

The exciting 1980s women might very well be 1980

*Vogue's eye view, 1984:
a DIFFERENT

DIFFERENT APPEARANCE — As of the first day of 1984, you're more likely to be married — 57% more likely than in 1980 (also, sherry, flares, etc., considering that women have also come to understand time to some fine advantage). You're more likely to have more than two children — in the past decade the rate of having a third child rose 17%, and 80% more women than previously now have three. And what's more, you're more likely to be having a career — one in every three women is working these days (working women, except accountants, a larger part of the American working force — 80% — than men before); 54% of that total are married women, and 80% are women with children under eighteen. Best of all, you're more likely to make your husband feel a good long time — even in 1984, 85 for three, one for a woman still to be going strong in '84.

DIFFERENT ENVIRONMENT — That's up to you in 1984 — usually how different a woman you're going to be. And that's the exciting promise of a look new year: the hope of being, well, better with the feeling that the hope can be achieved. However we women want to be really different is certain facts lay like to our personalities to the world, and things, of performance; but in all of us there's a common yearning for that — in everything from the clothes we wear, to the drinks we do, to the love we live. And in all of us there's a deep desire to be different women in the region, to be women who inhabit a world of grace — a woman that will live. Vogue began in 1980, ready for 1984.

Barbara E. Ward, 2020-01-31 It was on the basis of her ethnography of the boat people in Hong Kong that Barbara Ward developed her interpretations of conscious models in the Chinese context The boat people are the indigenes of the region around the present city of Canton and were the original inhabitants of the area now called Hong Kong This book is a collection of papers collected together here were all written at different dates They fall fairly naturally into four groups A group of essays on the boat people of Hong Kong and South China a second group on different socio economic topics and third two somewhat tentative papers on socialization      Revisiting and Revising the Fifties in Contemporary US Popular Culture Eleonora Ravizza, 2020-05-25 In this book Eleonora Ravizza analyzes how contemporary American popular culture has represented and reproduced the fifties By investigating the cultural work of films and TV series from the last two decades the book uncovers the inherent limitations of a revisionist take on the fifties Ravizza argues that due to the visual nature of the fifties crystallized in American consciousness through the widespread influence of television most contemporary attempts to rework and rewrite the regressive gender queer and racial politics fall short of such a revisionist reevaluation      East
