In Every Corner Sing Malcolm Guite, 2018-10-09 Succeeding Ronald Blythe's Word From Wormingford one of the most beloved columns in contemporary journalism was always going to be a formidable challenge for any writer Yet the new occupier of the back page slot of the Church Times the priest poet Malcolm Guite immediately gained the affections and loyalty of a discerning audience accustomed to literary excellence His lucid perceptive and imaginative musings follow a similar pattern to the sonnets for which he is so renowned In his own words he treats these 500 word essays a little in the spirit of the sonnet with a sense of development of a turn or volta part way through and a sense that the end revisits and re-reads the opening These draw together everyday events and encounters landscape journeys poetry stories memory and a sense of the sacred and fuses them to create richly satisfying portraits of the familiar that at the same time opens a doorway in to a new and enchanted world
