Friends for Life Michael E. Williams, 1989 Preaching Through Time Casey C. Barton, 2017-07-28 As preachers who come to the pulpit before God and before God s people each and every week how do we make sense of the text as we live a new moment of its ongoing story Most options available to the preacher necessitate a hermeneutical step that requires us to preach outside of time in timeless truths experiences or realities But the gospel is the drama of God appearing to and working with and loving God s people in time Preaching Through Time gives the preacher a timely homiletic for preaching together the times of God s gospel then and now while calling God s people to perform their own roles in today s moment of that gospel drama Anachronism preaching together the moments of God s drama is the language event that will get us from text to timely sermon week by week Journeys toward Narrative Preaching Wayne Bradley Robinson, 2007-02-21 This volume is the outcome of the work of six members of the Narrative and Imagination working group of the Academy of Homiletics We hope that this volume will encourage those who have not tried narrative preaching to do so especially since we present a variety of models of how to do narrative preaching and show how each of us moved toward the particular model we present We also hope that this volume will contribute to the development of the discipline of narrative preaching When done well narrative preaching has the power to effect the kind of transformation in people s lives which we all hope for when we as vehicles attempt to communicate the good news This is so in part because narrative preaching both reflects and
