Verse Drama in England, 1900-2015 Irene Morra, 2016-10-20 Verse Drama in England 1900 2015 provides a critical and historical exploration of a tradition of modern dramatic creativity that has received very little scholarly attention Exploring the emergence of a distinctly modern verse drama at the turn of the century and its development into the twenty first it counters common assumptions that the form is a marginal fundamentally outdated curiosity Through an examination of the extensive and diverse engagement of literary and theatrical writers directors and musicians Irene Morra identifies in modern verse drama a consistent and often prominent attempt to expand upon revitalize and redefine the contemporary English stage

Dramatists discussed include Stephen Phillips Gordon Bottomley John Masefield James Elroy Flecker T S Eliot W H Auden Ronald Duncan Christopher Fry John Arden Anne Ridler Tony Harrison Steven Berkoff Caryl Churchill and Mike Bartlett The book explores the negotiation of these dramatists with the changing position of verse drama in relation to constructions of national and communal audience aesthetic challenge and dramatic heritage Key to the study is the self conscious positioning of many of these dramatists in relation to an assumed mainstream tradition and the various critical responses that that positioning has provoked The study advocates for a scholarly revaluation of what must be identified as an influential and overlooked tradition of aesthetic challenge and creativity The Art Gallery on Stage Mariacristina Cavecchi,2024-03-21

Winner of the AIA Associazione Italiana di Anglistica Book Prize 2024 The Art Gallery on Stage is the first book to consider the representation of the art gallery on the contemporary British stage and to discuss how playwrights have begun to regard it as inspiration location focus or theme in an ever more intense game of cross fertilization The study analyzes the impact on dramatic form and theatrical presentation of what has been a paradigmatic shift in the way art galleries and museums display their collections and how these are perceived establishing a hitherto unexplored connection between modes of exhibiting and modes of representation It traces a trajectory from plays that were initially performed in traditional theatres in accordance with a naturalistic play structure to plays that favour of a radical reconfiguration of visual representation Indeed since the beginning of the new millennium playwrights and theatre makers have increasingly experimented with new dramatic forms and site specific venues while forging collaborations with art makers and curators The book focuses on plays from the 1980s onwards such as Howard Barker's Scenes from an Execution Nick Dear's The Art of Success Alan Bennett's A Question of Attribution Timberlake Wertenbaker's Three Birds Alighting on a Field and The Line David Edgar's Pentecost Martin Crimp's Attempt on Her Life Rebecca Lenkiewicz's Shoreditch Madonna and The Painter David Leddy's Long Live the Little Knife and Tim Crouch's My Arm An Oak Tree and England and considers the vital contribution to the field made by set designers Ultimately through this study we come to understand how modern drama can offer a set of interpretative tools to enhance our understanding of the mechanisms underlying the social construction of art and furthermore the potential of theatre and the gallery space to question our fundamental cultural assumptions and values Routledge Library

Love in Contemporary British Drama Korbinian Stöckl, 2021-01-18 Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love's compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned

Masculinities and the Contemporary Irish Theatre B. Singleton, 2010-11-24 Irish theatre and its histories appear to be dominated by men and their actions This book's

Character in Modern Irish Drama Michał Lachman, 2018-05-23 This book is about the history of character in modern Irish drama It traces the changing fortunes of the human self in a variety of major Irish plays across the twentieth century and the beginning of the new millennium Through the analysis of dramatic protagonists created by such authors as Yeats Synge O Casey Friel and Murphy and McGuinness and Walsh it tracks the development of aesthetic and literary styles from modernism to more recent phenomena from Celtic Revival to Celtic Tiger and after The human character is seen as a testing ground and battlefield for new ideas for social philosophies and for literary conventions through which each historical epoch has attempted to express its specific cultural and literary identity In this context Irish drama appears to be both part of the European literary tradition engaging with its most contentious issues and a field of resistance to some conventions from continental centres of avant garde experimentation Simultaneously it follows artistic fashions and redefines them in its critical contribution to European artistic and theatrical diversity The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary British Playwrights Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, Aleks Sierz, 2011-10-17 The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary British Playwrights is an authoritative guide to the work of twenty five playwrights who have risen to prominence since the 1980s Written by an international team of scholars it will be invaluable to anyone interested in studying or teaching contemporary drama Among the many playwrights whose work is examined are Sarah Daniels Terry Johnson Martin Crimp Sarah Kane Anthony Neilson Mark Ravenhill Simon Stephens Debbie Tucker Green Tanika Gupta and Richard Bean Each essay features A biographical sketch and introduction to the playwright A discussion of their most important plays An analysis of their stylistic and thematic traits the critical reception and their place in the discourses of British theatre A bibliography of texts and critical material
