German Expressionism and the Messianism of a Generation Lisa Marie Anderson, 2011-01-01 This book reads messianic expectation as the defining characteristic of German culture in the first decades of the twentieth century It has long been accepted that the Expressionist movement in Germany was infused with a thoroughly messianic strain Here with unprecedented detail and focus that strain is traced through the work of four important Expressionist playwrights Ernst Barlach Georg Kaiser Ernst Toller and Franz Werfel Moreover these dramatists are brought into new and sustained dialogues with the theorists and philosophers of messianism who were their contemporaries Walter Benjamin Ernst Bloch Martin Buber Hermann Cohen Gershom Scholem In arguing for example that concepts like Bloch's utopian self encounter Selbstbegegnung and Benjamin's messianic now time Jetztzeit reappear as the framework for Expressionism's staging of collective redemption in a new age Anderson forges a previously underappreciated link in the study of Central European thought in the early twentieth century Nietzsche and Jewish Culture Jacob Golomb, 2002-01-04 Friedrich Nietzsche occupies a contradictory position in the history of ideas he came up with the concept of a master race yet an eminent Jewish scholar like Martin Buber translated his Also sprach Zarathustra into Polish and remained in a lifelong intellectual dialogue with Nietzsche Sigmund Freud admired his intellectual courage and was not at all reluctant to admit that Nietzsche had anticipated many of his basic ideas This unique collection of essays explores the reciprocal relationship between Nietzsche and Jewish culture It is organized in two parts the first examines Nietzsche's attitudes towards Jews and Judaism the second Nietzsche's influence on Jewish intellectuals as diverse and as famous as Franz Kafka Martin Buber Franz Rosenzweig and Sigmund Freud Each carefully selected essay explores one aspect of Nietzsche's relation to Judaism and German intellectual history from Heinrich Heine to Nazism The Cambridge Companion to Nietzsche Bernd Magnus, Kathleen Higgins, 1996-01-26 The significance of Friedrich Nietzsche for twentieth century culture is now no longer a matter of dispute He was quite simply one of the most influential of modern thinkers The opening essay of this 1996 Companion provides a chronologically organised introduction to and summary of Nietzsche's published works while also providing an overview of their basic themes and concerns It is followed by three essays on the appropriation and misappropriation of his writings and a group of essays exploring the nature of Nietzsche's philosophy and its relation to the modern and post modern world The final contributions consider Nietzsche's influence on the twentieth century in Europe the USA and Asia New readers and non specialists will find this the most convenient accessible guide to Nietzsche currently available Advanced students and specialists will find a conspectus of recent developments in the interpretation of Nietzsche Canetti and Nietzsche Harriet Murphy, 1997-01-01 This first full length study investigates the profound implications of the peculiarly original sense of humor found in Elias Canetti's single novel a facetiousness understood in a Nietzschean sense as a revolutionary aesthetic Exotic Spaces in German Modernism Jennifer Anna Gosetti-Ferencei, 2011-10-20 Jennifer Anna Gosetti Ferencei demonstrates that the exotic as reflected in major works of German literature and in the philosophy and art that inspires it provokes central questions about the modern self and the spaces it inhabits Exotic spaces in the writings of such authors as Thomas Mann Franz Kafka Stefan Zweig Robert Musil Hugo von Hofmannsthal Gottfried Benn and Bertold Brecht along with the thought of Nietzsche Freud Levi Strauss and Simmel and the art of German Expressionism are shown to present alternatives to the landscape and experience of modernity In an examination of the concept of the exotic and of spatial experience in their cultural subjective and philosophical contingencies Gosetti Ferencei shows that exotic spaces may contest and reconfigure the relationship between the familiar and the foreign the self and the other Exotic spaces may serve not only to affirm the subject in a symbolic conquering of territory as emphasized in post colonial interpretations or project the fantasy of escapism to a lost paradise as utopian readings suggest but condition moral aesthetic or imaginative transformation Such transformation while risking disaster or dissolution of the self as well as endangerment of the other may promote new possibilities of perceiving or being and reconfigure the boundaries of a familiar world As exotic spaces are conceived as mystical liberating erotic infectious frightening or mysterious several possibilities for transformation emerge in their exposure re enchantment through epiphany the collapse of the rational self liberation of the imagination from the confines of the familiar world and aesthetic transformation revealing the paradoxically primitive nature of modern experience In strikingly original readings of canonical authors and compelling rediscoveries of forgotten ones this study establishes that exotic experience can evidence the fragility of the European or Germanic self as depicted in modernist literature revealing the usually unconsidered boundaries of the subject s own familiar world The First World War in German Narrative Prose Charles N. Genno, Heinz Wetzel, 1980-12-15

This collection of eight essays in honour of the distinguished Canadian Germanist G W Field treats themes in German narrative prose of the First World War the pre war era and the earliest of the Weimar Republic The aim of the book is not to present a comprehensive study of the field but rather to shed new light on specific problems The essays are organized in the historical sequence of the events and situations to which they are related The topics include discussions of the concept of war as presented by Robert Musil in Der Mann ohne Eigenschaften the treatment of war as a catalyst by the Expressionist writers Carl Sternheim and Leonhard Frank the preservation of values in the face of war as dealt in Hesse s Demian and an exploration of the effects of war on the individual and social values in the works of Salomo Friedlender and Alfred Döblin An essay on H G Wells Mr Britling Sees It Through helps to clarify the ways in which the reaction of German writers to the war may be viewed as specifically German by providing an outsider s point of view The final chapter a survey of the most recent literature on the topic shows how much World War I lives on in the minds of German writers as the great turning point in German political and cultural history Nietzschean Philosophy in the Works of Frederick Philip Grove Axel

Knönagel, 1990 Traditionally Frederick Philip Grove s works have been interpreted in the context of Canadian prairie fiction Most critics have ignored the fact that Grove spent the first thirty years of his life in Germany where he was exposed to various artistic and philosophical influences most importantly the Neo Romanticism of the Stefan George circle and the philosophy of Friedrich Nietzsche This book argues that Grove s Canadian writing exhibits the same intellectual preoccupations as do his German works and that the unifying element is the Nietzschean influence on the texts In this thesis all of Grove s writings are examined under the premise that Nietzschean philosophy contributes significantly to an understanding of Grove s fiction The book examines Grove s German works Wanderungen Helena und Damon Fanny Essler and Maurermeister Ihles Haus in the light of the various intellectual and artistic movements prevalent in Germany It then examines Grove s Canadian writing dividing it into four thematic groups the struggle between individual and nature the attempt to overcome one s sexual passions the attempt to establish a patriarchal family structure and the power struggle that underlies social life The thesis concludes with an analysis of superhuman perspectives and qualities in Grove s critique of mankind in Consider Her Ways and of his own life in In Search of Myself Historical Dictionary of Nietzscheanism

Nietzsche's Zarathustra Kathleen Marie Higgins,2010-04-27 Nietzsche's Zarathustra takes an interdisciplinary approach to Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra focusing on the philosophical function of its literary techniques and its fictional mode of presentation It argues that the fictional format is essential to Nietzsche's philosophical message in his work Part of that message is Nietzsche's alternative to the Western worldview as developed by Plato's dialogues and the Christian Gospel which he presents through the teachings of his hero Zarathustra Another part of that message is that any doctrine including those of Zarathustra himself has an ambivalent nature Although doctrinal formulations are designed to preserve and communicate philosophical insights they can become dead formulas out of touch with the live philosophical discoveries that they aimed to capture Thus Spoke Zarathustra explores Zarathustra's own vulnerability to this risk and his way of regaining real connection with living wisdom The doctrine of eternal recurrence which is particularly prominent in Zarathustra is a case in point The doctrine is offered in opposition to the worldview that Nietzsche associates with the Christian doctrine of sin which in his view promotes a view of this life as devoid of intrinsic value However certain ways of adhering to this doctrine themselves rob life of its value The book also defends the importance of Part IV of Thus Spoke Zarathustra which many scholars have seen as unimportant by comparison with the first three parts Nietzsche's Zarathustra argues that Part III would not have been a culmination for the work and that Part IV is essential to Nietzsche's project Part IV's allusions to Apuleius The Golden Ass an ancient Menippean satire suggest that it should be read as a satire in which Zarathustra falls into and recovers from folly It is thus the culminating statement of the point that there is always a discrepancy between the living philosophical insight and any attempt to articulate it
