Expression Of Historical Knowledge:

The Expression of Historical Knowledge J. L. Gorman,1982-01-01 Historical Knowledge Susanna

Fellman,Marjatta Rahikainen,2011-10-18 Historical Knowledge approaches the topic of historical knowledge in depth and from various angles It seeks to offer theoretical and methodological building blocks for the use of anyone pursuing historical research This book brings novel insights into classic and topical issues currently under debate the importance of theory in historical thinking the dialectic of text and annotation the actor and observer levels the relationship between the general and the individual the issue of comparison and the problem of sporadic sources and of understanding the singularity of each one The overall theme of the book the possibility of historical knowledge reflects the very issue that makes historical research distinctive the challenges of evidence and the problems both concrete and conceptual with deciphering and interpreting remnants of the past This book refreshes the discussion about sources and proper evidence two issues that the linguistic turn and the postmodern challenge pushed into the background The book addresses these issues in an easily accessible way and serves as an introduction and guide to the role of theory method and evidence in historical research not only for students and scholars of history but also for anyone outside the field with an interest in the topic Historical Knowledge is the first book to include texts by the three eminent historians Professors Natalie Zemon Davis Carlo Ginzburg and Giovanni Levi The other contributors Professors Risto Alapuro Janken Myrdal and Matti Peltonen are active debaters in current theoretical and methodological discussion Philosophical Foundations of Historical Knowledge Murray G. Murphey,1994-01-01

Historical Knowledge in Biblical Antiquity ,2019-05-21 Fourteen essays by leading scholars J Neusner B D Chilton W S Green L H Schiffman A J Avery Peck G W E Nickelsburg S Mason C Dewald M Aviam G G Porton ask two questions What was the purpose of studying the past in biblical antiquity and what sorts of information did the historians who produced Scripture in Judaism and Christianity seek in accomplishing their purpose Ancient Israelite and Greek historiography set the stage for a survey of how diverse Christian and Judaic writers defined the historical mission and carried it out The Hebrew Scriptures Gospels Dead Sea scrolls apocryphal and pseudepigraphic writers Josephus the Mishnah and the Talmuds all are asked to answer those questions The Anatomy of Historical Knowledge Maurice Mandelbaum,2019-12-01 Originally published in 1977 In this major work an overview of the structure of historical writing Maurice Mandelbaum clarifies some of the problems concerning the nature of history as a discipline of what constitutes explanation in history and whether historical knowledge is as reliable as other forms of knowledge The work is divided into three parts The first part provides an analytic account of different types of historical inquiry The second treats at length the nature of causal explanation in everyday life and in science and considers the relation between causes and laws The final part analyzes the concept of objectivity and estimates both the extent to which the inquiries of historians can be said to be objective and the limits of that objectivity in some types of historical accounts Knowledge Building in Early Modern English Music Katie Bank,2020-08-16

Knowledge Building in Early Modern English Music is a rich interdisciplinary investigation into the role of music and musical culture in the development of metaphysical thought in late sixteenth early seventeenth century England The book considers how music presented questions about the relationships between the mind body passions and the soul drawing out examples of domestic music that explicitly address topics of human consciousness such as dreams love and sensing Early seventeenth century metaphysical thought is said to pave the way for the Enlightenment Self Yet studies of the music s role in natural philosophy has been primarily limited to symbolic functions in philosophical treatises virtually ignoring music making s substantial contribution to this watershed period Contrary to prevailing narratives the author shows why music making did not only reflect impending change in philosophical thought but contributed to its formation The book demonstrates how recreational song such as the English madrigal confronted assumptions about reality and representation and the role of dialogue in cultural production and other ideas linked to changes in how knowledge was built Focusing on music by John Dowland Martin Peerson Thomas Weelkes and William Byrd this study revises historiography by reflecting on the experience of music and how music contributed to the way early modern awareness was shaped

Expressing the Inexpressible in Lyotard and Pseudo-Dionysius Mélanie V. Walton,2013-08-29 Testimony demands the witness to demonstrate her knowledge that she must have by the fact of being a witness to something even if this something exceeds the possibility of expression by any means amenable to verification Expressing the Inexpressible in Lyotard and Pseudo Dionysius Bearing Witness as Spiritual Exercise rigorously studies the inexpressible expression provoked by two illustrative examples the silenced testimony of the Holocaust survivor in Jean Fran ois Lyotard s The Differend and the religious faithful in Pseudo Dionysius The Divine Names Though coming from vastly different philosophical moments the methods used by Lyotard and Dionysius prove to dissolve the apparent heterogeneity of postmodernism and Neoplatonist Christian mysticism and open radical new lines of dialogue M lanie Victoria Walton critically evaluates each thinker and tradition rethinks witnessing testimony sublimity and apophaticism and then engages them together to forge a new reading of silence and eros The resulting insights will be especially valuable to students and scholars of Continental philosophy philosophy of religion theology and religious studies medieval studies and Holocaust studies

The Power of Historical Knowledge Susan L. Mizruchi,2014-07-14 In this provocative study Susan Mizruchi argues that the act of writing history is the key to the political concerns of American novelists Using nineteenth century theories of history as well as recent narratological models she examines reconstructions of the past in The House of the Seven Gables 1851 The Bostonians 1886 The Wings of the Dove 1902 and An American Tragedy 1925 Her special focus allows us to see that the efforts on the part of characters and narrators alike to reshape the past reveal both anxieties about the self and larger struggles for political power Professor Mizruchi demonstrates the deepening connections between narrative and political coercion from Hawthorne to Dreiser whose novels as she further shows both incorporate and portray their characters incorporating the conditions of their contemporary worlds Her argument addresses a major contemporary dialogue on the subversive qualities of American texts and the place of history in literary interpretation Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Faces of the Crystal Damanhur Coboldo Melo, 2017-10-29 Over the centuries philosophers and spiritual leaders who did not behave in a virtuous way or spoke too freely of their theories often had problems with survival from Socrates to Plato and then Osho Krishnamurti Mere Kriyananda all the way to the spiritual guide of Damanhur Falco Tarassaco On these pages we recapitulate the events of a very Italian experience that started more than forty years ago esoteric thought creation of a Popolo Spirituale Spiritual People community life with transformations that have come about through alchemies that were not always easy through Temples art alternative economy Selfica technology networks of organizations and a complex social political organization Damanhur is like a crystal with many faces to discover visiting or living there for shorter or longer periods of time

Recent Trends in Theoretical Psychology Henderikus J. Stam, Leendert P. Mos, Warren Thorngate, Bernie Kaplan, 2012-12-06 I was asked and alas with little reflection on the magnitude of the task thoughtlessly consented to take on the simple job of writing a preface to the collection of essays comprising this volume That I was asked to carry out this simple task was probably due to one consideration I was the main representative of the host institution Clark University for the 1991 ISTP Conference at which the talks foreshadowing and outlining the extended remarks here printed were originally presented and hence as a token of gratitude I was vouchsafed the honor of setting the stage It did not dawn on me until I began piecemeal to receive and accumulate over a period of months the remarkably diverse and heterogeneous essays precipitated by the conference how mind boggling it would be to pen a preface pertinent to such an aggregate of prima acie unrelated articles Typically prefaces to collections of essays from different hands are attempts by the prefator or a pride of prefators to provide an overview a concise map of the complex terrain which readers are invited to enter or to direct the attention of potential readers to what the editors take to be the essential or central themes of each of the variegated articles a practice which not infrequently and often not unjustifiably irritates and even enrages individual authors who object to the complexity profundity and nuanced character of their thought being reduced to clicMs and editorial equivalents of sound bites

Hegel and the Challenge of Spinoza George di Giovanni,2021-09-30 Hegel and the Challenge of Spinoza explores the powerful continuing influence of Spinoza s metaphysical thinking in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century German philosophy George di Giovanni examines the ways in which Hegel s own metaphysics sought to meet the challenges posed by Spinoza s monism not by disproving monism but by rendering it moot In this di Giovanni argues Hegel was much closer in spirit to Kant and Fichte than to Schelling This book will be of interest to students and researchers interested in post Kantian Idealism Romanticism and metaphysics

Historical Knowledge Production Cultures in Late Socialist Hungary and Croatia Réka Krizmanics,2024-01-08 Historical Knowledge Production Cultures in Late Socialist Hungary and Croatia Expertise Unsettled offers a comparative study and analysis from the Hungarian case and integrating academic party and popular historiography into a single analytical framework Narratives concerning the history of the interwar period and the Second World War and circumstances of their elaboration are at the forefront of this study R ka Krizmanics argues that even within state socialist Eastern Europe different enabling and restrictive factors were at play and investigates the specificities of late socialism while embedding them in the context of their interwar Stalinist and post Stalinist legacies Expertise Unsettled refers to the growing peril of historians who proved to be often divided among themselves and were increasingly on the defense as a guild when literature cinema and interested non professionals got involved in making and criticizing narratives of the recent past Party history and party historians have been often sidelined in intellectual history but the author argues that their inclusion is crucial both for a more complex understanding of what late state socialism meant for historians and to historicize practices of contemporary post socialist especially illiberal memory regimes
