From Country Trust to National Trust Russell R. (Russell Roy) Merifield, National Trust Company, 1988 Bankers' Magazine and State Financial Register, 1904 Food Tourism Around The World C. Michael Hall, Liz Sharples, Richard Mitchell, Niki Macionis, Brock Cambourne, 2004-02-18 Food and wine are vital components of the tourism experience and are increasingly being seen as prime travel motivators in their own right Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets offers a unique insight into this phenomenon looking at the interrelationship between food the tourism product and the tourist experience Using international case studies and examples from Europe North America Australasia and Singapore Food Tourism Around The World Development Management and Markets discusses the development range and repercussions of the food tourism phenomenon The multi national contributor team analyses such issues as the food tourism product food tourism and consumer behaviour cookery schools educational vacations food as an attraction in destination marketing Ideal for both students and practitioners the book represents the most comprehensive and wide ranging treatment yet of this recent development in tourism The Countryside Corinne Fowler, 2024-06-11 Ten walks through idyllic scenery reveal the countryside's forgotten links to transatlantic slavery and colonialism a work of accessible history that will transform our understanding of British landscapes and heritage The green fields rugged highlands and rolling hills of England Scotland and Wales are commonly associated with adventure romance and seclusion as well as literary figures like Jane Austen and William Wordsworth But in reality many of these rural places with their country houses lakes and shorelines were profoundly changed by British colonial activity Even hamlets and villages were affected by distant colonial events Taking ten country walks author Corinne Fowler explores the unique colonial dimensions of British agriculture copper mining landownership wool making coastal trade and factory work in cotton mills One route shows the links between English country houses and Indian colonization Another explores banking history in Southern England and its link to slavery on Louisianan plantations Other walks uncover the historical impact of sugar profits on the Scottish isles and 18th century tobacco imports on an English coastal port The history of these countryside locations and the people who lived and worked in them is closely bound up with colonial rule in far away continents Accompanying the author on her walks are a fascinating group of people artists musicians and writers with strong attachments to the landscapes featured in this book and family links to former British colonies like Barbados and Senegal These companions illuminate the meaning of colonial history in local settings Crucially this is not just a history book but a compassionate reflection on the way we respond to sensitive shared histories which link people across cultures generations and political divides Supplemental Appropriations for Fiscal Year 1977 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations, 1977 MD-331 - Dover Bridge, Construction, Right-of-Way Grant, Easton County, 1999 Ambassadors of the Book Raphaële Mouren, 2012-12-19 What competences are needed for heritage librarians and how can they be taught The management of

heritage collections requires a unique mix of knowledge and skills including expertise in preservation and conservation heritage policies acquisitions and collection management bibliographic description the materiality of books and other collection objects and the history of libraries Librarians must also understand the need for open access the importance of marketing and the challenges posed by digitization

Stories from Home Dr Margaret Ponsonby, 2013-06-28 Most homes in the past were not elite wealthy interiors complete with high fashion furnishings designed by well known architects and designers as many domestic histories often seem to have assumed As this book makes clear there were in fact an enormous variety of house interiors in England during the period 1750 1850 reflecting the location status and gender of particular householders as well as their changing attitudes tastes and aspirations By focusing on non metropolitan homes which represented the majority of households in England this study highlights the need for historians to look beyond prevailing attitudes that often reduce interiors to generic descriptions based on high fashions of the decorative arts Instead it shows how numerous social and cultural influences affected the manner in which homes were furnished and decorated Issues such as the availability of goods gender regional taste income the second hand market changing notions of privacy and household hierarchies and print culture could all have a significant impact on domestic furnishing The study ends with a discussion of how domestic interiors of historic properties have been presented and displayed in modern times highlighting how competing notions of the past can cloud as well as illuminate the issue Combining cultural history and qualitative analysis of evidence this book presents a new way of looking at ordinary and provincial homes that enriches our understanding of English domestic life of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries

Decolonizing Literature Anna Bernard,2023-08-15 Recent efforts to diversify and decentre the literary canon taught at universities have been moderately successful Yet this expansion of our reading lists is only the start of a broader decolonization of literary studies as a discipline there is much left to be done How can students and educators best participate in this urgent intellectual and political project Anna Bernard argues that the decolonization of literary studies requires a change to not only what but how we read In lively prose she explores work that has already been done both within and beyond the academy and challenges readers to think about where we go from here She suggests ways to recognize and respond to the political work that texts do considering questions of language and translation comparative reading ideological argument and genre in relation to the history of anticolonial struggle Above all Bernard shows that although we still have far to go the work of decolonizing literary studies is already under way Decolonizing Literature is a must have resource for all those concerned by the development and future of the field
