Eye To Eye Women Practicing Development Acrob Cultures:

Eye to Eye Susan Perry, Celeste Marguerite Schenck, 2001 Focusing on seven crucial debates in the field of gender and development this compilation shows why development policy must respond to cultural differences and illustrates the rewards of doing so

Killing with Kindness Mark Schuller, 2012-09-24 Winner of the 2015 Margaret Mead Award from the American Anthropological Association and the Society for Applied Anthropology After Haiti's 2010 earthquake over half of U S households donated to thousands of nongovernmental organizations NGOs in that country Yet we continue to hear stories of misery from Haiti Why have NGOs failed at their mission Set in Haiti during the 2004 coup and aftermath and enhanced by research conducted after the 2010 earthquake Killing with Kindness analyzes the impact of official development aid on recipient NGOs and their relationships with local communities Written like a detective story the book offers rich ethnographic comparisons of two Haitian women's NGOs working in HIV AIDS prevention one with public funding including USAID the other with private European NGO partners Mark Schuller looks at participation and autonomy analyzing donor policies that inhibit these goals He focuses on NGOs roles as intermediaries in gluing the contemporary world system together and shows how power works within the aid system as these intermediaries impose interpretations of unclear mandates down the chain a process Schuller calls trickle down imperialism

Humanitarian Aftershocks in Haiti Mark Schuller, 2016-01-12 The 2010 earthquake in Haiti was one of the deadliest disasters in modern history sparking an international aid response with pledges and donations of 16 billion that was exceedingly generous But now five years later that generous aid has clearly failed In Humanitarian Aftershocks in Haiti anthropologist Mark Schuller captures the voices of those involved in the earthquake aid response and they paint a sharp unflattering view of the humanitarian enterprise Schuller led an independent study of eight displaced persons camps in Haiti compiling more than 150 interviews ranging from Haitian front line workers and camp directors to foreign humanitarians and many displaced Haitian people The result is an insightful account of why the multi billion dollar aid response not only did little to help but also did much harm triggering a range of unintended consequences rupturing Haitian social and cultural institutions and actually increasing violence especially against women The book shows how Haitian people were removed from any real decision making replaced by a top down NGO dominated system of humanitarian aid led by an army of often young inexperienced foreign workers Ignorant of Haitian culture these aid workers unwittingly enacted policies that triggered a range of negative results Haitian interviewees also note that the NGOs planted the flag and often tended to just do something always with an eye to the photo op in no small part due to the competition over funding Worse yet they blindly supported the eviction of displaced people from the camps forcing earthquake victims to relocate in vast shantytowns that were hotbeds of violence Humanitarian Aftershocks in Haiti concludes with suggestions to help improve humanitarian aid in the future perhaps most notably that aid workers listen to and respect the culture of the victims of catastrophe

The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law Mathias

Reimann, Reinhard Zimmermann, 2019-03-26 This fully revised and updated second edition of The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Law provides a wide ranging and diverse critical survey of comparative law at the beginning of the twenty first century It summarizes and evaluates a discipline that is time honoured but not easily understood in all its dimensions In the current era of globalization this discipline is more relevant than ever both on the academic and on the practical level The Handbook is divided into three main sections Section I surveys how comparative law has developed and where it stands today in various parts of the world This includes not only traditional model jurisdictions such as France Germany and the United States but also other regions like Eastern Europe East Asia and Latin America Section II then discusses the major approaches to comparative law its methods goals and its relationship with other fields such as legal history economics and linguistics Finally section III deals with the status of comparative studies in over a dozen subject matter areas including the major categories of private economic public and criminal law The Handbook contains forty eight chapters written by experts from around the world The aim of each chapter is to provide an accessible original and critical account of the current state of comparative law in its respective area which will help to shape the agenda in the years to come Each chapter also includes a short bibliography referencing the definitive works in the field The Routledge Handbook of Gender and Development

Anne Coles, Leslie Gray, Janet Momsen, 2015-02-20 The Routledge Handbook of Gender and Development provides a comprehensive statement and reference point for gender and development policy making and practice in an international and multi disciplinary context Specifically it provides critical reviews and appraisals of the current state of gender and development and considers future trends It includes theoretical and practical approaches as well as empirical studies The international reach and scope of the Handbook and the contributors experiences allow engagement with and reflection upon these bridging and linking themes as well as the examining the politics and policy of how we think about and practice gender and development Organized into eight inter related sections the Handbook contains over 50 contributions from leading scholars looking at conceptual and theoretical approaches environmental resources poverty and families women and health related services migration and mobility the effect of civil and international conflict and international economies and development This Handbook provides a wealth of interdisciplinary information and will appeal to students and practitioners in Geography Development Studies Gender Studies and related disciplines Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France s treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy

Female Circumcision and the Politics of Knowledge Obioma Nnaemeka, 2005-07-30 Heated debates about and insurgencies against female circumcision are symptoms of a disease emanating from a mindset that produced hierarchies of humans conquered colonies and built empires The loss of colonies and empires does not in any way mitigate the ideological underpinnings of empire building and the knowledge construction that subtends it The mindset finds its articulation at points of coalescence Female circumcision provided a point of coalescence and impetus for this articulation Insisting that the hierarchy on which the imperialist project rests is not bipolar but multi layered and more complex the contributions in this volume demonstrate how imperialist discourses complicate issues of gender race and history Nnaemeka gives voice to the silenced and marginalized and creates space for them to participate in knowledge construction and theory making The authors in this volume trace the travels of imperial and colonial discourses from antecedents in anthropology travel writings and missionary discourse to modern configurations in films literature and popular culture The contributors interrogate foreign or Western modus operandi and interventions in the so called Third World and show how the resistance they generate can impede development work and undermine the true collaboration and partnership necessary to promote a transnational feminist agenda With great clarity and in simple accessible language the contributors present complex ideas and arguments which hold significant implications for transnational feminism and development Re-imagining

Development Communication in Africa Chuka Onwumechili, Ikechukwu Ndolo, 2013 Re-imagining Development Communication in Africa is organized into three sections or parts the first focusing on the past and the history of development communication scholarship the second analyzes theoretical issues and finally a third section that looks at country cases The first part provides several perspectives on the historical development of the field as it pertains to Africa Some of these look at ideological indigenous contributions and the particular importance of gender issues The second section provides a critique of development communication theory and provides a more cultural appropriate alternative Additionally the book applies existing theory to practice in African communities This leads to the third section of the book which focuses on development communication in some country cases such as in Cameroon Kenya Nigeria and Rwanda Applying

Anthropology to Gender-Based Violence Hillary J. Haldane, Jennifer R. Wies, 2015-08-20 Applying Anthropology to Gender Based Violence Global Responses Local Practices addresses the gaps in theory methods and practices that are currently used to engage the problem of gender based violence This book complements the work carried out in the legal human services and health fields by demonstrating how a focus on local issues and responses can better inform a collaborative global response to the problem of gender based violence With chapters covering Africa Asia Latin and North America and Oceania the volume illustrates the various ways scholars practitioners frontline workers and policy makers can work together to end violence in their local communities The chapters in this volume provide ample evidence that top down responses to violence have been inadequate and that solutions are available when the local historical political and social context is taken into consideration

Applying Anthropology to Gender Based Violence contains useful insights that when combined with the efforts of other disciplines offer solutions to the problem of gender based violence      Sacred Iconographies in Chicana Cultural Productions C. Román-Odio,2013-02-12 This book examines the iconography of the Virgin of Guadalupe as a force for social justice and feminist emancipation within Chicana cultural productions from 1975 2010 In these productions the Virgin serves as a paradigm to unlock the histories of conquest and colonization racism and sexual oppression in the US Mexico borderland and beyond      Intercultural Education María Teresa Aguado Odina,Margarita del Olmo,2009      Reshaping the Holy Elora Shehabuddin,2008-07-28 Through extensive field research Elora Shehabuddin explores the profound implications of women s political and social mobilization for reshaping Islam Specifically she examines the lives of Muslim women in Bangladesh who have become increasingly mobilized by the activities of predominantly secular NGOs yet who desire to retain reclaim and reshape rather than reject their faith In their employment and in their interactions with the legal system the state NGOs and political and religious groups women are changing state practices views of women in the public sphere and the nature of lived Islam itself In contrast to most work on Islam and Muslims which has focused on the Middle East and has privileged the study of religious and legal texts this book redirects our attention to South Asia home to one of the largest Muslim populations in the world and emphasizes the actual experiences of Muslims Women and gender as well as Bangladesh s formally democratic context are central to this inquiry and analysis      Re-thinking Sexualities in Africa Signe Arnfred,2004 This volume sets out to investigate critically existing lines of thought about sexuality in Africa while also creating space for alternative approaches P 4 of cover      Feminist Futures Kum-Kum Bhavnani,John Foran,Priya A. Kurian,Debashish Munshi,2016-10-15 Straddling disciplines and continents Feminist Futures interweaves scholarship and social activism to explore the evolving position of women in the South Working at the intersection of cultural studies critical development studies and feminist theory the book s contributors articulate a radical and innovative framework for understanding the linkages between women culture and development applying it to issues ranging from sexuality and the gendered body to the environment technology and the cultural politics of representation This revised and updated edition brings together leading academics as well as a new generation of activists and scholars to provide a fresh perspective on the ways in which women in the South are transforming our understanding of development      A Concise Companion to Feminist Theory Mary Eagleton,2008-04-15 The Concise Companion to Feminist Theory introduces readers to the broad scope of feminist theory over the last 35 years Introduces readers to the broad scope of feminist theory over the past 35 years Guides students along the cutting edge of current feminist theory Suitable for students and scholars of all fields touched by feminist thought Covers an exceptionally broad range of disciplines discourses and feminist positions Organised around concepts rather than schools of feminism      Handbook of Conflict Analysis and Resolution Dennis J.D. Sandole,Sean Byrne,Ingrid

Sandole-Staroste, Jessica Senehi, 2008-07-31 This major Handbook is a collection of work from leading scholars in the Conflict Analysis and Resolution CAR field The central theme is the value of interdisciplinary approaches to the analysis and resolution of conflicts

Race and Family Roberta L. Coles, 2006 The author provided interesting original examples which I found engaging I think the biggest strength is avoiding the one ethnicity per chapter approach found in so many books on family diversity I like the structural approach Hilary A Rose Concordia University A very useful book as a companion text for courses on race and ethnicity The chapters are easy to follow for undergraduate students Renxin Yang Northern Michigan University I think the book is needed because there are limited choices currently available and this book is moving in the right direction A strength is that it is not an edited book like so many other books on this topic There is a need for detailed study of ethnic minority families and I am excited about making this book my required text for my Ethnic Families Course Cheryl Burgan Evans Miami University I find the emphasis on social structure particularly appealing To date I have used Taylor s edited book which depends on the instructor to provide all of the integration Gretchen Cornwell Pennsylvania State University In Race and Family A Structural Approach author Roberta L Coles looks at ethnic minority families in a novel way through a structural lens Unlike many texts on race and family this book offers an approach that illustrates overarching structural factors affecting all families as opposed to examining each ethnicity in isolation from one another By focusing on various structural factors such as demographic economic and historical aspects this book analyzes various family trends in a cross cutting manner to exemplify the similarities and distinctions among all racial and ethnic groups Key Features Establishes commonalities and differences across various cultures within American society in an approach that enables students to better compare and contrast different ethnic groups Covers multiracial families in addition to traditional ethnic groups such as African American Native American Latino American and Asian American to provide the most contemporary examination of American families Uses the latest research and Census data to present a relevant assessment of trends in family structure gender relations intergenerational relations family violence acculturation interracial marriage and adoption in an increasingly diverse American context Includes an annotated listing of suggested videos autobiographies articles and Web sites students can explore for further information Race and Family is a brief core textbook designed for advanced undergraduate and graduate students studying ethnic minority families and family diversity in the departments of Human Development Family Studies Family Consumer Sciences and Sociology

Chinese Women Organizing Ping-Chun Hsiung, Maria Jaschok, Cecilia Milwertz, 2020-05-26 In the process of helping women to help themselves female activists have assumed a decisive role in negotiating social and political transformations in Chinese society This is the first book that describes and analyzes the new phase of women s organizing in China which started in the 1980s and remains a vital force to the present day The political and social changes taking place in contemporary Chinese society have surprisingly received scant attention This volume enriches our understanding of the working of grassroots democracy in China by exploring women's popular organizing activities and their interaction with party state institutions. By subjecting these activities to both empirical enquiry and theoretical scrutiny, a rigorous analysis of the exchange, dialogue, negotiation and transformation among and within three groups of political actors: popular women's groups, religious groups and the All China Women's Federation is concisely presented to the reader. This book will be of tremendous interest to students of Chinese Studies, Political Science and Gender Studies alike.
