Communications Research Resources Christopher H. Sterling, James K. Bracken, Susan B. Hill, 2016-05-06 This reference book is designed as a road map for researchers who need to find specific information about American mass communication as expeditiously as possible. Taking a topical approach, it integrates publications and organizations into subject-focused chapters for easy user reference. The editors define mass communication to include print journalism and electronic media and the processes by which they communicate messages to their audiences. Included are newspaper, magazine, radio, television, cable, and newer electronic media industries. Within that definition, this volume offers an indexed inventory of more than 1,400 resources on most aspects of American mass communication: history, technology, economics, content, audience, research, policy, and regulation. The material featured represents the carefully considered judgment of three experts: two of them librarians plus four contributors from different industry venues. The primary focus is on the domestic American print and electronic media industries. Although there is no claim to a complete census of all materials on print journalism and electronic media, what is available is now too vast for any single guide; the most important and useful items are here. The emphasis is on material published since 1980, though useful older resources are included as well. Each chapter is designed to stand alone, providing the most important and useful resources of a primary nature: organizations and documents as well as secondary books and reports. In addition, online resources and internet citations are included where possible.

Uncle Tom's Cabin Harriet Beecher Stowe, 2009-09-03 Edited by Joseph Pearce. Contributors to this volume: Dedra McDonald, Birzer Mark, Canada John J. Han, Mary R. Reichardt. Harriet Beecher Stowe was appalled by slavery, and she took one of the few options open to nineteenth-century women who wanted to affect public opinion: she wrote a novel, a huge enthralling narrative that claimed the heart, soul, and politics of millions of her contemporaries. Uncle Tom's Cabin paints pictures of three plantations, each worse than the other, where even the best plantation leaves a slave at the mercy of fate or debt. Her questions remain penetrating even today: Can man ever be trusted with wholly irresponsible power? First published more than 150 years ago, this monumental work is today being reexamined by critics, scholars, and students. Though Uncle Tom's Cabin has become a synonym for a fawning black yes man Stowe's Tom is actually American literature's first black hero a man who suffers for refusing to obey his oppressors Uncle Tom's Cabin is a living relevant story passionate in its vivid depiction of the cruelest forms of injustice and inhumanity and the courage it takes to fight against them The Ignatius Critical Editions represent a tradition oriented alternative to popular textbook series such as the Norton Critical Editions or Oxford World Classics and are designed to concentrate on traditional readings of the Classics of world literature Whereas many modern critical editions have succumbed to the fads of modernism and post modernism this series will concentrate on tradition oriented criticism of these great works Edited by acclaimed literary biographer Joseph Pearce the Ignatius Critical Editions will ensure that traditional moral readings of the works are given prominence instead of the feminist or deconstructionist readings that often proliferate in other series of critical editions As such they represent a genuine extension of consumer choice enabling educators students and lovers of good literature to buy editions of classic literary works without having to buy into the ideologies of secular fundamentalism The series is particularly aimed at tradition minded literature professors offering them an alternative for their students The initial list will have about 15-20 titles The goal is to release three books a season or six in a year
