From C. 500 BC to AD 1050 John Donnelly Fage, 1978      The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage, 1979-02-01 After the prehistory of Volume I Volume II of The Cambridge History of Africa deals with the beginnings of history It is about 500 BC that historical sources begin to embrace all Africa north of the Sahara and by the end of the period documentation is also beginning to appear for parts of sub Saharan Africa North of the Sahara this situation arises since Africans were sharing in the major civilizations of the Mediterranean world It is shown that these northern Africans were not simply passive recipients of Phoenician Greek Roman and Arab influences or of the great religions and cultures of Judaism Christianity and Islam coming from the Semitic world They adapted these things to their own particular needs and purposes and sometimes too contributed to their general development But the North African civilization failed to make headway south of the Sahara

Cambridge History of Africa: From c. 500 BC to AD 1050, edited by J. D. Fage, 1975      Animals and Humans Kristina Jennbert, 2011-01-01 Animals have always been an important part of the human life world and they stand out as significant forces in the Old Norse mythology here they became imaginary creatures with strong characters In Animals and Humans archaeologist Kristina Jennbert explores the relationship between animals and humans in Scandinavia from the Roman Iron Age to the Viking Period Real animals and fantastical creatures in Midgard became mouthpieces for human characteristics and reflections of peoples social position Animals were of great importance in everyday life and in rituals and as metaphors in social identity and power relations In the course of time however the human view has changed and nature has increasingly been subjected to humans Through her detailed analysis Jennbert raises questions about the boundary between human and animal as well as about our ethical and moral precedence      The Archaeologist's Laboratory E.B. Banning, 2000-09-30 Intended as a text for students in upper division undergraduate and graduate level courses as well as a manual for professional researchers and cultural resource management practitioners the book is abundantly illustrated and referenced and includes a glossary of key terms Suggested laboratory exercises to accompany the text are available on a web site BOOK JACKET      The Cambridge History of Africa: From c. 500 B.C. to A.D. 1050 ,1982      The Cambridge History of Africa: From the earliest times to c. 500 BC, edited by J. D. Clark ,1975      African Connections Peter Mitchell, 2005 From the exodus of early modern humans to the growth of African diasporas Africa has had a long and complex relationship with the outside world More than a passive vessel manipulated by external empires the African experience has been a complex mix of internal geographic environmental sociopolitical and economic factors and regular interaction with outsiders Peter Mitchell attempts to outline these factors over the long period of modern human history to find their commonalities and development over time He examines African interconnections through Egypt and Nubia with the Near East through multiple Indian Ocean trading systems through the trans Saharan trade and through more recent incursion of Europeans The African diaspora is also explored for continuities and resistance to foreign domination Commonalities abound in the African experience as do complexities of each individual period and interrelationship Mitchell s sweeping analysis of African connections place the continent in context of global prehistory and history The book should be of interest not only to Africanists but to many other archaeologists historians geographers linguists social scientists and their students      Global Business Regulation John Braithwaite, Peter Drahos, 2000-02 This book confronts the question of how the regulation of business has shifted from national to global institutions Based on interviews with 500 international leaders in business and government this book examines the role played by global institutions such as the WTO IMF and the World Bank as well as various NGOs and significant individuals The authors argue that effective and decent global regulation depends on the determination of individuals to engage with powerful agendas and decision making bodies that would otherwise be dominated by concentrated economic interests      UNESCO General History of Africa, Vol. III, Abridged Edition Unesco. International Scientific Committee for the Drafting of a General History of Africa, 1992-11-03 The book first places Africa in the context of world history at the opening of the seventh century before examining the general impact of Islamic penetration the continuing expansion of the Bantu speaking peoples and the growth of civilizations in the Sudanic zones of West Africa Back cover      A History of Africa John Fage, with William Tordoff, 2013-10-23 A History of Africa is a thorough narrative history of the continent from its beginnings to the twenty first century Long established at the forefront of African Studies this book addresses the events of the 1990s and beyond The issues discussed include post apartheid South Africa the prospects for democratization in Africa at the beginning of the new millennium developments in Muslim North Africa including the threat of Islamic fundamentalism economic and social developments including the devastating impact of Third World debt and the provision of debt relief cultural environmental and gender issues in Modern Africa      Settlement, Shieling and Landscape Marie Emanuelsson,2003      Immortal River Calvin R. Fremling,2004-12-31 This engaging and well illustrated primer to the Upper Mississippi River presents the basic natural and human history of this magnificent waterway Immortal River is written for the educated lay person who would like to know more about the river s history and the forces that shape as well as threaten it today It melds complex information from the fields of geology ecology geography anthropology and history into a readable chronological story that spans some 500 million years of the earth s history Like the Mississippi itself Immortal River often leaves the main channel to explore the river s backwaters floodplain and drainage basin The book s focus is the Upper Mississippi from Minneapolis Minnesota to Cairo Illinois But it also includes information about the river s headwaters in northern Minnesota and about the Lower Mississippi from Cairo south to the river s mouth ninety miles below New Orleans It offers an understanding of the basic geology underlying the river s landscapes ecology environmental problems and grandeur      Archaeobotanical studies of past plant cultivation in northern Europe Santeri Vanhanen,Per Lagerås,2021-06-09 Plant cultivation has a long and successful history that is tightly linked to environmental and climate change social development and to cultural traditions and diversity This is true also for the high latitudes of northern Europe where cultivation started thousands of years before the earliest written records The long history of cultivation can be studied by archaeobotany which is the study of ancient seeds pollen and other plant remains found on archaeological sites This book presents recent advances in North European archaeobotany It focuses on plant cultivation and brings together studies from different countries and research environments both at universities and within contract archaeology The studies cover the Nordic countries and adjacent parts of the Baltic countries and Russia and they span more than 5 000 years of agricultural history from the Neolithic to the Middle Ages They highlight and discuss many different aspects of early agriculture from the first introduction of cultivation to crop choices expansions and declines climatic adaptation and vegetable gardening      Caliphs and Kings Roger Collins,2014-01-28 CALIPHS AND KINGS SPAIN 796 1031 The last twenty five years have seen a renaissance of research and writing on Spanish history Caliphs and Kings offers a formidable synthesis of existing knowledge as well as an investigation into new historical thinking perspectives and methods The nearly three hundred year rule of the Umayyad dynasty in Spain 756 1031 has been hailed by many as an era of unprecedented harmony and mutual tolerance between the three great religious faiths in the Iberian Peninsula Christianity Judaism and Islam the like of which has never been seen since And yet as this book demonstrates historical reality defies the myth Though the middle of the tenth century saw a flowering of artistic culture and sophistication in the Umayyad court and in the city of Cordoba this period was all too shortlived and localized Eventually twenty years of civil war caused the implosion of the Umayyad regime It is through the forces that divided not united the disparate elements in Spanish society that we may best glean its nature and its lessons Caliphs and Kings is devoted to better understanding those circumstances as historian Roger Collins takes a fresh look at certainties both old and new to strip ninth and tenth century Spain of its mythic narrative revealing the more complex truth beneath      The Donatist Church in an Apocalyptic Age Jesse A. Hoover, 2018 The Donatist Church in an Apocalyptic Age examines an apocalypse that never happened seen through the eyes of a dissident church that no longer exists Jesse A Hoover considers Donatists members of an ecclesiastical communion that for a brief moment formed the majority church in Roman North Africa modern Tunisia Algeria and Libya before fading away sometime between the fifth and seventh centuries Hoover studies how Donatists perceived the end of the world to offer a glimpse into the inner life of the dissident communion what it valued whom it feared and how it defined its place in history while on the cusp of history's end By recovering these appeals to apocalyptic themes in surviving Donatist writings this study uncovers a significant element within the dissident movement's self perception that has so far gone unexamined In contrast to previous assessments it argues that such eschatological expectations are not out of sync with the wider world of Latin Christianity in late antiquity and that they functioned as an effective polemical strategy designed to counter their opponents claim to be the true church in North Africa      Slavery in the Sudan Asma Mohamed Abdel Halim, Mohamed Ibrahim Nugud, Sharon Barnes, 2013-08-20 This groundbreaking study offers a rare window into the history of slavery in the Sudan with particular attention to the relationships between slaves and masters Thoroughly documented it provides valuable context to current issues of global concern and combats persistent myths about African slavery
