From Chaos To Mission Refounding Religious Life Formation:

From Chaos To Mission Gerald A. Arbuckle, 1996-01-10 Formation is a rite of passage or initiation ritual This book draws on the findings of social anthropological studies of initiation rituals and contemporary biblical studies of rites of passage Since initiation rituals are of critical importance in the life journeys of individuals and groups the book's central theme is relevant to educationalists and ritual leaders in the Church and secular society Most religious congregations founded since the thirteenth century were formed for prophetic ministry to a world in change yet for centuries before Vatican II their candidates were rarely trained explicitly for this task Through years of quasi indoctrination and voluntary incarceration they were taught in a monastic atmosphere of unchanging order that the world was evil and to be avoided Conformity to a theological ecclesiastical and pastoral status quo was the most esteemed value in a candidate This emphasis was contrary to the very nature of active religious life Religious must be prophetic challengers of the status quo within the Church and society Training for membership in active religious congregations therefore must now be radically reformed but there are no road maps available to direct educationalists in developing programmes that would stimulate candidates to be radically creative in ministry From Chaos to Mission creates a framework for radical thinking and practical action about the critical issue of formation of religious for mission today

From Chaos to Mission Gerald A. Arbuckle, 1996 Building on his original work Out of Chaos the author of this text creates a framework for radical thinking and practical action about the critical issue of the formation of religious mission today

Violence, Society, and the Church Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2004 The reality of violence and the fear it generates is constantly in the news Terrorist attacks across the world and other abuses of power such as the sexual abuses in the Catholic Church the continuance of patriarchalism racism and the negative effects of globalization highlight the relevance of this book Here the author uniquely explains these forms of violence in the wider context of their cultural roots

Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live

Laughing with God Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2015-03-15 When Sarah overhears God tell Abraham that she will give birth to a son she laughs She laughs to herself at the impossibility of her in her old age bearing a child Gen 18 12 But God's ways are not Sarah's ways God is far more wonderful than Sarah imagines Of course Sarah does give birth to a son and names him Isaac whose name means to laugh God has brought laughter for me everyone who hears will laugh with me Gen 21 6 Surely the ancient audience aware of the many incongruities in this story did laugh But can we in modern times recover the divine humor the paradox and promise in this and other biblical accounts Can we use that sacred laughter as a means to evangelize a world that longs for God every bit as much as the ancients did In Laughing with God Humor Culture and Transformation Catholic priest and cultural anthropologist Gerald Arbuckle helps us do just that With Arbuckle readers will enter many rich biblical stories and come away laughing not laughter as in response to a joke or comedy but a profound laughter of the heart Readers will laugh at Sarah as she laughs at God and they will laugh together with Sarah and God Readers will discover divine humor in the parables of Jesus and even in his suffering and death the ultimate paradox for Christians In addition to uncovering and recovering humor in Scripture Arbuckle's work is a treasure trove of modern examples of humor from literature movies and television that surprisingly can be a means of transforming cultures to better reflect the kingdom of God In the end readers will want to turn the phrase He who laughs last laughs best into They who laugh with God evangelize best Gerald A Arbuckle SM PhD is co director of Refounding and Pastoral Development a research ministry in Sydney Australia He is internationally known for his expertise in helping church leaders minister effectively in a postmodern world Arbuckle's most recent books include Confronting the Demon A Gospel Response to Adult Bullying Violence Society and the Church A Cultural Approach and Healthcare Ministry Refounding the Mission in Tumultuous Times 2001 Catholic Press Association Award all published by Liturgical Press

The End of Theology Jason S. Sexton , Paul Weston , 2016-10-01 Missiologists and theologians do not often talk to each other which has resulted in increased ignorance of each other's questions and concerns about how to do theology in ways that effectively serve the Church's mission Under the auspices of the Tyndale Fellowship Christian Doctrine study group a colloquium of distinguished scholars and practitioners recently gathered at the University of Cambridge This volume arising out of that symposium begins conversations that have been waiting to happen Each participant brings a particular perspective to questions about the nature of theology and how it is most meaningfully constructed so as to offer a truly interdisciplinary perspective on theology and mission It highlights perspectives of contextual theology and systematic theology as well as missiology and mission studies world Christianity and historical inquiry biblical studies and missional hermeneutics ethnography pastoral practice and social justice It also pays keen attention to matters on the ground with a profound desire to relate questions of evangelical identity including ministry practice and mission to the wider tradition In short this volume sets out to model the kind of engagement required by both Church and Academy to do theology for mission Culture, Inculturation, and Theologians Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2010-09-01 The split between the Gospel and culture is without doubt the drama of our time wrote Paul VI in 1975 Since that time there has been an increasingly urgent awareness that inculturation is an indispensable task of the church But inculturation the dialogue between church and cultures demands first of all that we who would enter into the dialogue understand what culture itself means and what dialogue entails To that end cultural anthropologist Father Gerald Arbuckle gives us this important volume He traces the history of the development of the concept of culture and the too often negative rarely positive effects of encounters between church and culture He explores how Jesus Christ approached the cultures of his time and outlines the current treatment of culture and inculturation in church documents and in Catholic theology He shows that modest progress in understanding has recently stalled and there are even forces working to turn that progress into regress He concludes with a description of inculturation as it needs to happen and a sharp critique of those who resist With a sense of prophetic hope Arbuckle seeks to help us bridge the lamentable split between Gospel and culture the drama that continues to unfold in our time Confronting the Demon Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2003 Bullying is not something confined to school children It is a widespread abuse found in families workplaces organizations including churches and beyond Confronting the Demon focuses on the nature and types of contemporary bullying and what the Christian Scriptures advise to prevent it Bullying is a quality of most forms of violence including racial religious and sex based discrimination sexual physical and psychological abuse persecution and terrorism This book focuses on such contemporary examples as the 2001 terrorist attacks hate crimes around the world sexual abuse particularly among the churches and cultures which promote bullying Questions at the end of each chapter help people examine their own vulnerability to the vice of bullying and relate the context of its nature meaning and power to their own lives Chapters are Adult Bullying Definition and Types Bullies and Victims Cultures of Bullying and A Gospel Response Gerald A Arbuckle SM PhD is the co director of Refounding and Pastoral Research Unit Sydney Australia He is the author of From Chaos to Mission Refounding Religious Life Formation Healthcare Ministry Refounding the Mission in Tumultuous Times and Violence Society and the Church published by Liturgical Press Leadership in The Salvation Army Harold Hill, 2006-10-01 Leadership in The Salvation Army is a review and analysis of Salvation Army history focused on the process of clericalisation The Army provides a case study of the way in which renewal movements in the church institutionalise Their leadership roles initially merely functional and based on the principle of the priesthood of all believers begin to assume greater status the adoption of the term ordination for the commissioning of The Salvation Army's officers in 1978 a hundred years after its founding illustrates this tendency The Salvation Army's ecclesiology has been essentially pragmatic and has developed in comparative isolation from the wider church perhaps with a greater role being played by sociological processes than by theological reflection in its development The Army continues to exhibit a tension between its theology which supports equality of status and its military structure which works against equality and both schools of thought flourish within its ranks Naked Parish Priest Stephen Loudon, Leslie J. Francis, 2003-08-01 Based on a survey sent out to Catholic clergy in the UK this study is a major contribution from empirical theology towards interpreting the health and potential of the priesthood today The issues raised by this new study concern the nature and health of the priesthood a topic of most urgent concern at a time of clerical scandal and abuse The conclusions of this book are extremely revealing but fundamentally positive for anyone concerned with the future of the Christian Church at the start of a new millennium The Francis Factor and The People of God Arbuckle, Gerald A , 2015-04-01 Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermonic preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology Gravissimum Educationis Gerald M. Cattaro, Charles J. Russo, 2015-08-06 Gravissimum Educationis Golden Opportunities in American Catholic Education 50 Years after Vatican II reviews the development of American Catholic schools since the promulgation of Gravissimum Educationis the only document on education produced by the Ecumenical Council known as Vatican II This document literally translated as The Importance of Education addresses how extremely vital Catholic education in particular is in modern life Cattaro and Russo also reflect on changes that have transpired since the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore of 1884 This council forever changed the shape of nonpublic education in the United States in its decree that all parishes in the United States were to construct Catholic schools for the education of children This volume is also designed to benefit Catholic Educators in all at levels from primary to higher education The chapters in this book prepared by leading experts on various aspects of Catholic education or other forms of non public education in the United States provide a history as to the recent development on Catholic schools Gravissimum Educationis Golden Opportunities in American Catholic Education 50 Years after Vatican II provides the context of change and the current state of Catholic Schools in the United States and in some sense the global perspective The scope of this book goes beyond the professional educator in Catholic Schools as it also address the stakeholders of Catholic education such as parents who are consumers pastors religious educators and donors Fundamentalism at Home and Abroad Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2017 For most people fundamentalism in the modern world has become synonymous with a radical form of Islam but fundamentalism in many shapes and forms is also very much present in Western societies Yes fundamentalist economic political nationalistic and religious movements are aplenty in the West Using the lens of cultural anthropology Gerald A Arbuckle examines fundamentalist attitudes and movements in this book exploring why they arise and how readers can constructively respond to them Healthcare Ministry Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2000 Healthcare Ministry

Sisters of the Holy Cross, Menzingen 1844-1863 Mary Finbarr Coffey, 2022-01-01 While building on a comprehensive reading of available archival sources in the Menzingen Religious Institute this work provides a greater understanding of the possibilities and the difficulties of a return textit ad fontes in the Church and in religious life It discloses that a struggle for a founding inspiration is a struggle for the memory The theoretical framework which has been constructed from scriptural sources in this study is likely to be of use in a theological interpretation of any Christian founding event Sr M Finbarr Coffey is a teacher in Philosophy and Ethics at the Cardinal Vaughan Memorial School London She is also the author of The Question of Relativism an Essay in Epistemology New Millennium London 2016 Mission on the Road to Emmaus Cathy Ross, Steve Bevans, 2015-01-31 Cathy Ross and Steve Bevans are two of the biggest names in the study of mission and missiology worldwide Cathy is director of OxCEPT at Ripon College Cuddesdon and Steve Bevans is teaching missiology at the Catholic Theological Union in Chicago The contributors in the book consider mission through the lens of prophetic dialogue The book consciously tries to bring a fresh approach introducing some newer themes identity creation migration and bringing a different perspective on some older themes by grouping them in this way It is theological rather than issues based and involves both older and newer contributors The book is aimed at scholars and students of missiology in the UK the US and worldwide It is also a contribution to the study of world Christianity and contextual theology Contributors include Jonny Baker Kirsteen Kim Gavin d Costa Emma Wild Wood Robert Schreiter and S Mark Heim The Pandemic and the People of God Arbuckle, Gerald A., 2021-10-20 Draws from anthropology and theology to provide an analysis of the role of the church in responding to the COVID 19 pandemic Religious Life in the 21st Century O'Murchu, Diarmuid, 2016-08-18 This seminal work surveys the historical rise and fall of religious orders and congregations and reveals an unfolding pattern that gives hope for the present and future Catholic Identity Or Identities? Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2013 How can Catholic leaders effectively train and form members of our institutions in the Gospel values that are the ultimate foundation of Catholic identities Internationally recognized author educator and facilitator Gerald A Arbuckle argues that it is time to acknowledge that the programs and processes used in the past are inadequate to our postmodern age The systems previously used to educate the staffs of our hospitals universities schools and other institutions rarely succeed today Although didactic teaching and discursive learning have their place they cannot be the primary method for forming identities Catholic Identity or Identities will assist a wide range of people bishops theologians pastoral workers institutional leaders and staffs and more in their various ministries Arbuckle draws on several disciplines including Scripture theology and history but in particular cultural anthropology to explain the importance of refounding adult formation for Catholic ministries and the practical ways to achieve it
