Jaworski, 2023-08-07 Erving Goffman and the Cold War presents a provocative new reading of the work of sociologist Erving Goffman Instead of viewing him as a marginal man or academic outsider Gary D Jaworski explores Goffman as a social theorist of the Cold War Goffman was deeply connected to both the ethos of his time and to a range of cold warriors and their critics such as Edward A Shils Thomas C Schelling and the researchers on brainwashing associated with the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research among others Chapters on loyalty betrayal secrecy strategy interrogation provocation and aggression concretely illustrate these connections Erving Goffman and the Cold War shows that Goffman was much more than a microsociologist of mundane life he was a perceptive analyst of the Cold War America The National union catalog, 1968-1972, 1973 Coalition Navies during the Korean War Ian Bowers, 2024-02-13 This book presents a detailed assessment of the role of navies in the Korean War It highlights that despite being predominantly a land war navies played a vital part Moreover the naval war was not solely a U S operation Smaller navies from many countries made important contributions both in supporting the United States and carrying out independent and combined naval operations This subject holds special importance since current Western strategic thinking and capabilities emphasise the necessity of combined naval operations involving multiple navies in any potential future naval conflict The example set by the Korean War therefore offers valuable insights into the operational and strategic problems and benefits and opportunities of contemporary and future combined coalition naval operations
