Rogers, 1991-07-03 Focusing on British and American novels Rogers takes a sociological look at the business of literature the book industry and the experiences of novelists and readers Viewing the novel as a vehicle of cultural meaning the author shows how the literary canon overlooks substantial similarities among novels in favor of restrictive codes based on social as well as literary considerations She emphasizes the kinship between the social sciences and humanities in her analysis by reinvigorating affection for the novel and also establishing its rich cultural significance Building and Dwelling Richard Sennett, 2018-04-10 A preeminent thinker redefines the meaning of city life and charts a way forward Building and Dwelling is the definitive statement on cities by the renowned public intellectual Richard Sennett In this sweeping work he traces the anguished relation between how cities are built and how people live in them from ancient Athens to twenty first century Shanghai He shows how Paris Barcelona and New York City assumed their modern forms rethinks the reputations of Jane Jacobs Lewis Mumford and others and takes us on a tour of emblematic contemporary locations from the backstreets of Medell n Colombia to the Google headquarters in Manhattan Through it all he laments that the closed city segregated regimented and controlled has spread from the global North to the exploding urban agglomerations of the global South As an alternative he argues for the open city where citizens actively hash out their differences and planners experiment with urban forms that make it easier for residents to cope Rich with arguments that speak directly to our moment a time when more humans live in urban spaces than ever before Building and Dwelling draws on Sennett's deep learning and intimate engagement with city life to form a bold and original vision for the future of cities Michigan Crop Report ,1887 Annual summary issues including cumulative statistics published as the January number of the succeeding year Book Review Index ,1984 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Psychology and Historical Interpretation William McKinley Runyan,1988 What kind of psychology should be used in historical interpretation How should it be used and on what range of historical problems These are some of the basic questions addressed by the distinguished contributors Frog Samurai Max Marshall,2024-04-04 Join Kayson the frog on an enchanting adventure in this children's fairy tale Living near a Japanese monastery Kayson meets a noble samurai named Eden Tiger who invites her to study the ways of the samurai As Kayson embarks on her rigorous training she and Eden Tiger form a strong bond and together they bravely protect their city from a menacing gang of wolves Through courage friendship and perseverance Kayson the samurai frog shows that even the smallest creatures New Directions 48 James Laughlin,Peter Glassgold,Elizabeth Harper,1984-11 Since 1936 the New Directions in Prose and Poetry anthologies have served as vehicles for the presentation of new and variant trends in world literature The Literary Review ,1982

The Necklace of Princess Fiorimonde and Other Stories Mary de Morgan,2020-09-28 Once there lived a King whose wife was dead but who had a most beautiful daughter so beautiful that every one thought she must be good as well instead of which the Princess was really very wicked and practised witchcraft and black magic which she had learned from an old witch who lived in a hut on the side of a lonely mountain This old witch was wicked and hideous and no one but the King's daughter knew that she lived there but at night when every one else was asleep the Princess whose name was Fiorimonde used to visit her by stealth to learn sorcery It was only the witch's arts which had made Fiorimonde so beautiful that there was no one like her in the world and in return the Princess helped her with all her tricks and never told any one she was there The time came when the King began to think he should like his daughter to marry so he summoned his council and said We have no son to reign after our death so we had best seek for a suitable prince to marry to our royal daughter and then when we are too old he shall be king in our stead And all the council said he was very wise and it would be well for the Princess to marry So heralds were sent to all the neighbouring kings and princes to say that the King would choose a husband for the Princess who should be king after him But when Fiorimonde heard this she wept with rage for she knew quite well that if she had a husband he would find out how she went to visit the old witch and would stop her practising magic and then she would lose her beauty When night came and every one in the palace was fast asleep the Princess went to her bedroom window and softly opened it Then she took from her pocket a handful of peas and held them out of the window and chirruped low and there flew down from the roof a small brown bird and sat upon her wrist and began to eat the peas No sooner had it swallowed them than it began to grow and grow and grow till it was so big that the Princess could not hold it but let it stand on the window sill and still it grew and grew and grew till it was as large as an ostrich Then the Princess climbed out of the window and seated herself on the bird s back and at once it flew straight away over the tops of the trees till it came to the mountain where the old witch dwelt and stopped in front of the door of her hut Victorian Fairy Tales Michael Newton,2015-03-12
