Frisch Three Plays:

Max Frisch Max Frisch, 2002 Frisch Three Plays Max Frisch, 2014-04-10 Three contentious and enduring plays about the clash of the individual and society Fire Raisers 1958 tells the tale of a respectable bourgeois whose house is one day visited by three strangers It is successful on every level the story is as gripping as an adventure story each line is fraught with several meanings as an allegory it is unique Edna O'Brien Andorra is based on the author's own experience of anti-semitism in Switzerland and is about Andri a young man who is believed to be a Jew and who is persecuted by his community as a result Triptych is a portrait of a writer grappling with his own mortality The flexible and contemporary translations by Michael Bullock The Fire Raisers Andorra and Geoffrey Skelton Triptych are here complemented by an introduction by Peter Loeffler Modern Drama in Theory and Practice: Volume 3, Expressionism and Epic Theatre J. L.

Styan, 1983-06-09 Modern drama in theory and J L Styan v 3 The Play Within the Play Gerhard Fischer, Bernhard Greiner, 2007 The thirty chapters of this innovative international study are all devoted to the topic of the play within the play The authors explore the wide range of aesthetic literary theoretical and philosophical issues associated with this rhetorical device not only in terms of its original meta-theatrical setting from the baroque idea of a theatrum mundi onward to contemporary examples of postmodern self-referential dramaturgy but also with regard to a variety of different generic applications e.g. in narrative fiction musical theatre and film The authors internationally recognized specialists in their respective fields draw on recent debates in such areas as postcolonial studies game and systems theories media and performance studies to analyze the specific qualities and characteristics of the play within the play as ultimate affirmation of the self the Hamlet paradigm as a self-reflective agency of meta-theatrical discourse and as a vehicle of intermedial and intercultural transformation The challenging study with its underlying premise of play as a key feature of cultural anthropology and human creativity breaks new ground by placing the play within the play at the centre of a number of intersecting scholarly discourses on areas of topical concern to scholars in the humanities Aspects of "Rôle-Playing" in Three Plays by Max Frisch M. J. Herd, 1971 The Fortunes of Everyman in Twentieth-century German Drama

Brian Murdoch, 2022 Death still comes to Everyman but this study of three twentieth-century German plays shows the harder challenge of living without salvation in an age of war and unprecedented mass destruction Death comes to everyone and in the late medieval morality play of Everyman the familiar skeleton forces the universalized central figure to come to terms with this Only his inner resources in the forms of Good Deeds and Knowledge ensure that he repents and is redeemed Three important twentieth-century German plays echo Everyman Toller's Hinkemann Borchert's The Man Outside and Frisch's The Arsonists Firebugs but the unprecedented scale of killing in the First and Second World Wars changed the view of death while in the Cold War the nuclear destruction literally of everyone became a possibility Brian Murdoch traces the heritage of Everyman in the three plays in terms of dramatic effect changes in the image of Death and especially the problem of living with existential guilt Death now over fed still has to be faced but Everyman has the harder problem of living with the awareness of human wickedness without the possibility of salvation All three plays have tended to be viewed in their specific historical contexts but by viewing them less rigidly and as part of a long dramatic tradition Murdoch shows that all present a message of lasting and universal significance They pose directly to the theater audience questions not just of how to cope with death but how to cope with life

Modern German Drama C. D. Innes, 1979-12-12 In this impressively wide ranging study of all drama written in German in the period 1945 1977 Christopher Innes aims to identify the concerns and perceptions of dramatists working in a specific and unique social context and period and to analyse the major theatrical forms they developed or adapted to express their experience to trace the writers literary antecedents their tradition and to explore the critical issues raised by each stylistic innovation Professor Innes has organized his discussion around the main forms of theatre epic documentary absurdist and more traditional forms Redefining these conceptual labels as he progresses he analyses in a critical and informed way the work on the page and the stage of all the major playwrights This study which is complemented by photographs of key productions and accompanied by translations for all quotations will be of particular interest to teachers and students of drama and German as well as to a wider theatre going public

Staging the Holocaust Claude Schumacher, 1998-09-24 To portray the Holocaust one has to create a work of art says Claude Lanzmann the director of Shoah However can the Holocaust be turned into theatre Is it possible to portray on stage events that by their monstrosity defy human comprehension These are the questions addressed by the playwrights and the scholars featured in this book Their essays present and analyse plays performed in Israel America France Italy Poland and of course Germany The style of presentation ranges from docudramas to avant garde performances from realistic impersonation of historical figures to provocative and nightmarish spectacles The book is illustrated with original production photographs and some rare drawings and documents it also contains an important descriptive bibliography of more than two hundred Holocaust plays
