The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles George Herbermann,Edward Aloysius Pace,1913 Dialectics and the Sublime in Underhill's Mysticism Peter Chong-Beng Gan,2015-04-29 This book represents a study of Evelyn Underhill's premier work on mysticism using Hegel's dialectics and Kant's theory of the sublime as interpretive tools It especially focuses on two prominent features of Underhill's text the description of the mystical life as one permeated by an intense love between the mystic and infinite reality and the detailed delineation of stages of mystical development Given these two features the text lends itself to a construction of a valuable discourse predicated on dialecticism sublimity and mysticism The book also articulates a number of insights into the content and nature of the writings of Christian mystics The Dublin review ,1872

The Dublin Review Nicholas Patrick Wiseman, 1872 The English Prose Treatises of Richard Rolle Claire Elizabeth McIlroy, 2004 The author argues that in these devotional works which appealed to a broad readership in late medieval England Rolle successfully refines traditional affective strategies to develop an implied reader identity the individual soul seeking the love of God which empowers each and every reader in his or her own spiritual journey Jacket

The Catholic Encyclopedia: Brow-Clancy ,1913 Indian Antiquary ,1872 At a time when each Society had its own medium of propagation of its researches in the form of Transactions Proceedings Journals etc a need was strongly felt for bringing out a journal devoted exclusively to the study and advancement of Indian culture in all its aspects This encouraged Jas Burgess to launch the Indian antiquary in 1872 The scope was in his own words as wide as possible incorporating manners and customs arts mythology feasts festivals and rites antiquities and the history of India Another laudable aim was to present the readers abstracts of the most recent researches of scholars in India and the West Indian antiquary also dealt with local legends folklore proverbs etc In short Indian antiquary was entirely devoted to the study of MAN the Indian in all spheres Introduction to facsimile volumes published 1985 Ethnic Identities in Bernard Malamud's Fiction Martín Urdiales Shaw, 2000 The present study has been divided into five general chapters each of which is centred around a basic issue related to ethnic identities This central issue may be more or less specific largely depending on its nature and on the corpus it comprises for example chapter two which bears the general title the old country and the New World is naturally the most extensive because of the great scope of this theme and the number of works it involves two novels and a considerable number of stories including the very long Man in the Drawer By contrast the last chapter entitled Beyond Race into Myth Seeking the Liberation of the Self is logically the shortest because its focus is restricted to a particular function of ethnic identities metaphorically speaking in Malamud s fantastic works the novel God s Grace and one short story Similar proportions between length complexity of theme and corpus treated are maintained in the three central chapters which focus on ethnic aspects which are neither as general as chapter two nor as specific as chapter six Introduction to Medieval Theology Rik Van Nieuwenhove, 2022-03-24 The best introduction to medieval theology from the time of St Augustine to the 14th century in an expanded 2nd edition This volume invites us to think along with major theologians and spiritual authors in order to understand how pre modern thought can enrich and challenge us in a post modern context So Longeth My Soul Joanna Collicutt, 2024-06-30 Students of Christian spirituality often have an ambivalent attitude to primary sources from the past On the one hand they are intrigued by the mysterious otherness of their and the promise that this very otherness may take them into exciting uncharted territory On the other hand they lack the confidence to navigate this territory so that what begins as strangely intriguing can quickly become just too weird The SCM Reader in Christian Spirituality not only offers a collection of readings from the classic texts of Christian spirituality but also gives the reader a way into these texts that enables them to be received as living and relevant for both personal spirituality and ministry An introductory section guides the student through the process and offers techniques for approaching these often ancient texts The Reader then presents readings from the patristic to the end of the early modern period encompassing both the Eastern and Western church traditions grouped around key themes and including extensive notes and contextual material *Moritz Steinschneider.
