Fables Sermonettes And Parables By The Stricker 13th Century German Poet In English Translation:

Fables, Sermonettes, and Parables by the Stricker, 13th Century German Poet, in English Translation

Stricker, 1999 The thirteenth century poet who used the pseudonym Der Stricker The Knitter is the earliest known composer of fables sermonettes and parables examples of Kleindichtung in the German language Some of the Stricker's fables and parables are as far as is known original with him others are new variants of works that had appeared in other lands and languages The sermonettes are typical examples of what might be called the folk theology of the day drawing on oral tradition rather than directly on the Scriptures In his verse tales the author proves to be a keen often harsh social critic providing a realistic often cynical picture of medieval society that stands in sharp contrast to the romanticism of nearly all German literature of his century This is the first collection of The Stricker's short narratives in English translation A

Companion to Middle High German Literature to the 14th century Francis Gentry, 2002-12-01 This volume is a guide to medieval German literature from its beginnings in the eighth century to the fourteenth century It will escort the motivated student and colleague with interest in the European Middle Ages but no expertise in older German languages The chapter authors all internationally known scholars were given the freedom to arrange their chapters as they felt most appropriate including the question of the terminus ad quem Chapters deal either with a chronological period e g 13th century or with specific genres eg drama In addition chapters both on the historical epoch and on the development of the German language in the medieval period have been included In general historical and cultural topics play an important role in each chapter

Old Age in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Albrecht Classen, 2012-02-14 After an extensive introduction that takes stock of the relevant research literature on Old Age in the Middle Ages and the early modern age the contributors discuss the phenomenon of old age in many different fields of late antique medieval and early modern literature history and art history Both Beowulf and the Hildebrandslied both Wolfram von Eschenbach's Parzival and Titirel both the figure of Merlin and the trans European tradition of Perceval Peredur Parzival then the figure of the vetula in a variety of medieval French English and Spanish texts and of the Old Man in The Stricker's Daniel both the treatment of old age in Langland's Piers the Plowman and in Jean Gerson's sermons are dealt with Other aspects involve late antique epistolary literature early modern French farce in light of Disability Studies the social role of old impotent men in sixteenth and seventeenth century Netherlandish paintings and the scientific discourse of old age and health since the 1500s The discourse of Old Age proves to have been of central importance throughout the ages so the critical examination of the issues involved sheds intriguing light on the cultural history from late antiquity to the seventeenth century A Comprehensive Interpretation of the Life and Work of Christa Wolf, 20th Century German Writer Hajo Drees, 2002 Christa Wolf has been celebrated as one of the most innovative German speaking postwar writers and is the recipient of many international awards and prizes Her fiction has also earned her censorship and international criticism Her prose brilliantly depicts East and West Germany's path to coming to terms with the influence of the Hitler regime This study examines her fiction speeches and essays illustrating how the trinity of identity socialization and artistic creativity evolves and manifests itself in her writing Mental Processes and Narrative Possibilities in the German Novelle, 1890-1940 David Turner, 2005 Although it concentrates on a particular historical period and although it examines a variety of individual works many of them acknowledged Novellen this study is neither an historical survey nor a collection of interpretations Its distinctive approach is taxonomical and comparative Taking as its starting point the surge of interest in the human mind as the nineteenth century drew to a close it examines the kinds of shorter narrative that were generated by that interest On the other hand therefore it investigates how by focusing on particular aspects of the mind writers were led to adopt certain narrative patterns or structures and on the other hand building on the work of Dorrit Cohn but extending her range considerably it explores and evaluates the different modes of presentation which writers exploited as they sought to give life to the inner workings of their characters According to some psychology and the Novelle are incompatible Although the investigation concludes that there is no inherent incompatibility between psychological interest and the aims of the Novelle it also demonstrates that psychological interest in shorter narratives does not always lead to Novellen it explores other narrative structures that may arise when particular models of the mind form their basis

Women Writers of the Journal Jugend from 1919-1940 Kathleen M. Condray, 2003 This work is an investigation into the literature of Jugend It includes a discussion of Jugend's particular relationship to women and corrects some technical errors regarding editorship and focus during the Third Reich

Approaches to Comedy in German Drama Gillian Pye, 2002 The aim of this book is to adopt a holistic method in order to explore the question of comedy as narrative and dramatic structure in a selection of contemporary German language dramas This book also seeks to suggest some of the ways in which comedy does in fact have a significant role to play in their German theatre of the late 20th twentieth century

The Journal of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 1999

Childhood and Children in Thomas Mann's Fiction G. Peter McMullin, 2002 An examination of all the child characters in Thomas Mann's fiction from Der kleine Herr Friedemann to Bekenntnisse des Hochstaplers Felix Krull By the use of textual analysis it demonstrates that Mann had an exceptional if not unique gift for the portrayal of children and that his depiction evinces deep sympathy with children in general and especially children of a certain type Most but not all of the children are delicate sensitive and gifted creatures and they are also sexless or at least androgynous The work also briefly examines previous scholarly writings on the subject and compares Mann's treatment of children with that of previous German writers
