From Centrally Planned To Market Economies Peoples Republic Of China And Mongolia:

From Centrally Planned to Market Economies: People's Republic of China and Mongolia Pradumna Bickram Rana, Naved Hamid, 1995 From Centrally Planned to Market Economies: People's Republic of China and Mongolia Pradumna Bickram Rana, Naved Hamid, 1995 Covers the period from the 1950s to the early 1990s Energy Policy and Regulation in the People's Republic of China C. P. Andrews-Speed, 2004-01-01 China is the world's second largest consumer of commercial energy and is therefore a significant contributor to atmospheric pollution. It is becoming a major player in global and regional markets for energy products, services and investment. This book provides an overview of the formulation and implementation of energy policy in China. Part One provides background information on China's energy sector. Part Two examines the nature of China's energy policy and of the policy making process with examples drawn from the coal and natural gas sectors as well as from the government's drive to promote energy conservation and energy efficiency. Part Three focuses on recent efforts to reform the energy sector in China and to regulate it more effectively, paying particular attention to the electrical power sector and to small scale coal mines. Part Four evaluates from the perspective of the citizen policy relating to the electrical power sector and to the closure of small scale coal mines. Part Five addresses the international dimensions of China's energy policy with accounts of both inward and outward investment and of the international political implications. About the author: Dr Philip Andrews-Speed is Director of the Centre for Energy, Petroleum and Mineral Law and Policy at the University of Dundee, Scotland. He spent fourteen years as a geologist in the international mining and petroleum industries before coming to the Centre in 1994, gaining an LL.M. in Energy Law and Policy and joining the academic staff.

China, Oil and Global Politics Philip Andrews-Speed, Roland Dannreuther, 2011-05-12 This book provides a critical overview of how China's growing need for oil imports is shaping its international economic and diplomatic strategy and how this affects global political relations and behaviour. It draws together the various dimensions of China's international energy strategy and provides insights into the impact of this on China's growing presence across the world. Latin America in the International Economy Rosemary Thorpe, 1973-01-01 Minerals Yearbook, 1980 World Resources 2000-2001 C. Rosen, 2000-11-29 World Resources 2000-2001 People and Ecosystems: The Fraying Web of Life focuses on the critical link between ecosystems and people and provides an overview of current global environmental and economic trends using hundreds of indicators in more than 150 countries. Until now there has not been a comprehensive formalised process to assess human damage to our ecosystems, to establish a baseline for future actions or to disseminate information that would aid the formulation of better policies world wide. This book is the first reliable comprehensive base of evidence for taking stock and taking care of the world's diverse ecosystems. It deals with the critical issues that focus on the link between ecosystems and people, highlights the goods and services that ecosystems provide and illustrates the benefits of a better understanding and better management of the planet's natural wealth. Reports on pilot studies by leading scientists and international institutions assessing the state of the world's ecosystems forests croplands grasslands freshwater systems and coastal areas increases the understanding of human dependence on nature raises awareness of environmental threats provides examples of wise stewardship from all corners of the globe focuses on four main issues population and human well being food and water security consumption energy and wastes trace emissions since the Kyoto protocol gives data tables for more than 150 countries It demonstrates the power of information and new digital technologies to transform the way we interact with our environment and is particularly important for environmentalists scientists professionals journalists policy makers and students This special Millennium Edition of the World Resources Institute's biennial report published by Elsevier Science in September 2000 in partnership with the World Resources Institute the UN Environment Program the UN Development Programme and the World Bank NEW FROM APRIL 2001 <http://www.enviromod subnet dk> Ecological and Environmental Modeling An Interactive Internet Course Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1987-07 Mongolia Ian Jeffries,2007-03-16 This book provides a full account of the key political and economic events in Mongolia focusing on the period since the establishment of the Soviet backed Mongolian People's Republic in 1924 and the transition towards a democratic free market system since the collapse of the Soviet Union ERD Working Paper Series ,2002 Economic Growth and Poverty Reduction in Viet Nam Arsenio M. Balisacan,2011-04 Viet Nam's dramatic transition and growth in the 1990s have been attributed to a series of reforms known as doi moi which began in the late 1980s Economic growth of nearly 8% yearly benefited the poor and reduced poverty from 61% in 1993 to 37% in 1998 The proportionate increases in the incomes of the poorest quintile were appreciably larger than those of the top 20 or 40% of the population This result is at variance with typical findings for other countries which indicate that welfare gains from growth are smallest for the lowest quintile and rise with income group The results for Viet Nam suggest that the faster the growth rate the lesser becomes the role of distributive factors that directly influence the poor's well being A print on demand report Energy Conservation Measures J. D. Parker,2013-10-22 Energy Conservation Measures focuses on the progress in research development design field testing and applications relative to the use and conservation of energy Containing the works of various authors who have conducted extensive studies in this field the book presents lengthy discussions and case studies on the use and conservation of energy The text outlines the relationship of energy and advancement in Third World and developing countries which is further clarified by the presentation of energy conservation measures and techniques conducted in Kuwait Saudi Arabia and other industrial locations Stressing the need for energy conservation the book also discusses heat recovery in air conditioning and refrigeration A review of the processes involved in seawater desalination is then given as well as the consideration of the role that municipal services can play in achieving higher energy efficiencies Energy efficient applications in the electrical power sector are also discussed The book is recommended to readers who are interested in the advancement of energy saving measures processes and techniques Considering the value of the discussions presented the readers will find this book a valuable source of information in their studies Poverty, Income Distribution and Well-Being in Asia During the Transition Lu Aiguo, Manuel F. Montes, 2002-05-22 The Asian road to the market has generally been seen as a model of success and the object of widespread admiration This volume evaluates the actual experience and debunks some of the most widespread myths It does so by identifying the link between alternative transition models public policies and household responses on the one hand and key welfare changes on the other Even in countries experiencing sustained growth there have been unmistakable signs of deep social strain Framework for Establishing Priorities in a Country Poverty Reduction Strategy Ron Duncan, 2008-05 This paper reviews the history progress of understanding development theory over the past 50 years Development thinking has evolved from an early paradigm that focused on savings capital investment to subsequent arguments favoring the inclusion of human capital policy technical change finally to the inclusion of the role of institutions good governance Secure property rights in the broadest sense which are applicable to all resources not just land are particularly important to realize investment yield This evolution of development thought describes a conceptual framework that can guide development practitioners in prioritizing sequencing characterizing all interventions aimed at reducing poverty From Centrally Planned to Market Economies Pradumna B. Rana (ed), 1996 This set of books identifies the general issues common to all the transitional economies of Asia TEA It focuses on the economic performance of each country looking at prior reforms and institutional changes recent reform attempts and the historical and economic forces leading to these actions Current economic conditions are examined including constraints to policy innovations

How Can Cambodia, Lao PDR, Myanmar, and Viet Nam Cope with Revenue Lost Due to AFTA Tariff Reductions?

Kanokpan Lao-Araya, 2008-12 In joining the Assoc of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and ASEAN Free Trade Area Cambodia Lao PDR Myanmar and Viet Nam have agreed to comply with the Common Effective Preferential Tariff CEPT Scheme which reduces intra ASEAN tariff rates on certain imports and may reduce gov t revenue This study proposes tax structure and tax admin reforms and other policies that can be introduced to enhance revenue collection They can Strategically allocate goods among the four CEPT scheme lists Improve their tax systems by replacing traditional general sales taxes with Value Added Tax Reduce inefficiencies that impede tax collection and Discourage tax avoidance and evasion and reduce corruption among tax officials European Social Model Assar Lindbeck, 2008-06 Developing countries esp the least developed ones have more to learn from social policies in Europe during the early 20th cent than from the elaborate welfare state arrangements after WW2 In addition to macro economic growth and stability the main ambitions must be to fight human deprivation incl illiteracy malnutrition and poor access to water and sanitation in some cases also weak incompetent and or corrupt governments Informal systems in the fields of transfers and social services must not be destroyed when developing countries embark on more formal systems The European experience also warns against the creation of social systems that are so generous that disincentives and receding social norms distort the nat economy Role of Infrastructure in Land-Use

Dynamics and Rice Production in Viet Nam's Mekong River Delta Christopher Edmonds, 2008-06 Examines the role of infrastructure development and technical change in explaining increases in agricultural production and changes in land use in the Mekong Delta Region of Viet Nam during the mid 1990s The transportation costs involved in moving agricultural input and output between farms and markets significantly effect farm land use and production decisions Greater transport costs reduce the likelihood that farms adopt intensive cropping patterns or cultivate non rice crops Results suggest that the quality of local water management infrastructure is much more important than transport costs in explaining the increased intensity of land use and level of production observed in the Mekong Delta during the 1990s Illustrations

Development and Underdevelopment John P. Cole, 2012-11-12 Initially published in 1987 this work deals with crucial aspects of development including disparities in global patterns of production and consumption John Cole examines the exhaustion of non renewable resources and the destruction of the natural environment and on the potentially positive side the effects of international transactions both in the form of development aid and trade Rather than offering clear and definite answers of which there are none the book is designed rather to serve as a basis for discussion and to provide guidelines to the further study of specific aspects of global development
