Contemporary Dance in Cuba Suki John, 2012-08-08 The lens of dance can provide a multifaceted view of the present day Cuban experience Cuban contemporary dance or tecnic cubana as it is known throughout Latin America is a highly evolved hybrid of ballet North American modern dance Afro Cuban tradition flamenco and Cuban nightclub cabaret Unlike most dance forms tecnic was created intentionally with government backing

For Cuba a dancing country it was natural and highly effective for the Revolutionary regime to link national image with the visceral power of dance Written by a dancer who traveled and worked in Cuba from the 1970s to the present this book provides an inside look at daily life in Cuba From watching the great Alicia Alonso to describing the economic trials of the 1990s Special Period the author uses history humor personal experience rich description and extensive interviews to reveal contemporary life and dance in Cuba

Black Theology and Black Faith Noel Leo Erskine, 2023-11-02 Become Black with the oppressed Christ Contemporary Black theology is complex and far reaching In this concise yet thorough volume Noel Leo Erskine examines Black theology from every angle seeking to answer the question Why would Africa s children turn to the God of their oppressors for liberation Beginning with the Middle Passage which brought millions of Africans into the Caribbean and the United States Erskine unpacks the background and distinctive ideas of Black theology Erskine covers major thinkers and illumines various areas of inquiry suffering and theodicy sin and reconciliation baptism and the sacraments womanism and Christology and others What unites these strands is the goal of liberation of a faith that delivers not theoretical orthodoxies but real change in the lives of those buckling under racist oppression Black Theology and Black Faith is the perfect book for students and scholars looking to recenter the voices of the marginalized in their theology Readers will leave its pages with a faith more alive to the call to institute God s kingdom on Earth Choice Outstanding Academic Titles List 2024

Spiritual Citizenship N. Fadeke Castor, 2017-11-09 In Spiritual Citizenship N Fadeke Castor employs the titular concept to illuminate how If Orisha practices informed by Yoruba cosmology shape local national and transnational belonging in African diasporic communities in Trinidad and beyond Drawing on almost two decades of fieldwork in Trinidad Castor outlines how the political activism and social upheaval of the 1970s set the stage for African diasporic religions to enter mainstream Trinidadian society She establishes how the postcolonial performance of If Orisha practices in Trinidad fosters a sense of belonging that invigorates its practitioners to work toward freedom equality and social justice Demonstrating how spirituality is inextricable from the political project of black liberation Castor illustrates the ways in which If Orisha beliefs and practices offer Trinidadians the means to strengthen belonging throughout the diaspora access past generations heal historical wounds and envision a decolonial future

Race Relations in the Bahamas, 1784-1834 Whittington Bernard Johnson, Johnson Whittington, 2000-01-01 This deeply researched clearly written book is a history of black society and its relations with whites in the Bahamas from the close of the American Revolution to emancipation Whittington B Johnson examines the communities developed by free bonded and mixed race blacks on the islands as British colonists and American loyalists unsuccessfully tried to establish a plantation economy The author explores how relations between the races developed civilly in this region contrasting it with the harsher and more violent experience of other Caribbean islands as well as the American South Interpreting church documents and Colonial Office papers in a new light Johnson presents a more favorable conclusion than previously advanced about the conditions endured by victims of the African Diaspora and by Creoles in the Bahama Islands He makes use of an impressive and important body of archival and secondary research Race Relations in the Bahamas will be of great interest to southern historians historians of slave societies and black communities scholars of race relations in general and general readers in the Bahamas Black Power in Bermuda Q. Swan, 2009-12-21 This book examines the impact of Black Power on the British colony of Bermuda where the 1972 73 assassinations of its British Police Commissioner and Governor reflected the Movement's denouncement of British imperialism and the island's racist and oligarchic society Black Jacks W. Jeffrey Bolster, 1997 Examines the roles of African Americans both free men and slaves in maritime history during the years 1740 to 1865 Also discusses their relationships with white sailors Unauthorized Migration, 1990 Women and Christianity Cheryl A. Kirk-Duggan, Karen Jo Torjesen, 2009-12-22 This work explores the impact of Christian women as scholars and leaders representing the ethnic national racial and denominational diversity of Christianity today on all aspects of life Women and Christianity explores the experiences of women and how their daily lives interface with their spirituality and faith Beginning with a historical overview the book presents essays grouped under five broad headings women family and environment socioeconomics politics and authority body mind and spirit sex power and vulnerability and women world view and religious practice These essays focus on multiple aspects of women's experiences and contemporary Christian realities involving the interrelatedness of faith thought and activism across many strata of global society They wrestle with the daily experiences and challenges women face integrating their lives as women of faith as they are advocates experience agency and work for mutuality It shows how in all these roles women must negotiate power injustice and the impact of sexism as they work within systemic oppression amid a patriarchal system nevertheless championing change and refusing to be severely compromised Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies, 2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all The Sam Sharpe Lectures Rosemarie Davidson, E.P. Louis, 2023-11-30 Celebrating ten years of the annual Sam Sharpe Lectures this text is a collection of a decade's contribution from scholars thinkers activists and ministers responding to the legacy of Sam Sharpe a Jamaican National Hero This text documents these moving insightful and mobilising contributions and seeks to capture how Sharpe's legacy inspires action for justice in the 21st century Rooted in a radical Jamaican narrative The Sam Sharpe Lectures collectively demonstrate how Sharpe's legacy can inspire all people to be game changers despite life's challenges Sam Sharpe was enslaved yet through a grounding in Christian faith compassion justice and self determination became an agent for transformation and these lectures translate his legacy into tools for today's injustices

The Tragedy of Human Development Tim Di Muzio, 2017-12-12 How might an objective observer conceive of what humans have accomplished as a species over its brief history Benjamin argues that history can be judged as one giant catastrophe Liberals suggest that this is too sombre an assessment and that human history can be read as a story of greater and greater progress in human rights prosperity and the decrease of arbitrary and extra judicial violence But is there a third reading of history one that neither interprets human history as a giant catastrophe or endless progress Could we not say that human development has been a tragedy This book explores the idea of human development as a tragedy from the perspective of capitalist power Although the argument of this book draws heavily on critical political economy the analysis considers interdisciplinary literature in an effort to explore how major revolutions have transformed human social relations of power and created certain path dependencies that may ultimately lead to our downfall as a species Intellectually sophisticated and readable this book offers a provocative genealogy of capitalist power and the tragedy of human development

Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations Professor Ellis Cashmore, Ellis Cashmore, 2002-09-11 Ethnicity and racial relations are almost universally seen as a prime motivating force behind social conflict and change Often volatile and complex racial interaction resonates through all aspects of contemporary society Social issues which appear to have little connection to race often become entangled with ethnic friction to create far more complex problems Race is often used by individuals and political organizations to further their own objectives Since the 1994 publication of the third edition of this acclaimed reference book there have been enormous changes in the area of race and ethnic relations throughout the world The Dictionary of Race and Ethnic Relations deals with these changes through in depth articles which both define and analyze the terms For this edition there has been a total revision of existing entries and many new entries that take account of developments in society and intellectual trends Features include Fully updated lists of further reading and cross references New entries include Black feminism Causes celebres Environmental racism Hybridity Postcolonialism Invaluable teaching and reference tool for students at all levels
