From Abortion To Reproductive Freedom Transforming A Movement:

From Abortion to Reproductive Freedom Marlene Gerber Fried, 1990 This anthology argues for an expansion of the single issue abortion rights movement into a multi cultural feminist movement in the United States Reproductive Freedom Maja Kirilova Eriksson, 2021-09-27 This is the first book to provide a comprehensive investigation of reproductive freedom in the light of contemporary international law The author discusses reproductive freedom in the context of feminist legal theory international human rights and humanitarian law This holistic approach makes the book unique and enhances its value as a comprehensive resource on the most challenging and contentious issues of our time i e legal abortion medically assisted reproduction surrogate motherhood forced pregnancy during armed conflicts and many others The author's aim is to advance current debates about gender equality and reproductive rights and to deepen the analysis of the legal concepts involved In surveying the international commitment to women's rights and examining critically the way in which international global and regional human rights bodies and ad hoc international tribunals deal with issues pertaining to reproductive freedom and sexual violence this volume makes clear to what extent contemporary international law norms may be used as a tool for change and how they need to be adapted to meet the special needs of girls and women worldwide Finally the book explores what improvements are necessary to prevent and protect adolescents women and men against violation of their reproductive freedom

Beyond Pro-Life and Pro-Choice Kathy Rudy, 1997-07-31 Entering the moral worlds of Catholicism the evangelical Protestantism of the Operation Rescue movement feminism and the classical liberalism expressed in modern medicine Beyond Pro Life and Pro Choice brilliantly illuminates the little understood religious and philosophical aspects of the abortion issue Rudy reveals how each community's beliefs about abortion are connected to its deeply held values and concerns and offers an alternative that would obviate the unproductive divisive and sometimes violent abortion debate we have today

Revolutionizing Women's Healthcare Hannah Dudley-Shotwell, 2020-03-13 Winner of the 2021 Frances Richardson Keller Sierra Prize from the Western Association of Women Historians WAWH Revolutionizing Women's Healthcare is the story of a feminist experiment the self help movement This movement arose out of women's frustration anger and fear for their health Tired of visiting doctors who saw them as silly little girls suffering shame when they asked for birth control seeking abortions in back alleys and holding little control over their own reproductive lives women took action Feminists created self help groups where they examined each other's bodies and read medical literature They founded and ran clinics wrote books made movies undertook nationwide tours and raided and picketed offending medical institutions Some performed their own abortions Others swore off pharmaceuticals during menopause Lesbian women found at home ways to get pregnant Black women used self help to talk about how systemic racism affected their health Hannah Dudley Shotwell engagingly chronicles these stories and more to showcase the creative ways women came together to do for themselves what the mainstream healthcare system refused to do

Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice Sara Hayden, Lynn O'Brien Hallstein, 2010-06-14 Women who came of age in the late twentieth century were raised in the era of choice they grew up believing that reproductive decision making is a political right a responsibility of women living the successes of second wave feminism and under their control Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice Explorations into Discourses of Reproduction explores contemporary maternity both within and in light of these late twentieth century understandings Employing a variety of feminist communication approaches the volume's contributors discuss how discourses of choice shape and are shaped by women's identities and experiences as non mothers and how those same discourses affect and reflect private practices and public policies related to reproduction and motherhood Through this process the contributors illustrate a variety of ways of conducting feminist thinking research and practices within the communication discipline Major sub disciplines within communication studies are represented here including feminist organizational interpersonal rhetorical critical cultural and social movement studies Whereas many of the previous scholarly investigations into maternity highlight only one aspect or phase of motherhood Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice is unique because it investigates discourses of choice across the arc of maternity and as enacted through various non maternal subject positions

Evaluating Women's Health Messages Roxanne Louiselle Parrott, Celeste Michelle Condit, 1996-02 The increased attention currently being paid to women's reproductive health issues has produced a corresponding interest in the role that communication plays in promoting better health care Groundbreaking and comprehensive this book is the first systematic examination of the major types and forms of messages about women's reproductive health medical social scientific and public and the degree to which these messages compare with and contradict each other Within the broad framework of communication a range of women's health issues are examined in this book from political historical technological and feminist perspectives The issues examined include abortion infertility drug and alcohol use in pregnancy childbirth AIDS menst

Applications of Feminist Legal Theory to Women's Lives D. Kelly Weisberg, Ronnie J Steinberg, 2009 This book the second of two volumes examines the pressing issues that affect women pornography prostitution battery rape pay equity sexual harassment motherhood abortion adoption new reproductive technologies and considers them through the lens of feminist legal theory It features more than sixty articles by well known legal scholars and feminists The contributions are arranged thematically and include an introduction and comprehensive literature review by the editor Applications of Feminist Legal Theory to Women's Lives will be a valuable text for students a resource for scholars and policy makers and a useful introduction for general readers

Feminism in the Heartland Judith Ezekiel, 2002 Set in Dayton Ohio Feminism in the Heartland traces the history of a dynamic utopian movement that transformed the lives of thousands of women who fought to make their city and country responsive to women's needs

Living With Contradictions Alison M Jaggar, 2018-03-08 This book explores some of the moral and public policy issues that divide Western especially North American feminists as the twentieth century ends and the twenty first century begins It represents an in house discussion among feminists and their social ethics Sexual Injustice Marc Stein,2010-10-04 Focusing on six major Supreme Court cases during the 1960s and 1970s Marc Stein examines the generally liberal rulings on birth control abortion interracial marriage and obscenity in Griswold Eisenstadt Roe Loving and Fanny Hill alongside a profoundly conservative ruling on homosexuality in Boutilier In the same era in which the Court recognized special marital reproductive and heterosexual rights and privileges it also upheld an immigration statute that classified homosexuals as psychopathic personalities Stein shows how a diverse set of influential journalists judges and scholars translated the Court s language about marital and reproductive rights into bold statements about sexual freedom and equality Killing the Black Body Dorothy Roberts,1998-12-29 Killing the Black Body remains a rallying cry for education awareness and action on extending reproductive justice to all women It is as crucial as ever even two decades after its original publication A must read for all those who claim to care about racial and gender justice in America Michelle Alexander author of The New Jim Crow In 1997 this groundbreaking book made a powerful entrance into the national conversation on race In a media landscape dominated by racially biased images of welfare queens and crack babies Killing the Black Body exposed America s systemic abuse of Black women s bodies From slave masters economic stake in bonded women s fertility to government programs that coerced thousands of poor Black women into being sterilized as late as the 1970s these abuses pointed to the degradation of Black motherhood and the exclusion of Black women s reproductive needs in mainstream feminist and civil rights agendas Compelling Deftly shows how distorted and racist constructions of black motherhood have affected politics law and policy in the United States Ms The Rhetoric of Operation Rescue Mark Allan Steiner,2006-05-12 A close look at the rhetoric of Operation Rescue The Politics of Responsibility Chad Lavin,2023-12-11 Politics cannot function without responsibility but there have been serious disagreements about how responsibility is to be understood and huge controversies about how it is to be distributed rewarded legislated and enforced The liberal notions of personal responsibility that have dominated political thinking in the West for more than a century are rooted in the familiar territory of individual will and causal blame but these theories have been assailed as no longer adequate to explain or address the political demands of a global social structure Informed by Marx Foucault and Butler Chad Lavin argues for a postliberal theory of responsibility formulating responsibility as a process that is anchored in a persistent ability to respond not reproach Lavin works this formulation through discussions of contemporary political issues such as globalization police brutality and abortion Rather than assigning individual blame postliberal responsibility challenges the supposed autonomy of individual subjects by taking structural arguments into account Lavin concludes that a liberal concept of responsibility gives rise to a moralistic and oppressive approach to social problems while a postliberal approach highlights a shared responsibility for developing collective solutions to systemic problems Postliberal responsibility not only suggests more generous and democratic responses to social ills it also allows us to theorize a greater range of issues that demand political response

Into Our Own Hands Sandra Morgen, 2002 Recent history has witnessed a revolution in women's health care. Beginning in the late 1960s, women in communities across the United States challenged medical and male control over women's health. Few people today realize the extent to which these grassroots efforts shifted power and responsibility from the medical establishment into women's hands as health care consumers, providers, and advocates. Into Our Own Hands traces the women's health care movement in the United States. Richly documented, this study is based on more than a decade of research, including interviews with leading activists, documentary material from feminist health clinics and advocacy organizations, a survey of women's health movement organizations in the early 1990s, and ethnographic fieldwork. Sandra Morgen focuses on the clinics born from this movement as well as how the movement's encounters with organized medicine, the state, and ascendant neoconservative and neoliberal political forces of the 1970s to the 1980s shaped the confrontations and accomplishments in women's health care. The book also explores the impact of political struggles over race and class within the movement organizations.

Globalization and Social Movements P. Hamel, H. Lustiger-Thaler, J. Pieterse, S. Roseneil, 2001-10-16 An inspiring collection that uses case studies and theoretical reflection to contextualise the linkages between collective action theories, social movement practices, and the phenomenon of globalisation. All of the perspectives presented will force a rethink of the exact meaning of globalisation and the way in which such insights can be used to advance understanding of basic transformations occurring in the diverse world of the twenty-first century.

Killing for Life Carol Mason, 2002 Introduction: the productive power of apocalyptic narrative. New abortion warrior from right to life rhetoric to paramilitary pro-life culture. From protest to retribution: the guerrilla politics of pro-life violence. Protection from and for the fetal citizen: the crack baby and the partially born as a millennial pair. The Gideon story: millennialist conflict as mainstream pro-life narrative. Making time for America's Armageddon. Bozell's legacy: Narrating enemies: the Jewish doctor, the lesbian nurse, and the indeterminacy of life. Conclusion: no new embryos.
