Dear Josh

"Sometimes I feel so alone—like no one cares. It seems my folks live in their separate world and I live in mine. I know it sounds crazy, but I want them to leave me alone and yet, I want to be a part of their lives. Most of the time they leave me alone and it gets pretty lonely."
—A Lonely Teenager

In the next 30 minutes 285 children will become victims of broken homes, 685 teenagers will take some form of narcotic, 57 kids will run away from home and 229 will attempt suicide. Loneliness plagues the lives of young people, even Christian youth, and they are trying desperately to fill that void. In this series Josh McDowell, along with counselor Dr. Norm Wakefield, strike at the heart of the loneliness problem and share biblical solutions that will enable your youth to begin breaking the loneliness cycle.

Each video session opens with a dramatic vignette that sets up the lesson. Then Josh and Norm provide insight, suggested solutions and guidance. Each video session concludes with a dramatic vignette or a music video. The sessions include:

SESSION 1: "Outside Looking In"

Your youth will discover that loneliness is often rooted in their view of themselves. They will learn what makes them feel like losers and get 5 practical steps to developing a winner's mentality.

SESSION 2: "Nightmare on Your Street"

Home is designed to be a place where teenagers can feel safe, secure and know they belong. But, if there is turmoil and trouble at home, they can feel very lonely. Here they will learn how to work through 4 common home problems that will help them overcome the feelings of loneliness.

SESSION 3: "The Bore War"

Students will learn 4 practical steps of overcoming boredom that will give them new direction, meaning and excitement to living.

SESSION 4: "Breaking Free From Loneliness"

Your young people will discover 7 forces that often trap them into a loneliness cycle and 5 principles that will allow them to begin breaking free from this negative cycle of living.

Campbell Morgan must be regarded as a great person His greatness is seen not only in the wide impact of his ministry on both sides of the Atlantic but in the fact that his books are still read and studied sixty-five years after his death Named one of the ten greatest preachers of the twentieth century by the contributing board of Preaching magazine Morgan made the Bible a new and living book not only to the congregations who listened to him but the vast multitude of persons who read his books For sixty-seven years Morgan preached and taught the Scriptures and served churches in England and the United States What is remarkable is that his commentaries and expositions of the Bible still speak to persons of a new millennium There have been many changes in the world since he faithfully preached and taught the Scriptures but the wide appeal of his books testify to the timelessness of his message Although he held pastorates in the Congregational and Presbyterian denominations he had an ecumenical appeal to
