Menon, 2013-09-05 First published in 1998 Design reform in the fields of architecture and the decorative or applied arts became objectified through writings published during the period of 1885 to 1910 This investigation includes but is not limited to Art Nouveau in France and Belgium and the arts and crafts movement in England and the United States Even though the similar processes of creativity and shared goals of Art Nouveau and the arts and crafts movement have long been recognized attempts to explore their origins and their points of interrelation with the broader scope of art history have been largely unsuccessful until now
