Collected Poems, 1943-2004 Richard Wilbur, 2004 Publisher Description The Limits of Fabrication Nathan Brown, 2017-01-02 Poetry or poesis has long been understood as a practice of making But how are experiments in the making of poetic forms related to formal making in science and engineering The Limits of Fabrication takes up this question in the context of recent developments in nanoscale materials science investigating concepts and ideologies of form at stake in new approaches to material construction Tracing the direct pertinence of fields crucial to the new materials science nanotechnology biotechnology crystallography and geodesic design in the work of Shanxing Wang Caroline Bergvall Christian B k and Ronald Johnson back to the midcentury development of Charles Olson s objectist poetics Nathan Brown carves out a tradition of constructivist nonorganic poetics that has developed in conversation with science and engineering While proposing a new approach to the relation of techn craft skill and poesis making forming this book also intervenes in philosophical debates concerning the concept of the object the distinction between organic and inorganic matter theories of self organization and the relation between design and nature Engaging with Heidegger Agamben Whitehead Stiegler and Nancy Brown shows that materials science and materialist poetics offer crucial resources for thinking through the direction of contemporary materialist philosophy Classes on Modern Poets and the Art of Poetry James Dickey, 2004 Housman Gerard Manley Hopkins Robert Frost Walter de la Mare and Robert Bridges American War Poetry Lorrie Goldensohn, 2006 Arranged by war the book begins with the Colonial period and proceeds through Whitman admiring Civil War soldiers crossing a river to end with Brian Turner who published his first book in 2005 beckoning a bullet in contemporary Iraq New and Selected Poems Winfield Townley Scott, 1967 New Selected Poems Thom Gunn, 2025-06-25 A new selection of poems by the celebrated gay poet Thom Gunn has been described as one of the most singular and compelling poets in English during the past half century Times Literary Supplement Gunn was an Elizabethan poet in modern guise though there s nothing archaic quaint or sepia toned about his poetry His method was dispassionate and rigorous uniquely well suited for making a poetic record of the tumultuous time in which he lived Gunn s dozens of brilliantly realized poems about nature friendship literature sexual love and death are set against the ever changing backdrop of San Francisco the druggy politically charged sixties and the plague years of AIDS in the eighties Perhaps no contemporary poet was better equipped by temperament circumstance or poetic gift to engage the subjects of eros and thanatos than Thom Gunn This New Selected Poems compiled by his friend Clive Wilmer and accompanied by insightful notes is the first edition to represent the full arc of Gunn s inimitable career a dirty hand Winfield Townley Scott, 2013-10-02 From a dirty hand Words are very powerful You aren t sure of that Think of all the things you won t say Wonderful remark in a note I had this week from William Carlos Williams He spoke of the disease of wanting to write poetry said he had been off poetry for many months and he said I feel clean and unhappy One reason for keeping this kind of notebook you can put on record the retort you couldn't think of at last night's party Photographs of Henry James in his middle years should be commented upon Gone is the shy aesthete of the youthful portrait by LaFarge This bearded man has a fierce look even a bestial one Here is perhaps I don't know James at his most generative Again this man disappears in the shaven bald final James the famous James the Grand Lama I noticed when Lindsay thirteen read aloud a passage from a hunting book the other day he pronounced genital as genteel I'd love to see a literary history titled The Genital Tradition Contrast business ethics and the ethics of art Nobody writes a poem hoping it will wear out in four or five years Between 1951 and 1966 the distinguished American poet Winfield Townley Scott kept a series of notebooks in which he set down his thoughts on poetry literature the literary scene and life in general Shortly before his untimely death in 1968 he made a selection of the entries he thought were best and gave it the title a dirty hand These perceptive notes some tart some gentle some boisterous some wistful give us a remarkable insight into the workings of his creative mind George P Elliott has said of Scott In a very solid way I think he was as rock bottom American a poet as we have had since Frost The introduction is by Scott's good friend Merle Armitage who also designed the original edition of this book Tennyson and the Fabrication of Englishness M. Sherwood, 2013-03-05 Through an examination of Tennyson's domestic poetry his portrayals of England and the English in their changing nineteenth century context this book demonstrates that many of his representations were fabrications more idealized than real which played a vital part in the country's developing identity and sense of its place in the world

Selected Poetry and Prose Chiara Matraini, 2009-05-15 Chiara Matraini 1515-1604 was a member of the great flowering of poetic imitators and innovators in the Italian literary heritage begun by Petrarch cultivated later by the lyric poet Pietro Bembo and supplanted by the epic poet Torquato Tasso Though without formal training Matraini excelled in a number of literary genres popular at the time poetry religious meditation discourse and dialogue In her midlife she published a collection of erotic love poetry but later in life her work shifted toward a search for spiritual salvation Near the end of her life she published a new poetry retrospective Mostly available in only a handful of rare book collections her writings are now adeptly translated here for an English speaking audience and situated historically in an introduction by noted Matraini expert Giovanna Rabitti Selected Poetry and Prose allows the poet to finally take her place as one of the seminal authors of the Renaissance next to her contemporaries Vittoria Colonna and Laura Battiferra also published in the Other Voice series

The Collected Poems of Ted Berrigan Ted Berrigan, 2007-03-21 Comfortably intimate classically adroit in its formal wit and invention altogether unique yet in no way excluding this meticulously edited edition of a master poet's collected works gives us the defining bridge from the New American Poetry of the 50s to that poetry now contemporary on both coasts and in all conditions No one ever recognized the people with whom he lived more particularly than did Ted Berrigan and no one ever brought them home to a reader with such unaggressive and persistent power This is a great great book for all seasons of the mind and heart Robert Creeley Ted Berrigan was a leader of the New York School his crazy energy embodied that movement and the city itself It is wonderful to have his Collected Poems in print John Ashbery A comprehensive and carefully chronicled volume that puts Ted Berrigan in historical context as one of the most influential poets of his generation His poems deft light definitely humorous irreverent poignant marvelous and tough The truth doing its work the great man doing the ordinary thing with a quick ear and a quick tongue revealing the personal in the universal He gives you his full attention about to be born again thinking of you Joanne Kyger In a life devoted to experimental art Ted Berrigan shaped his poetry and the space he occupied with a bold artistry based on his playful but powerfully skeptical view of the world He wondered what might actually be captured within the pages of a book but The Collected Poems allows us to again enjoy Ted Berrigan s delightfully demanding presence Lorenzo Thomas A singular balance of personal historical vision and sentiment both sweet and sour developed within the fractured verbalism of the late twentieth century found lyric creates in Ted Berrigan s poems the unique colors of a particularly lived and still intensely living ensemble of moments Tom Clark author of Late Returns A Memoir of Ted Berrigan Some people are just more real than others I don t know another way to say it Ted Berrigan is totally real and he has fashioned an important sound for all of us to listen to He put it all together just before everyone else in his time our time got going America is lucky to count him as one of its great poets Peter Gizzi Edwin Arlington Robinson Scott Donaldson,2007-01-09 At the time of his death in 1935 Edwin Arlington Robinson was regarded as the leading American poet the equal of Frost and Stevens In this biography Scott Donaldson tells the intriguing story of this poet s life based in large part on a previously unavailable trove of more than 3 000 personal letters and recounts his profoundly important role in the development of modern American literature Born in 1869 the youngest son of a well to do family in Gardiner Maine Robinson had two brothers Dean a doctor who became a drug addict and Herman an alcoholic who squandered the family fortune Robinson never married but he fell in love as many as three times most lastingly with the woman who would become his brother Herman s wife Despite his shyness Robinson made many close friends and he repeatedly went out of his way to give them his support and encouragement Still it was always poetry that drove him He regarded writing poems as nothing less than his calling what he had been put on earth to do Struggling through long years of poverty and neglect he achieved a voice and a subject matter all his own He was the first to write about ordinary people and events an honest butcher consumed by grief a miser with eyes like little dollars in the dark ancient clerks in a dry goods store measuring out their days like bolts of cloth In simple yet powerful rhetoric he explored the interior worlds of the people around him Robinson was a major poet and a pivotal figure in the course of modern American literature yet over the years his reputation has declined With his biography Donaldson returns this remarkable talent to the pantheon of great American poets and sheds new light on his enduring legacy James Joyce and the Fabrication of an Irish Identity ,2021-10-18 Nationalism and African Intellectuals Toyin Falola,2004 An examination of the attempt by Western educated African intellectuals to create a better Africa through connecting nationalism to knowledge from the anti colonial movement to the present day This book is about how African intellectuals influenced primarily by nationalism have addressed the inter related issues of power identity politics self assertion and autonomy for themselves and their continent from the mid nineteenth century onward Their major goal was to create a better Africa by connecting nationalism to knowledge The results have been mixed from the glorious euphoria of the success of anti colonial movements to the depressing circumstances of the African condition as we enter a new millennium As the intellectual elite is a creation of the Western formal school system the ideas it generated are also connected to the larger world of scholarship This world is in turn shaped by European contacts with Africa from the fifteenth century onward the politics of the Cold War and the subsequent collapse of the Soviet Union In essence Africa and its elite cannot be fully understood without also considering the West and changing global politics Neither can the academic and media contributions by non Africans be ignored as these also affect the ways that Africans think about themselves and their continent Nationalism and African Intellectuals examines intellectuals ambivalent relationships with the colonial apparatus and subsequent nation state formations the contradictions manifested within pan Africanism and nationalism and the relation of academic institutions and intellectual production to the state during the nationalism period and beyond Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin

Bodies of Poems Lennart Nyberg, 2009 The traditional borders between the arts have been eroded to reveal new connections and create new links between art forms Cultural Interactions is intended to provide a forum for this activity It will publish monographs edited collections and volumes of primary material on points of crossover such as those between literature and the visual arts or photography and fiction music and theatre sculpture and historiography

Collected Poems Constantine Cavafy, 2009 Presents a complete collection of the modern Greek poet's work including his unfinished poems which explores themes of longing and loneliness fate and loss memory and identity throughout the history of Greek civilization

The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-Century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996-09-26 This is a unique new reference book to English language writers and writing throughout the present century in all major genres and from all around the world from Joseph Conrad to Will Self Virginia Woolf to David Mamet Ezra Pound to Peter Carey James Joyce to Amy Tan The survivors of the Victorian age who feature in The Oxford Companion to Twentieth Century Literature in English writers such as Thomas Hardy Olive Schreiner Rabindranath Tagore Henry James could hardly have imagined how richly diverse Literature in English would become by the end of the century Fiction plays poetry and a whole range of non fictional writing are celebrated in this informative readable and catholic reference book which includes entries on literary movements periodicals and over 400 individual works as well as articles on some 2 400 authors All the great literary figures are included whether American or Australian British Irish or Indian African or Canadian or Caribbean among them Samuel Beckett Edith Wharton Patrick White T S Eliot Derek Walcott D H Lawrence Tennessee Williams Vladimir Nabokov Wole Soyinka Sylvia Plath as well as a wealth of less obviously canonical writers from Anaïs Nin to L. M. Montgomery, Bob Dylan to Terry Pratchett. The book comes right up to date with contemporary figures such as Toni Morrison, Ben Okri, Salman Rushdie, Carol Shields, Tim Winton, Nadine Gordimer, Vikram Seth, Don DeLillo and many others. Title entries range from Aaron's Rod to The Zoo Story; topics from Angry Young Men, Bestsellers and Concrete Poetry to Soap Opera, Vietnam Writing and Westerns. A lively introduction by John Sutherland highlights the various and sometimes contradictory canons that have emerged over the century and the increasingly international sources of writing in English which the Companion records. Catering for all literary tastes, this is the most comprehensive single volume guide to modern and postmodern literature. Pebble, 1979.

A House Called Tomorrow Michael Wiegers, 2023-02-28. Copper Canyon Press celebrates its first 50 years of poetry publishing in anticipation of the next 50 years. Poetry is vital to language and living. This anthology celebrates 50 years of Copper Canyon Press publications, one extraordinary poem at a time. Since its founding, Copper Canyon has been entirely dedicated to publishing poetry books here. Editor in Chief Michael Wiegers invites press staff and board, past and present, to help curate a retrospective. The result is a collection of beloved poems from books spanning half a century, representing Pulitzer Prize-winning books, debut collections, works in translation, and rare books from Copper Canyon's early days. This book is a tribute to Copper Canyon poets and readers everywhere because, as Gregory Orr writes, "Certain poems in an uncertain world / The ones we cling to / They bring us back." Metaphor and the Slave Trade in West African Literature Laura T. Murphy, 2012-04-02. Metaphor and the Slave Trade provides compelling evidence of the hidden but unmistakable traces of the transatlantic slave trade that persist in West African discourse. Through an examination of metaphors that describe the trauma, loss, and suffering associated with the commerce in human lives, this book shows how the horrors of slavery are communicated from generation to generation. Laura T. Murphy's insightful new readings of canonical West African fiction, autobiography, drama, and poetry explore the relationship between memory and metaphor and emphasize how repressed or otherwise marginalized memories can be transmitted through images, tropes, rumors, and fears. By analyzing the unique codes through which West Africans have represented the slave trade, this work foregrounds African literary contributions to Black Atlantic discourse and draws attention to the archive that metaphor unlocks for scholars of all disciplines and fields of study.
