From Culture To Civilization:

From Culture to Civilization Edgar Lee Hewett, 1942 Classical Readings in Culture and Civilization Stephen Mennell, John F. Rundell, 1998 In recent times especially under the influence of postmodernism culture has often been construed as a critique of modernity This wide ranging and comprehensive collection of readings shows that such issues have always been at the centre of thought about the relationship between culture and civilization The readings are divided into three sections linking the civilization debate to political theory to the cultural debate and to the sociology and anthropology The substantial extracts included give students a rare chance to engage at length with classic texts to appreciate the nature of the battle between the Enlightenment and its critics which has shaped current thought Classical Readings on Culture and Civilisation presents essays from Immanuel Kant Adam Ferguson Thomas Jefferson Alexis de Tocqueville Friedrich von Schiller Friedrich Nietzsche Georg Simmel Thomas Mann Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim Marcel Mauss Lucien Febvre Alfred Weber Robert E Park Norbert Elias CULTURE, CIVILIZATION AND HUMAN SOCIETY - Volume II Herbert Arlt, Donald G. Daviau, 2009-04-07 Culture Civilization and Human Society theme is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Culture Civilization and Human Society deals in two volumes and cover five main topics with a myriad of issues of great relevance to our world such as Theory and History of Culture Cultural Heritage Mass Culture Popular Culture and Cultural Identity Cultural Interaction Twentieth Century Perspectives on Culture which are then expanded into multiple subtopics each as a chapter These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College Students Educators Professional Practitioners Research Personnel and Policy Analysts Managers and Decision Makers NGOs and GOs Civilizations Felipe Fernandez-Armesto, 2001-09-14 In Civilizations Felipe Fernandez Armesto once again proves himself a brilliantly original historian capable of large minded and comprehensive works here he redefines the subject that has fascinated historians from Thucydides to Gibbon to Spengler to Fernand Braudel the nature of civilization To Fernandez Armesto a civilization is civilized in direct proportion to its distance its difference from the unmodified natural environment by its taming and warping of climate geography and ecology The same impersonal forces that put an ocean between Africa and India a river delta in Mesopotamia or a 2 000 mile long mountain range in South America have created the mold from which humanity has fashioned its own wildly differing cultures In a grand tradition that is certain to evoke comparisons to the great historical taxonomies each chapter of Civilizations connects the world of the ecologist and geographer to a panorama of cultural history In Civilizations the medieval poem Sir Gawain and the Green Knight is not merely a Christian allegory but a testament to the thousand year long deforestation of the trees that once covered 90 percent of the European mainland The Indian Ocean has served as the world's greatest trading highway for millennia not merely because of cultural imperatives but because the regular monsoon winds blow one way in the summer and the other in the winter In the words of the author Unlike previous attempts to write the comparative history of civilizations it is arranged environment by environment rather than period by period or society by society Thus seventeen distinct habitats serve as jumping off points for a series of brilliant set piece comparisons thus tundra civilizations from Ice Age Europe are linked with the Inuit of the Pacific Northwest and the Mississippi mound builders and the deforesters of eleventh century Europe are both understood as civilizations built on woodlands Here of course are the familiar riverine civilizations of Mesopotamia and China of the Indus and the Nile but also highland civilizations from the Inca to New Guinea island cultures from Minoan Crete to Polynesia to Renaissance Venice maritime civilizations of the Indian Ocean and South China Sea even the Bushmen of Southern Africa are seen through a lens provided by the desert civilizations of Chaco Canyon More here are fascinating stories brilliantly told of the voyages of Chinese admiral Chen Ho and Portuguese commodore Vasco da Gama of the Great Khan and the Great Zimbabwe Here are Hesiod s tract on maritime trade in the early Aegean and the most up to date genetics of seed crops Erudite wide ranging a work of dazzling scholarship written with extraordinary flair Civilizations is a remarkable achievement a tour de force by a brilliant scholar

Bengal in Global Concept History Andrew Sartori, 2008-09-15 In this study Sartori closely examines the history of political and intellectual life in 19th and 20th century Bengal to show how the concept of culture can take on a life of its own in different contexts weaving the narrative of Bengal's embrace of culturalism into a worldwide history of the concept Peace on Earth Edwin Jones, 2016-05-27 This book posits that it is not possible for a civilization to maintain a human and humane culture without the assistance of religion. Religion can be misused or abused into having a negative effect, but an authentic religion when properly managed is the only effective source of durable common and humane values throughout society. Religion's assertion of the existence of God, who alone provides the transcendent power, is the only logical basis for asserting and maintaining common values for all people, going far above and beyond the indiscriminate and multifarious opinions of diverse and imperfect human beings. Some people can maintain certain values derived from their own consciences, but human history and psychoanalysis shows that the majority of people cannot sustain a whole culture or civilization from a purely utilitarian and materialistic basis. Human nature is imperfect and needs the help of a transcendent power to support its spiritual needs in a humane society and to create a culture or civilization that lasts.
