F.P. Grove in Europe and Canada Klaus Martens, Paul Morris, 2001-07 With more than fifty period photos and documents countless letters and a foreword by E D Blodgett F P Grove in Europe and Canada represents the definitive biography of the writer Northrop Frye called a Canadian Dreiser This work will prove an invaluable resource for scholars in Canadian and German literature comparative literature modernism publishing history and translation studies BOOK JACKET Over Canadian Trails Frederick Philip Grove, 2007 Anglo-American Awareness Gisela Hermann-Brennecke, Wolf Kindermann, 2005 This volume presents an Anglo American research matrix radiating in various directions and transcending traditional academic boundaries and modes of perception It offers a diverse and multi faceted approach covering topics from freemasonry to the documentaries of Michael Moore from the Scottish best seller Trainspotting to German American literature in the US from anarchical traces in British novels to the influence of Laurence Sterne on Philipp Emanuel Bach from postcolonial fiction to intercultural awareness from Canadian literary beginnings to Casablanca Revisited This collection of thirteen contributions reflects the scope vitality and relevance of English and American Studies inside and outside the university Modern Realism in English-Canadian Fiction Colin Hill, 2012-01-01 Much of the scholarship on twentieth century Canadian literature has argued that English Canadian fiction was plagued by backwardness and an inability to engage fully with the movement of modernism that was so prevalent in British and American fiction and poetry Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction re evaluates Canadian literary culture to posit that it has been misunderstood because it is a distinct genre a regional form of the larger international modernist movement Examining literary magazines manifestos archival documents and major writers such as Frederick Philip Grove Morley Callaghan and Raymond Knister Colin Hill identifies a modern realism that crosses regions as well as urban and rural divides A bold reading of the modern realist aesthetic and an articulate challenge to several enduring and limiting myths about Canadian writing Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction will stimulate important debate in literary circles everywhere The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature

For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany The Politics of Cultural Mediation Paul Hjartarson, Tracy Kulba, 2003-05-28

Translators mediate between cultures they negotiate the transfer of meaning from one word and world to another Writers who migrate uprooting themselves from one world and settling in another also mediate between cultures and are mediated by them This collection of essays explores the contact zones produced by the migrations of two German born cultural figures New York Dada poet and artist Else Pl tz 1874 1927 better known as Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven or simply the Baroness and writer and translator Felix Paul Greve 1879 1948 aka the Canadian author Frederick Philip Grove Both figures negotiated languages beyond their mother tongue German both moved between geographic and cultural worlds both produced cultural works in their adopted countries the United States and Canada and both translated themselves into new contexts The Politics of Cultural Mediation features contributions by Richard Cavell Jutta Ernst Irene Gammel Paul Hjartarson Klaus Martens and Paul Morris and includes Morris s translation of Greve s Randarabesken Zu Oscar Wilde

The Canadian Alternative Klaus Martens, 2004 Downtown Canada Justin D. Edwards, Douglas Ivison, 2005-01-01

Downtown Canada is a collection of essays that addresses Canada as an urban place The contributors focus their attention on the writing of Canada s cities and call attention to the centrality of the city in Canadian literature Literary Impostors Rosmarin Heidenreich, 2018-07-30 In the first half of the twentieth century a number of Canadian authors were revealed to have faked the identities that made them famous What is extraordinary about these writers is that they actually became in everyday life characters they had themselves invented Many of their works were simultaneously fictional and autobiographical reflecting the duality of their identities In Literary Impostors Rosmarin Heidenreich tells the intriguing stories both the true and the fabricated versions of six Canadian authors who obliterated their pasts and re invented themselves Grey Owl was in fact an Englishman named Archie Belaney Will James the cowboy writer from the American West was the Quebec born francophone Ernest Dufault the prairie novelist Frederick Philip Grove turned out to be the German writer and translator Felix Paul Greve Chief Buffalo Child Long Lance Onoto Watanna and Sui Sin Far were the chosen identities of three mixed race writers whose given names were respectively Sylvester Long Winnifred Eaton and Edith Eaton Heidenreich argues that their imposture in some cases not discovered until long after their deaths was not fraudulent in the usual sense these writers forged new identities to become who they felt they really were In an age of proliferating cyber identities and controversial claims to ancestry Literary Impostors raises timely questions involving race migrancy and gender to illustrate the porousness of the line that is often drawn between an author s biography and the fiction he or she produces

A Dirge for My Daughter Frederick Philip Grove, 2006 Propaganda and Persuasion Jennifer

Anderson, 2017-05-10 During the early Cold War thousands of Canadians attended events organized by the Canadian Soviet

Friendship Society CSFS and subscribed to its publications The CSFS aimed its message at progressive Canadians hoping to convince them that the USSR was an egalitarian and enlightened state Attempting to soften define and redirect the antagonistic narratives of the day the CSFS story is one of propaganda and persuasion in Cold War Canada The CSFS was linked to other groups on the Canadian political left and was consistently lead by Canadian communists For many years its leader and best known member was the enigmatic Dyson Carter Raised in a religious family and educated as a scientist Carter was a prolific author of both popular scientific and pro Soviet books and for many years was the editor of the CSFS s magazine Northern Neighbours Subtitled Canada s Authoritative Independent Magazine Reporting on the U S S R the magazine featured glossy photo spreads of life in the Soviet Union and upbeat articles on science medicine cultural life and visits to the USSR by Canadians At the height of the Cold War Carter claimed the magazine reached 10 000 subscribers across Canada Using previously unavailable archival sources and oral histories Propaganda and Persuasion looks at the CSFS as a blend of social and political activism where gender class and ethnicity linked communities and ideology had significance

Canadian Literature in English W. J. Keith, 2006 W J Keith has chosen to ignore utterly both the popular at the one extreme Robert Service Lucy Maud Montgomery as well as the avant garde at the other bpnichol Anne Carson in favour of those authors whose style lends itself to the simple pleasure of reading and to that end Keith dedicates his history to all those including those of the general reading public whose endangered status is much lamented who recognize and celebrate the dance of words

The Farm Novel in North America Florian Freitag, 2013 Provides the first history of the North American farm novel a genre which includes John Steinbeck s The Grapes of Wrath Sheila Watson s The Double Hook and Louis H mon s Maria Chapdelaine

Character Parts Brian Busby, 2010-11-05 Ever wondered where novelists get the inspiration for their characters Why the hero or villain of your favourite book seems oddly familiar Who inspired Mordecai Richler to create Bernard Gursky Margaret Atwood to create Zenia in The Robber Bride In which novel does Northrop Frye appear as a character named Morton Hyland The answers can be found in Character Parts Brian Busby s irreverent yet authoritative guide to who s really who in Canadian literature The most original and entertaining reference book to be published in years Character Parts is the behind the scenes look at CanLit we have all been waiting for Brian Busby settles the suspicions that arise when a fictional character reminds you of a real life one listing the sources for characters from the whole of Canadian literature His canvas stretches from the settlers who inspired 1852 s Roughing It in the Bush to Glenn Gould s appearance as Nathaniel Orlando Gow in Tim Wynne Jones The Maestro and beyond But Character Parts is also chock full of fascinating less famous people who have been immortalized in Canadian books seductive Alberta politicians British army generals anarchists models aristocrats and of course parents siblings and ex spouses Authoritative but presented with a light touch Character Parts is as at home in a university library as on a bathroom shelf It s that rare find an exemplary reference book that is also an absolutely entertaining read in its own right

Baroness Elsa Irene

Gammel,2003-08-29 The first biography of the enigmatic dadaist known as the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven 1874 1927 is considered by many to be the first American dadaist as well as the mother of dada An innovator in poetic form and an early creator of junk sculpture the Baroness was best known for her sexually charged often controversial performances Some thought her merely crazed others thought her a genius The editor Margaret Anderson called her perhaps the only figure of our generation who deserves the epithet extraordinary Yet despite her great notoriety and influence until recently her story and work have been little known outside the circle of modernist scholars In Baroness Elsa Irene Gammel traces the extraordinary life and work of this daring woman viewing her in the context of female dada and the historical battles fought by women in the early twentieth century Striding through the streets of Berlin Munich New York and Paris wearing such adornments as a tomato soup can bra teaspoon earrings and black lipstick the Baroness erased the boundaries between life and art between the everyday and the outrageous between the creative and the dangerous Her art objects were precursors to dada objects of the teens and twenties her sound and visual poetry were far more daring than those of the male modernists of her time and her performances prefigured feminist body art and performance art by nearly half a century Migration and Fiction Maria Löschnigg,Martin Löschnigg,2009 University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto,2002 Canadian Review of Comparative Literature ,2002 Interpreting Cultures J. Hart,2016-09-23 This book focuses on how we perceive know and interpret culture across disciplinary boundaries The study combines theoretical and critical contexts for close readings in culture through discussions of literature philosophy history psychology and visual arts by and about men and women in Europe the Americas and beyond English and American Studies in German Paul Georg Meyer,2007
