From A Memory:

Metropolis Pt. 2: Scenes from a Memory Peter Orullian, 2024-10-26 Nicholas Santori a sound engineer who specializes in audio recovery has had troubling dreams all his life With the anniversary of his daughter's death those dreams have gotten worse threatening the stability of his family and perhaps his own safety After receiving cryptic messages about his dreams from his clairvoyant son Nicholas seeks help from an eccentric hypnotherapist with questionable intentions During regression Nicholas learns that in a former life he was a young girl named Victoria Page that she was murdered and that her case was never truly solved Believing he can end his nightmares if he can solve Victoria's murder he finds retired detective Colin Murphy who's been obsessed with Victoria's case since he saw her lying dead seventy years ago in the house where Murphy now lives Together they hope to solve the cold case while someone is desperately trying to stop them Orullian deftly weaves the two sides of this interconnected story across the twentieth century From nightmares to zeppelins to anechoic chambers to train heists to mafia hits to speakeasies to heartfelt conversations about loss Orullian's propulsive imagining of Dream Theater's critically acclaimed album Metropolis Pt 2 Scenes from a Memory is by turns thrilling suspenseful and poignant

Memory from A to Z Yadin Dudai, 2004 This is an innovative and engaging companion to the language of memory research It consists of over 130 entries bound within a coherent conceptual framework Each entry starts with a definition or a set of definitions followed by an in depth and provocative discussion of the origin meaning usage and applicability of ideas and problems central to the neuroscience of memory and scientific culture at large The entries linked by webs of associations can be read and enjoyed and provide a versatile tool kit a source for definitions information and further reading a trigger for contemplation discussion and experimentation and an aid to study teaching and debate in classes and seminars The text is supported by an extensive reference listing and there is a comprehensive subject index incorporating a much wider range of terms relevant to the field

Trauma and Memory Studies: Responses from India and Beyond Simi Malhotra, Sheikh Sana Assad, Farhana Tasnim, Somya Charan Pahadi, Sango Bidani, 2025-09-20 This edited volume offers a comprehensive revaluation of Trauma and Memory Studies foregrounding perspectives from India and beyond It critically interrogates the prevailing Eurocentric paradigm within the field advocating for the amplification and contextualization of voices originating from South Asian spatial and temporal contexts Departing from conventional West North centric narratives the text prioritizes the narratives of historically marginalized survivor groups encompassing individuals affected by pivotal events such as the 26/11 terror attacks in Mumbai the Bengal famine the dispersion of the Indian diaspora and the experiences of incarcerated populations in Iran Kenya Palestine etc Through an in depth exploration of societal mechanisms for remembrance and coping strategies vis vis traumatic episodes such as the Jallianwala Bagh massacre the book unveils the intricate interplay of political cultural and social dynamics It explores the complicated dynamics of post colonial and post conflict societies in India by using a range of interdisciplinary methodologies such as examining artistic expressions oral histories and digital media It discusses the ongoing debate between hegemonic historical narratives and the often marginalized voices of subaltern communities This book serves as an indispensable resource for academics students and researchers committed to the exploration of trauma and memory within non Western contexts     Learning and Memory - From Molecules and Cells to Mind and Behavior Thomas Heinbockel,2024-06-05 This book is dedicated to learning and memory a concept at the heart of neuroscience Learning is about acquiring knowledge and skills forming memories and how behavior changes based on past experiences Learning is closely related to memory Memory is about the recall and expression of what one has learned This book presents contributions to learning and memory ranging from molecular cellular anatomical developmental and systems to disease oriented studies As such the book provides a gateway for newly interested investigators and serves as a resource for seasoned researchers of learning and memory Targeted at students and researchers in biological medical and behavioral disciplines this book offers an overview of the work that is being done in this field and highlights any gaps and areas that would benefit from further exploration Individual chapters focus on research advances in different brain regions and experimental models In addition the book will contribute to the training of current and future neuroscientists     Memory Development from Early Childhood Through Emerging Adulthood Wolfgang Schneider,2014-09-03 Based on decades of established research findings in cognitive and developmental psychology this volume explores and integrates the leading scientific advances into infancy and brain memory linkages as well as autobiographical and strategic memory In addition given that the predominantly classic research on memory development has recently been complemented by more cutting edge applied research e g eyewitness memory memory development in educational contexts in recent years this volume also provides in depth and up to date coverage of these emerging areas of study     The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa).
