Extraordinary Educators Lessons In Leadership:

Extraordinary Educators Charles A. Reavis, 1988 Profiles are presented of six superior educators whose students achieved an excellence far beyond what might be expected of them The subjects were a speech and drama teacher a girls basketball coach a choral music teacher an art teacher and principals of an elementary and a secondary school The major finding of the study was that without exception these leaders gave a high number of correctives Any deviations even minor ones from their high standards were corrected quickly and not infrequently very sharply Other significant findings were 1 they were purposive demanding perfectionists 2 they had a sense of humor and tended toward self deprecation 3 they gave only a limited amount of praise 4 they stressed self discipline responsibility and always doing one s best 5 they attained a high amount of time on task and 6 they were very family oriented Comparisons are made between the characteristics of these educators and leaders in the business world Recommendations are made for teacher and administrator education JD

Resources in Education, 1988      How to Reform a Business School - The Ivy League Way Ashish Jaiswal, 2015-02-16 Within 100 years of its existence BUSINESS for better or worse has become the most popular subject in higher education sending a larger number of graduates into the economy than any other Ironically the most popular discipline is also now the most condemned Undoubtedly business schools are at a crossroads and under the scanner In How to Reform a Business School Ashish Jaiswal meticulously demonstrates the problems plaguing the world of business schools and brings together the key contextual debates and concepts of foundational theory on the subject of reforms in MBAs Jaiswal makes a major methodological contribution to this little explored field by presenting a novel exploratory framework which employs a fresh combination of the social constructionist and implementation perspectives to research the implementation of business school reform Jaiswal conducts a rigorous in depth case study of one of the most substantial curricular and pedagogical reforms in business school history recently undertaken by Yale School of Management The Yale case study illustrates the forces influencing the development of a unique integrated MBA curriculum at an Ivy League business school and presents the factors that can help business schools around the world in implementing a successful reform Jaiswal establishes how the perceived identity of a particular business school impacts upon the way in which MBA curricula are evolving Ashish Jaiswal presents a strong argument against the monolithic treatment of higher education in the reform literature and urges scholars to focus on departmental idiosyncrasies and the territorial characteristics of subjects particularly in the MBA where context market and accreditation dynamics play a vital role How to Reform a Business School is a must read for business schools wanting to break the shackles of the ordinary and to successfully implement an MBA curriculum relevant in the 21st century ADVANCE PRAISE There is little doubt that business schools are at a crossroads and looking for answers Jaiswal s superbly captured Yale School of Management s case study is a must read for business school deans and anyone remotely connected with or interested in reforming business education Jaiswal meticulously lifts the dark fog surrounding the world of curricular reforms in MBA The business schools can definitely use How to Reform a Business School as a manual to implement successful reforms A very important and timely book for business schools Sue Dopson Rhodes Trust Professor of Organisational Behaviour Sa d Business School University of Oxford MBAs have proved extraordinarily resilient in the last decade despite having played a role in the education of those often held responsible for the global financial collapse This book examines the way Yale succeeded in breaking the mould and developing an integrated curriculum that transcended the functional silos which still bedevil the vast majority of MBAs If you want to know what the future MBA looks like read this Keith Grint Professor of Public Leadership Management Warwick Business School With calls for accountability in Higher Ed increasing this is a timely look at a curriculum reform at Yale s School of Management Ashish Jaiswal s dual focus on process and implementation of the MBA curriculum at Yale advances the study of curriculum reform and provides a road map for practitioners Dr Jaiswal pulls back the curtain and lets us see what s behind the wizardry at Yale School of Management Given Yale s resources prestige and brand their choices provide a good perspective for MBA programs around the globe William J Swinton Director International Business Studies Temple University Japan Campus
