Canyon County Idaho Henry is sixty seven a retired professor and a widower who has been told a warmer climate would make the end more tolerable San Diego would be a good choice Instead Henry chose Fairhope Alabama a town with utopian ideals and a haven for strong minded individualists Upton Sinclair Sherwood Anderson and Clarence Darrow were among its inhabitants Henry bought his own ten acres of piney woods outside Fairhope Before dying underscored by the writings of his beloved Tolstoy Henry could begin to perfect the soul awarded him and rest in the faith that he and all people would succeed even if it took eons Human existence Henry believed continues in a perfect circle unmarred by flaws of personality irrespective of blood and possessions and rank and separate from organized religion In Alabama until his final breath he would chase these high ideas But first Henry had to answer up for leaving Idaho Henry's dearest friend and intellectual sparring partner Pastor Will Webb and Henry s two adult sons Thomas and Harvey were baffled and angry that he would abandon them and move to the Deep South living in a barn there while he built a round house of handmade concrete blocks His new neighbors were perplexed by his eccentric behavior as well On the coldest day of winter he was barefoot a philosopher and poet with ideas and words to share with anyone who would listen And mysteriously his last few months became years He had gone looking for a place to learn lessons in dying and studiously advanced to claim a vigorous new life The Poet of Tolstoy Park is a moving and irresistible story a guidebook of the mind and spirit that lays hold of the heart Henry Stuart points the way through life s puzzles for all of us becoming in this timeless tale a character of such dimension that he seems more alive now than ever Stud-book and Register of the Cat Fanciers' Association of the United Hauntings of the Hudson River Valley Vincent T.
