Speaking Our Selves Asimwe Deborah Kawe, Robert H. Vorlicky, 2025-03-04 Speaking Our Selves brings together eight remarkable plays by women writers from the under represented African countries of Tanzania Mozambique Ethiopia Mali Burundi Benin and Sudan plus a play by award winning Ugandan playwright and volume coeditor Asimwe Kawe Four of the plays are translated into English from Kiswahili French or Kirundi and French while most of the plays preserve African indigenous languages including Runyankore Lusoga Mina Fon Bambara Luganda Kiswahili and Kirundi Although the plays are united in presenting women as central figures who own their voices they also represent a rich diversity of story telling Each unique dramaturgy is rooted in African forms of story telling that occasionally merge with recognizable Western forms to create hybrid dramatic forms These hybrid methods emphasize the striking ways in which African women writers continue to experiment with form moving beyond Western influenced dramaturgy if and when it jeopardizes their authentic ways of artistic expression and creation through language movement and music centered in African Cosmology The plays within Speaking Our Selves confront a range of ideas and issues including women embracing the potential of agency in often contested subject positions confronting their historical object positions in worlds of devastating patriarchal authority resisting toxic masculinity and persistent oppressive binaries of gender roles finding power in communities of women increasing their acumen in financial business and economic spheres facing tensions between traditional religious tenets and efforts toward secularization living with perpetual acts of violence toward their bodies and the rising mental health issues among girls and women across the continent Readers and audiences are challenged by these plays not to be passive witnesses by observing from safe vantage points but rather to be active participants in the stories being told

From Outer Space to Inner Space Edgar D. Mitchell, 2022 As Apollo 14 astronaut Edgar Mitchell hurtles Earthward through space he was engulfed by a profound sense of universal connectedness

He intuitively sensed that his presence and that of the planet in the window were all part of a deliberate universal process and that the glittering cosmos itself was in some way conscious the experience was so overwhelming Mitchell knew he would never be the same From Outer Space to Inner Space traces two remarkable journeys one through space and one through the mind Together they fundamentally alter the way we understand the miracle and mystery of being and ultimately reveal humankind's role in its own destiny Back cover TDR., 2006 Virtual Worlds and Multimedia Nadia

Magnenat-Thalmann, Daniel Thalmann, 1993-09-14 This volume covers both theoretical and practical aspects of virtual reality and its relationship with multimedia It presents advanced research and surveys on such topics as image compression HDTV synthetic TV and actors 3D copying and interaction electronic books and architectural space Most of the text was presented at a workshop held in October 1993 at the U of Geneva Switzerland Includes 16 color plates Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The Best Plays of ..., 2004 Asian American Literature in the International Context

Rocío G. Davis, 2002 In their different and yet complementary perspectives all of the essays in this collection reiterate the universal lesson of pluralism They are divided into sections that deal with biraciality and biculturality interethnic negotiations poetic creations narrative experiments and re constructing self The wide variety of approaches reflects the contributors training in different cultures and across cultures The book showcases refreshing new perspectives in reading that combine the views of literary scholars from three different continents This collection creates a space for discussion and commentary of heightened appreciation and increased creativity a forum that turns the discipline of Asian American Studies into a truly intercultural debate American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Constructions of Media Authorship Christiane

Heibach, Angela Krewani, Irene Schütze, 2020-11-23 The author is dead long live the author This paradox has shaped discussions on authorship since at least the 1960s when the dominant notion of the individual author genius was first critically questioned The ongoing discussion has mainly focused on literature and the arts but has ignored nearly any artistic practice beyond these two fields Constructions of Media Authorship aims to fill this gap the volume's interdisciplinary contributions reflect historical and current artistic practices within various media and attempt to grasp them from different perspectives The first part sheds a new light on different artistic and design practices and questions the still dominant view on the individual identifiable author The second part discusses creative practices in literature emphasizing the interrelation of aesthetic discourses and media practices The third part investigates authoring in audiovisual media especially film and TV while the final part turns to electronic and digital media and their collective creativity and hybrid mediality The volume is also an attempt to develop new methodological approaches focusing on the interplay between various human and non human actors in different media constellations Interactive Dramaturgies Heide Hageböling, 2012-12-06 Interactive media require new forms of dramaturgy Heide Hageböling develops a new understanding of dramaturgy Interactive Dramaturgy which goes beyond interactive storytelling Contributions by international multimedia authors designers and artists outline concepts and strategies for multimedia productions These outstanding example projects cover various genres culture museum TV and education Interactive media are complex and have multiple dimensions A linear dramaturgy therefore no longer holds The global connection via Internet fosters further dimensions of exchange and competition Interactive dramaturgies define rules transition points and dimensions of multi user environments Multimedia real and virtual elements must be carefully integrated within applications or installations Interactive dramaturgies help design and create environments and content that lead to immersion active exploration and knowledge acquisition and that motivate users to repeated visits
