Extra Virgin Amongst The Olive Groves Of Liguria:

Extra Virgin Annie Hawes, 2001-04-26 A small stone house deep among the olive groves of Liguria going for the price of a dodgy second hand car Annie Hawes and her sister on the spot by chance have no plans whatsoever to move to the Italian Riviera but find naturally that it is an offer they can't refuse The laugh is on the Foreign Females who discover that here amongst the hardcore olive farming folk their incompetence is positively alarming Not to worry the thrifty villagers of Diano San Pietro are on the case and soon plying the Pallid Sisters with advice ridicule tall tales and copious hillside refreshments

Tuscan Spaces Silvia Ross, 2010-01-01 In Tuscan Spaces Silvia Ross focuses on constructions of Tuscany in twentieth century Italian literature and juxtaposes them with English prose works by such authors as E M Forster and Frances Mayes to expose the complexity of literary representation centred on a single milieu The Making and Unmaking of

Mediterranean Landscape in Italian Literature Tullio Pagano, 2015-04-29 The book focuses on literary representations of the northern Italian region of Liguria whose landscape has been portrayed by internationally known Italian poets and novelists from Eugenio Montale to Italo Calvino The author argues that the most perceptive authors situate themselves on a metaphorical ridge dividing the dark side of Mediterranean landscape with its harsh and mountainous territory from the sun drenched Riviera celebrated by the tourist industry and for the most part destroyed during the so called economic boom The complex and often antithetical concepts of landscape examined in the introduction inform the author's readings of those modern and contemporary writers who have tried to make sense of the ambivalences present in Ligurian landscape from the period of Italian Risorgimento to the present Cultural Sociology of Cultural Representations Christopher

Thorpe, 2023-12-22 This book provides a historical cultural sociological analysis of cultural representations of Italy in England and later Britain from the period of the Italian Renaissance to the present day Rooted in a critical account of orthodox social scientific approaches to thinking and theorising cultural representation the study combines analytical frames and conceptual apparatus from Bourdieu's Field theory and Yale School cultural sociology Drawing from a wide range of empirical data and studies the book demonstrates the significance of representations of the Italian peninsula and its people for exploring a range of cultural sociological phenomena from the classing and commodification of Italy to the role of Italian symbolism for negotiating cultural trauma identify formation and expressions of cultural edification veneration and emulation As such it will be of interest to scholars of cultural sociology history anthropology Italian studies as well as scholars in international studies interested in intercultural exchange and representations of other nations national cultures and otherness Constellations

of the Transnational, 2015-06-29 In the wake of proliferating discourses around globalisation and culture some central questions around cultural politics have acquired a commonsensical and hegemonic character in contemporary intellectual discourse The politics of difference the possibilities of hybridity and the potential of multiple liminalities frame much discussion around the transnational dimensions of culture and post identity politics In this volume the economic political and social consequences of the focus on culture in contemporary theories of globalization are analysed around the disparate fields of architecture museum discourse satellite television dub poetry carnival and sub national theatre The discourses of hybridity diaspora cultural difference minoritization are critically interrogated and engaged with through close analysis of cultural objects and practices The essays thus intervene in the debate around modernity globalization and cultural politics and the volume as a whole provides a critical constellation through which the complexity of transnational culture can be framed Thinking through the particular the essays limn the absent universality of forms of capitalist globalization and the volume as a whole provides multiple perspectives from which to enter the singular modernity of our times in all its complexity

Transnational Writing on Italy Lynn Mastellotto, 2025-03-18 Relocation narratives form a distinct subgenre of contemporary travel memoirs concerned with the experiences of travellers who become settlers in foreign locales and narrate their experience of cultural accommodation in serial autobiographical accounts This book seeks to understand the discourse of identity alterity in relocation writing which focuses on the topos of everyday life from a transnational perspective one which embraces a cosmopolitan orientation of openness to cultural difference Focusing on three transnational writers in Italy and their respective relocation trilogies Frances Mayes's Tuscan memoirs Annie Hawes's Ligurian memoirs and Tim Parks's Verona memoirs the study examines the sustained engagement with place and place based practices given narrative voice through multipart works which trace the authors migrating identities These nonfiction accounts contribute to a broader polyphonic literature in which transnational writers give voice to personal stories shaped by intercultural experiences which provide a powerful localised lens to examine how identities are dialogically transformed through contact with difference in a globalised world By giving readers an opportunity to reflect on identity and diversity in local global contexts transnational literature contributes to a better understanding of cultural change in late modernity and provides an important space for critical creative and transcultural exchange
