Extraordinary Women Explorers:

Extraordinary Women Explorers Frances Rooney, 2005-01-01 A thirst for adventure a deep desire to push themselves beyond their comfort zones and an innate curiosity about the world and its peoples drive the biographies of the ten women explorers profiled here As explorers they bring skills in cartography geography history anthropology botany photography linguistics and writing to their travels Their stories begin with Sacagawea a Native guide in the Lewis and Clark expedition in 1805 and end in the present with Mattie McNair and Denise Martin the Canadian leaders of Arctic and Antarctic expeditions These are stories of women who dared to push beyond the safety of their own communities in order to live their dreams

Extraordinary Women Explorers Frances Rooney, 2005-09-01 Profiles twelve women explorers throughout history including Sacagawea who was a guide to Lewis and Clark and Matty McNair and Denise Martin who led the first all women expedition to the North Pole

We are Explorers Kari Herbert, 2021-03-23 Join fourteen incredible female explorers on their journeys around the world and learn about the life changing discoveries they made against all odds Women have always explored the globe but their stories aren't always well known In We Are Explorers fourteen intrepid women and their incredible adventures finally get their due These fearless explorers trekked across deserts in search of the source of the Nile crept through jungles to discover rare butterflies journeyed into the Arctic and so much more From the famed travels of Sacagawea to the lesser known achievements of pioneers in aviation botany and mountain climbing this book dives deep into the lives of women who changed the world They hailed from places as varied as the United States Japan Germany and New Zealand but all of them followed their curiosity far from home astronaut Mae Jemison traveled into space Critically praised author and illustrator Kari Herbert herself the daughter of a celebrated polar explorer brings these adventurers to life with an engaging narrative style and richly painted portraits Readers will love stepping into the shoes of those who hiked sailed and flew to places few people male or female had been before We Are Explorers is the perfect inspiration for any child who dreams of travel and adventure

A World of Her Own Michael Elsohn Ross, 2014-03-01 An inspiration for any young person who loves the outdoors wildlife or science A World of Her Own tells the stories of 24 brave women from different cultures epochs and economic backgrounds who have shared similar missions to meet the physical and mental challenges of exploring the natural world to protect the environment and native cultures and to leave a mark in the name of discovery Among the many bold women profiled are Rosaly Lopes who worked for NASA and discovered 71 volcanoes on one of Jupiter's moons Helen Thayer the first woman to walk and ski the Magnetic North Pole accompanied by only her dog Kay Cottee the first woman to successfully sail nonstop around the world completely unassisted and Anna Smith Peck who set the record for the highest climb in the Western Hemisphere at the age of 58 These and other engaging profiles based on both historical research and firsthand interviews stress how childhood passions and interests perseverance and courage led these women to overcome challenges and break barriers to achieve great success in their adventurous pursuits and careers A bibliography and annotated list of exploration resources and organizations make this an invaluable resource for young explorers parents and teachers alike

Exceptional Women Environmentalists Frances Rooney,2007-01-01 From Rachel Carson the woman who started the modern environmental movement to Severn Cullis Suzuki former host of Suzuki s Nature Quest to Marina Silva who fights to keep the Brazilian rain forest from disappearing read about these ten amazing women who prove how ordinary people can do extraordinary things While the threat of environmental crises becomes more dominant in the media and popular culture these trailblazing women have taken action to make a vital difference for our planet

Here Is Where Andrew Carroll,2013-05-14 Here Is Where chronicles Andrew Carroll s eye opening and at times hilarious journey across America to find and explore unmarked historic sites where extraordinary moments occurred and remarkable individuals once lived Sparking the idea for this book was Carroll s visit to the spot where Abraham Lincoln s son was saved by the brother of Lincoln s assassin Carroll wondered How many other unmarked places are there where intriguing events have unfolded and that we walk past every day not realizing their significance To answer that question Carroll ultimately trekked to every region of the country by car train plane helicopter bus bike and kayak and on foot Among the things he learned Where in North America the oldest sample of human DNA was discovered Where America s deadliest maritime disaster took place a calamity worse than the fate of the Titanic Which virtually unknown American scientist saved hundreds of millions of lives Which famous Prohibition agent was the brother of a notorious gangster How a 14 year old farm boy s brainstorm led to the creation of television Featured prominently in Here Is Where are an abundance of firsts from the first use of modern anesthesia to the first cremation to the first murder conviction based on forensic evidence outrages from riots to massacres to forced sterilizations and breakthroughs from the invention inside a prison of a revolutionary weapon to the recovery deep in the Alaskan tundra of a super virus to the building of the rocket that made possible space travel Here Is Where is thoroughly entertaining but it s also a profound reminder that the places we pass by often harbor amazing secrets and that there are countless other astonishing stories still out there waiting to be found Look for Andrew s new book My Fellow Soldiers

Women Explorers Sharon M. Hannon,2007 From the South Pole to the Sahara women as avidly as their male counterparts have sought adventure around the globe Not always accepted more often than not these female explorers have had to struggle against restrictive societal mores in addition to the challenges presented by the deserts mountains and other wild places that beckoned to them Women Who Dare Women Explorers highlights the achievements of several extraordinary women documenting their inspiring stories with dozens of historical photographs
