the past may be re constructed in various ways and in very diverse forms This immediately raises the question as to how one can describe and inventory the various discourses and metadiscourses of historical representation In what sense can the rhetoric of literary historiography itself contribute to literature's function as cultural memory Which methods of analysis are most appropriate for describing specific text types or genres as cultural memory What have been the pragmatic uses and the ethical merits of the stability and continuity that literature has often provided for European American Asian and African cultures What are the dilemmas they create for our teaching at the end of the twentieth century To all these questions a wide range of scholars here tries to find answers In thorough and highly original contributions they not only address theoretical problems but also engage themselves in practical analyses of specific works

Afropolitan Literature as World Literature James Hodapp, 2020-01-23 African literature has never been more visible than it is today Whereas Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiong'o defined a golden generation of African writers in the 20th century a new generation of Afropolitan writers including Chimamanda Adichie Teju Cole Taiye Selasi and NoViolet Bulawayo have taken the world by storm by snatching up prestigious awards and selling millions of copies of their works But what is the new increasingly fashionable and marketable Afropolitan vision of Africa's place in the world that they offer How does it differ from that of previous generations Why do some dissent Afropolitanism refuses to reinforce images of Africa in world media as merely poor war torn diseased and constantly falling into chaos By complicating the image of Africa as a hapless victim Afropolitanism focuses on the wide ranging influence Africa has on the world However some have characterized this kind of writing as light populist fare that panders to Western audiences Afropolitan Literature as World Literature examines the controversy surrounding Afropolitan literature in light of the unprecedented circulation of culture made possible by globalization and ultimately argues for expanding its geographic and temporal boundaries

Arabic, Persian, and Turkic Poetics Hany Rashwan, 2024 Arabic Persian and Turkic Poetics Towards a Post Eurocentric Literary Theory is a pioneering book that offers a fresh perspective on Arabic Persian and Turkic literature in their interrelations The authors challenge Eurocentric paradigms while creating a framework for exploring these traditions on their own terms Authored by an international team of scholars each chapter centres the literary theoretical traditions of their respective literatures with a focus on the discipline of comparative poetics ilm al balgha in the Islamic world By liberating the study of Islamicate literary texts from Eurocentric theoretical paradigms the book paves the way for a more inclusive global discourse in literary studies Specifically our theoretical roots in comparative poetics and the rhetorical traditions of Arabic Persian and Turkic literatures will foster new methods of close reading that are in line with the aesthetic standards intrinsic to these texts and their traditions Engaging and insightful this book is essential reading for anyone interested in broadening their understanding of world literature and literary theory

World Literature in Spanish Maureen Ihrle, Salvador Oropesa, 2011-10-20 Containing roughly 850 entries about Spanish language literature throughout the world this expansive work provides coverage of the varied countries ethnicities time periods literary movements and genres of these writings Providing a thorough introduction to Spanish language literature worldwide and across time is a tall order However World Literature in Spanish An Encyclopedia contains roughly 850 entries on both major and minor authors themes genres and topics of Spanish literature from the Middle Ages to the present day affording an amazingly comprehensive reference collection in a single work This encyclopedia describes the growing diversity within national borders the increasing interdependence among nations and the myriad impacts of Spanish literature across the globe All countries that produce literature in Spanish in Europe Africa the Americas and Asia are represented covering both canonical authors and emerging contemporary writers and trends Underrepresented writings such as texts by women writers queer and Afro Hispanic texts children s literature and works on relevant but less studied topics such as sports and nationalism also appear While writings throughout the centuries are covered those of the 20th and 21st centuries receive special consideration

Teaching Global Literature in Elementary Classrooms Kelly K. Wissman,Maggie Naughter Burns,Krista Jiampetti,Heather O'Leary,Simeen Tabatabai,2016-07-15 Demonstrating the power of teaching global literature from a critical literacy perspective this book explores the ways that K 6 educators can infuse diverse texts into their classrooms and find support for their endeavours in teacher inquiry communities Through carefully analyzed ethnographically informed portraits of classroom life alternating with teachers own accounts of their teaching and learning experiences it demonstrates how students are moved to question debate and take action in response to global texts This multi vocal work both emerges from and responds to tensions and debates related to the purpose and practice of literature education in a time of Common Core State Standards

World Literature Reader Theo D'haen,César Domínguez,Mads Rosendahl Thomsen,2012-06-01 World Literature is an increasingly influential subject in literary studies which has led to the re framing of contemporary ideas of national literatures language and translation World Literature A Reader brings together thirty essential readings which display the theoretical foundations of the subject as well as showing its conceptual development over a two hundred year period The book features an illuminating introduction to the subject with suggested reading paths to help readers navigate through the materials texts exploring key themes such as globalization cosmopolitanism post trans nationalism and translation and nationalism writings by major figures including J W Goethe Karl Marx Friedrich Engels Longxi Zhao David Damrosch Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Pascale Casanova and Milan Kundera The early explorations of the meaning of Weltliteratur are introduced while twenty first century interpretations by leading scholars today show the latest critical developments in the field The editors offer readers the ideal introduction to the theories and debates surrounding the impact of this crucial area on the modern literary landscape

Worldly Spirits, Extra-Human Dimensions, and the Global Anglophone Novel Hilary Thompson,2023-12-28 Engaging a diverse range of contemporary anglophone literature from authors of the Asian Middle Eastern and Caribbean diasporas this book explores how such works turn to spirit forces spirit realms and spirit beings were animals mystical birds and snake goddesses as positive forces that assert perceptual dimensions beyond those of the human and present a vision of Earth as agentive and animate With previous scholarship downplaying these aspects of modern works as uncanny hauntings or symptoms of capitalism's or anthropocentrism's destructiveness or within a blanket rubric of magical realism Hilary Thompson rejects this partitioning of them as products of an exotic East or global South By contrast this book builds a new critical framework for analysis of worldly spirits drawing on anthropological discussions of animism the newly recovered 1930s boundary crossing art movement Dimensionism and multispecies theories of animals diverse perceptual worlds Taking stock of novels published from 2018-2020 by such writers as Amitav Ghosh Andr Alexis Yangsze Choo Azareen Van der Vliet Oloomi Zeyn Joukhadar and Tanya Tagaq Thompson illuminates how these works extend an ecological call to decentre the human and align with multidimensional theories of art and literature to provide ways to read for rather than reduce the extra human dimensions emerging in contemporary fiction A refreshing rejection of ecological apocalypticism this book unsettles typical conceptualizations of both anglophone and Anthropocene literatures by invoking European art theory philosophy and non Western ideas on animism and spirits to put forward perceptions of the extra human as a form of dealing with the many uncertainties of today's different crises

An Arts Therapeutic Approach to Maternal Holding Ariel Moy, 2021-08-08 Little research has explored the everyday simple and long term experience of maternal holding particularly after the first year of a child's life The research that has been undertaken commonly examines holding through the lens of attachment with a focus on the impact of holding upon the child Employing an arts based collaborative inquiry approach participants stories of holding as well as the author's own convey the significant maternal experiences of holding their children over individual arts therapeutic sessions Optimal moments of holding included strange powerful and meaningful experiences of expansion into self in relationship Attention is drawn to the ways in which holding can alert us to the current state of mother child relationships how we understand story and structure those relationships and the ways in which we can attend to holding in order to develop deeply satisfying experiences of a mother child us An Arts Therapeutic Approach to Maternal Holding aims to draw attention to the intersubjective qualities of the mother child relationship explore why holding matters and offer suggestions for therapeutic practice This book is essential reading for therapeutic practitioners and those in allied health fields who work with mothers and children

World Literature as Discovery Zhang Longxi, 2023-09-15 The rise of world literature is the most noticeable phenomenon in literary studies in the twenty first century However truly well known and globally circulating works are all canonical works of European or Western literature while non European and even minor European literatures remain largely unknown beyond their culture of origin World Literature as Discovery Expanding the World Literary Canon argues that world literature for our time must go beyond Eurocentrism and expand the canon to include great works from non European and minor European literatures As much of the world's literature remains untranslated and unknown the expansion will be an exciting process of discovery By discussing fundamental questions around canon circulation aesthetic values translation cosmopolitanism and the literary universal Zhang Longxi proposes a new and liberating concept of world literature that will shape world literature worthy of its name This book speaks for a more inclusive idea of world literature and shows students and scholars alike that all the literary traditions particularly non European traditions will be able to make important contributions and expand the canon of world literature Raymond Williams at 100 Paul Stasi,2021-04-07

Raymond Williams was by common consent one of the two most commanding intellectual figures in the New Left that emerged in Britain at the turn of the sixties the other being Edward Thompson Williams published in 1961 a text entitled The Future of Marxism In that essay Williams has some remarkable things to say about imperialism the successes of actually existing socialism balanced against its failures and the continued relevance of socialism as the horizon of human liberation He also makes a characteristic methodological point the relation between systems of thought and actual history is both complex and surprising The future of Marxism that is to say will not depend on dogma but will instead rest on historical developments on how well we are able to actualize Marx's ideals in our own unique conjuncture This volume takes up the challenge of reading and extending Williams's thought in light of the actual history that has occurred since his passing but with the same ideal of socialism as its guiding horizon If there is one thread visible throughout all of Williams's work it is the felt presence of a living thinking individual of a person continually testing ideas in experience in order to see whether they fit the world they are meant to describe The aim of this volume timed to coincide with what would have been Williams's 100th birthday is to test his ideas in our own experience and to engage Williams's work in ways that move past the familiar terrain that has grown around it We now know that experience is a dangerous category that community can be hijacked by the right as much as the left and that tradition contains as much conflict as commonality Those committed to Williams's work can easily find textual arguments or developments across his career to answer these charges and they have What our volume offers is a set of arguments by younger scholars influenced by Williams's writings that moves past some of these debates extending Williams's work into the 21st century testing and weighing his ideas in light of recent developments and contemporary intellectual culture In doing so we treat Williams's thought as one of those resources of hope which he famously suggested would sustain us At a time of deepening inequality and austerity and growing rightward reaction and yet simultaneously and with seeming dialectical necessity a renewed investment in socialism Williams might be exactly the kind of figure we need Existential narratives: Increasing psychological wellbeing through story Enny Das,2023-02-08

The African Heritage of Latinx and Caribbean Literature Sarah Quesada,2022-08-04 Interweaving the influential voices of African Caribbean and Latinx authors this book challenges eurocentric notions of World Literature Life Writing as World Literature Helga Lenart-Cheng, Ioana Luca,2025-05-01 A global array of contributors explore the interplay between translation and circulation mediums and materialities and aesthetics and politics in how life writing is shaped by and becomes world literature We live in the age of popular self representation in that most people around the globe either produce or consume autobiographical material memoirs selfies blogs etc The current volume investigates this global phenomenon and examines how life writing and world literature converge Why do some personal stories get picked up translated circulated and taught in classrooms while others remain moored in local waters Do autobiographical stories that travel widely have something in common about them Or is it the other way around is it our notion of world literature that imposes uniform expectations on these diverse texts And what can we gain from studying these two fields in conjunction Life Writing as World Literature brings together experts who map regional and local autobiographical traditions from six continents These scholars explore the dynamic interplay between local and global aesthetics and sociopolitical concerns presenting case studies that include prison narratives from communist regimes Japanese diaries multilingual Caribbean memoirs Indian auto biographical comics and stories by Taiwanese domestic workers To understand how and why some personal stories enter global dissemination contributors inquire into translation market mechanisms and circulation patterns while also exploring the affordances of new media and materialities when recording contemporary lives Life Writing as World Literature brings a fresh perspective to both fields world literature and life writing opening up exciting avenues of research
