Face A Novella In Verse:

The Face David St. John, 2011-07-19 A haunting and inventive book length sequence of poems from the distinguished author of Study for the World's Body The Face is both fiercely lyrical and intimately conversational Coming to terms with the failure of a great love the speaker descends into his own dark night of the soul Here are poems that explore the drama of the shattered self in a variety of voices calling on memory to speak and imagination to make beauty from the shards Slowly the speaker reassembles his life and again finds faith in himself and the world These poems reveal a swirling cinematic poetry of visionary scope meditative and confessional in some moments ironic and playful in others Deeply passionate and raw in its candour The Face may be for this generation of poets what Lowell's Life Studies and Ashbery's Self Portrait in a Convex Mirror were
