Spurgeon Master of Mariner Metaphors Michael Glenn Maness,2008-08-28 What a journey The 366 mariner metaphors were pulled from the first 60 volumes of the 63 volume New Park Street Pulpit The Metropolitan Tabernacle Pulpit a set of 3 561 sermons delivered between 1855 1872 We edited freely More it seems than any other metaphor Charles H Spurgeon used the mariner to illustrate the voyage of the Christian in service to God As the trade winds bellow our sails and push us towards our Fair Haven many spiritual challenges wash our decks One masterpiece after another See www.PreciousHeart.net Spurgeon 10 pdf for the 1st ten days

Queen of Prison Ministry Michael Glenn Maness,2008-06 This WW II novel revolves around the experience of a callow youth destined to join the Fourth Infantry Division in Hurtgen Forest The narrative traces the bonded ties of six comrades in arms three of whom are killed and three wounded Vividly detailed the stressful existence of Combat Infantrymen causes some men to break What helps those who see it through is their loyalty to one another called a culture of caring by their Chaplain In Part I our innocent recruits are sobered by incidental casualties on the way up which initiate them into the inconsequence of death Part II takes them into Hurtgen a battle fought under continuous icy rain in steep hilled terrain favoring the well entrenched Germans Casualties often run over 100% of a Company's authorized strength Attacks are met by unrelenting artillery and mortar fire machine guns at close range In a typical situation our narrator covers a Sergeant who after taking out a machine gun pinning the Company down is himself killed by a sniper A hard headed West Pointer insists on night action impossible in the Forest and after stepping on a mine that takes his legs off he rolls on another that hits those nearby General Patton called Hurtgen an epic of stark infantry combat Part III deals with how badly depleted in numbers and morale the men successfully withstand the Breakthrough thereby saving Luxembourg a defense for which Patton gave the Fourth a Unit Citation In the concluding Part the narrator is wounded and put on limited assignment He dislikes the rear echelon life style guys being obsessed with whores drinking stealing and feasting but he holds his peace and decides he'll return to the world where reality matters

Would You Lie to Save a Life Michael Glenn Maness,2007-09-12 Would You Lie to Save a Life Love Will Find a Way Home A Theology on the Ethics of Love In 1968 Commander Lloyd Bucher and the USS Pueblo were pirated on the high seas They were held captive for 11 months and Bucher was forced to sign a confession forced to lie to save the lives of his men How does Love impact that decision in a Christian theology Love makes the world go round Without Love little else has value this side of heaven In this dilemma between Love and Truth Love was chosen over Truth but not at the expense of all Truth Between the deontological and teleological elements time itself comes into play in the determination of the absolute rightness of the choice in perfect Love How is as capable as Jesus was and is today The course of Love is a sacred stewardship of time that is the highest exhibition of the Christian's own Imago Dei or image of God granted to us in creation When we are able to follow the Scarlet Thread of obedience perfectly it will lead straight through all of 1 the areas of complexity uniting 2 all of the demands of all of the absolutes and run dead center between 3 all of the ethical fine lines These three areas are detailed specifically

HEAVEN Michael G. Maness,2004-12-01 In heaven we shall know everlasting rest and the full measure of our inheritance Though no eye has seen what God has prepared for us from Revelation 21 22 we can understand a little of what heaven will feel like We shall know a new freedom economy purity peace and so much more Those will be the simple experiences The greater experiences will be in everlasting love most especially in an everlasting marriage and an enduring intimate community Likewise we shall know a growing and everlasting security within our grand heritage within God s promises and in the work of Christ Yet the greatest experience of all is also the hardest to understand because it is the farthest removed from our earthly experience The greatest experience of all will be that for the rest of our everlasting loving lives we will share in the very life and glory of our dynamic and loving God our loving Father and Abba The greatest experience in heaven will be the very life and light that we share with God Himself so very personal and loving to the uttermost

Heart of the Living God Michael G. Maness,2004-06-23 Maness asks us to tie up our sneakers for we are going to have some fun as we hike into the Grand Canyon of Love Love is the treasure of life It is Love all the way Nothing else really matters outside of Love Best of all our Love will only get better in heaven The treasured ability to have loving relationships is Gods gift to us in our Imago Deithe image of God we all share Likewise what we know of Love this side of heaven is but a dusty image of what God experiences I want to get personally involved says Maness Can we have a free will relationship with anyone even God if all of what we do and think is settled I dont think so Love is greater than that and I shall prove that and that is indeed a Grand Canyon Manes brings some of the brain splitting complexities of this to light with good humor introduces dynamic foreknowledge and challenges Classical Theisms avoidance of Love And he exposes some foul play in the process Thats the first half of the book For those wanting to strike out on their own wanting to see more of the depth and diversity of the Grand Canyon the second half contains reviews of about 60 major authors a 4 000 Abysmal Bibliography and a huge index to just about everything in the book Maness has thrown a gauntlet before the Classical Theists So tie up your sneakers and take a hike with Michael G Maness as he walks with you into the Grand Canyon see more at www.PreciousHeart.net

Nazis, Communists, Klansmen, and Others on the Fringe John George,Laird M. Wilcox,1992 The freedoms guaranteed by our Bill of Rights have allowed a simmering subculture of political fringe groups to develop and even to flourish in America as they have in no other nation These radical associations sometimes dangerous sometimes merely quirky illuminate a dark part of the American psyche In this encyclopedic work John George and Laird Wilcox present a thorough and fair assessment of extremist groups on the periphery of the American political system The authors begin by surveying the history of the extremist trend in America prior to 1960 They then delineate the general characteristics of extremism on both ends of the political spectrum relate extremism to constitutional principles and analyze the factors that motivate fringe group members The bulk of the book is devoted to an in depth discussion of more than forty separate groups from the extreme right and left The authors examine each group s history beliefs and current activities The book concludes with a fascinating appendix on the use of fake quotes and fabricated documents a common ploy of many extremist organizations

Religion and the Law in America Scott A. Merriman,2007-05-18 This work is a comprehensive survey of one of the oldest and hottest debates in American history the role of religion in the public discourse The relationship between church and state was contentious long before the framers of the Constitution undertook the bold experiment of separating the two sparking a debate that would rage for centuries What is the role of religion in government and vice versa Religion and the Law in America explores the many facets of this question from prayer in public schools to the addition of the phrase under God to the Pledge of Allegiance from government investigation of religious fringe groups to federal grants for faith based providers of social services In more than 250 A Z entries along with a series of broad thematic essays it examines the groups laws and court cases that have framed this ongoing debate Through its careful balanced exploration of the interaction between government and religion throughout the history of the United States the work provides all Americans students scholars and lay readers alike with a deep understanding of one of the central enduring issues in our history

More Than a Cup of Coffee and Tea David D. Grafton,2021-06-21 Islamophobia continues to rise among Americans even within progressive mainline churches creating a poisonous and dangerous atmosphere for interfaith relations American Lutherans however have been engaged in dialogue with Islam for over a generation Originally like other Protestant churches Lutherans studied Islam as a monolithic religious system for the purpose of proselytizing the Christian faith Over the years and with experience American Lutherans came to know Islam as a faith tradition of believers in different cultures and contexts By developing relationships with Muslim neighbors some ELCA Lutherans and their international partners have learned that it is possible to witness to the Christian faith and listen to Muslim neighbors for the purpose of understanding and to work for a common cause of justice More Than a Cup of Coffee and Tea documents the Focus on Islam that began in the 1980s among ELCA Lutherans and then reflects on more than a generation of engagement with Muslims in various domestic and international contexts This volume documents where the ELCA has been what it has learned and encourages others to continue to develop positive relationships with Muslim neighbors and communities as a Christian activity and to combat Islamophobia

M. Stanton Evans Steven F. Hayward,2022-03-22 M Stanton Evans d 2015 was one of the unsung heroes and key figures of the modern conservative movement offering a model to be remembered and emulated in both thought and deed A person of extraordinary breadth he combined the roles of journalist first rank thinker and political action often at the center of crucial events for the conservative movement from the mid 1950s to his last decade in the 2010s He was the principal author of the Sharon Statement the founding document of Young Americans for Freedom

Evans was also a mentor to an entire generation of conservative writers and journalists including Ann Coulter John Fund Martin Morse Wooster Tim Carney Richard Minter William McGurn and this author Evans was libertarian in economics and policy traditionalist in moral and social matters respectful of religion and resolutely anti Communist Over the years he wrote a number of elegant articles and one book The Theme is Freedom that reconciled many of the strains that often appear between these differing schools of conservative thought He also wrote a controversial defense of Joseph McCarthy Blacklisted by History which is one of many examples of his fearlessness in contesting the conventional wisdom Beyond his professional profile Stan was also known for his ironic dry wit which only came out in person as well as his personal modesty and kindness and fondness for fast food sports and classic rock and roll music trivia He was the conservative for the common man
