planet Director Richard Lester producer Walter Shenson and screenwriter Alun Owen were hired to churn out just another cheap exploitation film but instead used the opportunity to create a startlingly fresh and original movie that broke new ground both in subject matter instead of simply following genre tradition and sticking the band in some corny made up plot they had the Beatles play themselves in a narrative based on their own incredible real life experiences and in form Lester's inspired surrealist approach to the film's musical numbers kicked off the entire music video revolution Covered is the film's frantic six week shoot the lively recording sessions that resulted in seven great new Beatles songs and how both the film and the album met with great critical and popular success
