Architecture Lisa Heschong,2021-03-11 Visual Delight in Architecture examines the many ways that our lives are enriched by the presence of natural daylight and window views within our buildings It makes a compelling case that daily exposure to the rhythms of daylight is essential to our health and well being tied to the very genetic foundations of our physiology and cognitive function It describes all the subtlety beauty and pleasures of well daylit spaces and attractive window views and explains how these are woven into the fabric of both our everyday sensory experience and enduring cultural perspectives All types of environmental designers along with anyone interested in human health and well being will find new insights offered by Visual Delight in Architecture The book is both accessible and provocative full of personal stories and persuasive research helping designers to gain a deeper understanding of the scientific basis of their designs scientists to better grasp the real world implications of their work and everyone to more fully appreciate the role of windows in their lives Arthurian Literature XIV James P. Carley,Felicity Riddy,1996 The principal article in this issue examines in detail a group of heraldic manuscripts an armorial of the Knights of the Round Table with a number of their arms reproduced in full colour the treatise on Arthurian tournaments by Jacques d Armagnac and the treatise on blazon by Clement Prinsault A scholarly edition of the two treatises is provided and the texts are discussed in an introductory section emphasising the importance of Arthurian heraldry The arms of 150 knights are painted in the manuscripts and blazoned and 59 of them are reproduced in 10 pages of full colour plates Other articles address the underlying theme of the Conte de Graal in which Alexander is seen as representing the negative aspects of charity Robert de Boron s endeavours to produce a coherent Arthuriad and correspondences between the Arthurian tellings of two Old French authors Manessier and Gerbert de Montreuil Contributors BARBARA SARGENT BAUR FANNI BOGDANOW LOUISE D STEVENS LISA JEFFERSON Far Eastern Economic Review , Changing Clothes in China Antonia Finnane,2023-05-30 Historians have long regarded fashion as something peculiarly Western In this surprising sumptuously illustrated book Antonia Finnane challenges this view which she argues is based on nineteenth and twentieth century representations of Chinese dress as traditional and unchanging Fashions she shows were part of Chinese life in the late imperial era even if a fashion industry was not then apparent In the early twentieth century the key features of modern fashion became evident particularly in Shanghai and rapidly changing dress styles showed the effects The volatility of Chinese dress throughout the twentieth century matched vicissitudes in national politics Finnane describes in detail how the close fitting jacket and high collar of the 1911 Revolutionary period the skirt and jacket blouse of the May Fourth era and the military style popular in the Cultural Revolution gave way finally to the variegated globalized wardrobe of today She brilliantly connects China's modernization and global visibility with changes in dress offering a vivid portrait of the complex subtle and sometimes contradictory ways the people of China have worn their nation on their backs New York Magazine, 1971-12-20 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Compton Yearbook, 1958 Criminal Law for Police Officers Neil C.
