From Modernization to Globalization J. Timmons Roberts, Amy Bellone Hite, 2000-01-12 From Modernization to Globalization is a reference for scholars students and development practitioners on the issues of processes of social change and development in the Third World It provides carefully excerpted samples from both classic and up to date writings in the development literature short insightful introductions to each section and a general introduction Social Changes in a Global World Ulrike Schuerkens, 2017-05-01 Renowned author Ulrike Schuerkens presents an in depth exploration of social transformations and developments Combining an international approach with up to date research the book Has dedicated chapters on contemporary topics including technology new media war and terror political culture and inequality Includes an analysis of societal structures inequality globalization transnationalism Contains learning features including discussion questions annotated further reading chapter summaries and pointers to online resources to assist with study A must buy for students taking modules in social change social inequality social theory and globalization Of Peace and Power Karsten Jung, 2009 More than 50 years after Canada played an instrumental role in its inception peacekeeping has once again returned to the center of the national foreign policy debate Having participated in every peacekeeping operation set up during the Cold War and lived through the fundamental changes the activity has undergone in the 1990s Ottawa is currently struggling to define a viable approach to peacekeeping for the 21st century As a timely contribution to this effort the study reveals the overt and subtle ways in which Canada's commitment to peacekeeping has contributed to the promotion of vital national interests in the past and might continue to do so in the future , Understanding Terrorism Suleyman Ozeren, Ismail Dincer Gunes, Diab M. Al-Badayneh, 2007 Terrorism is a multi dimensional phenomenon and this publication aims at comprehending it This book has unique characteristics in terms of its focus on different issues it has a comprehensive focus on the conceptualization of terrorism and understanding of it It does not only explain the concept it also addresses the important issues which help us to really understand why and how individuals commit such an act Issues range from social and psychological analysis of a terrorist behavior to extremist subcultures and globalization This publication also successfully reviews and analyzes underlying causes of terrorism and what really makes it valuable is that the chapters present the topics with relevant data which is current and up to date Issues such as inequality globalization immigration gender and democracy are analyzed with research involving comprehensive data analysis Furthermore the book has both theoretical discussion and practical experience which makes this study a source book for the academicians and practitioners It reflects the experience and knowledge of the authors most of whom have both academic and practical experience in the field The chapters have the analysis based on professional experience and successful academic research Cities in Contemporary Africa M. Murray, G. Myers, 2007-01-08 This book explains how and why cities on the African continent have grown at such a rapid pace how municipal authorities have tried to cope with this massive influx of people and how long time urban residents and newcomers interact negotiate and struggle over access to limited resources Is Israel One? Eliezer Ben-Rafael, Yochanan Peres, 2005-07-01 This book delves into Israeli society where internal divides have emerged from divergent value systems in a context of powerful globalization immigrant society behavior and a sharp majority minority division A short but hectic experience Jewish nationalism draws its vitality from reformulations of ancestral symbols which permeate the dynamics of the confrontations of the dominant culture and numerous parties all contesting its exigencies Israel's conflicts revolve around this issue forming a unique dynamic of multiple interacting forces of convergence and divergence This case raises several major questions about the sociology of multiculturalism Is Israel One was selected Choice Outstanding Academic Title in 2006 Religions in Global Society Peter Beyer, 2013-01-11 Peter Beyer a distinguished sociologist of religion presents a way of understanding religion in a contemporary global society by analyzing it as a dimension of the historical process of globalization Introducing theories of globalization and showing how they can be applied to world religions Beyer reveals the nature of the contested category of religion what it means what it includes and what it implies in the world today Written with exceptional clarity and illustrated with lively and diverse examples ranging from Islam and Hinduism to African traditional religions and new age spirituality this is a fascinating overview of how religion has developed in a globalized society It is recommended reading for students taking courses on sociology of religion religion and globalization and religion and modernity Alternative Capitalisms Robert Gwynne, Denis Shaw, Thomas Klak, 2014-05-12 This book aims to examine the effects of globalization and economic and political transformations in those parts of the world which are now regularly referred to as emerging regions These are Latin America and the Caribbean East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union and East Asia This book breaks new ground in three areas First of all it develops a critique of the use of the term emerging regions for geographers and social scientists and relates this to world systems theory Secondly it explores the development trajectories and challenges of countries in this so called emerging world countries that will be crucial to the evolution of the world economy in the twenty first century Thirdly it compares and contrasts the pathways of both economic and political change in the three world regions under focus This is a unique approach in terms of books published in both geography and the social sciences Within the context of the three world regions the book combines historical and contemporary analysis of the evolving world system In these regions we are concerned to understand the historical expansion and extension of capitalism and how its contemporary forms of production exchange and regulation are evolving The authors believe that at the present time these processes have produced alternative capitalisms economic and associated developments which while assuredly capitalist differ in various ways from those typical of the capitalist West or core economies of North America and Western Europe Accounting and Money for Ministerial Leadership Nimi Wariboko, 2013-05-22 This book will help seminary students and ministers with no training in accounting to expand their core management competency and church leadership skills to include basic issues of finance and accounting It will also provide pastors ministers with financial management orientation to become better leaders managers of their churches and organizations Specifically this book is designed to bring pastors ministers and seminary students up to speed in the language of accounting and money in contemporary American society It gives them practical resources for effective not hands on management of church finances Among others it will offer training on basic accounting and budgeting reading of financial reports and elementary tax and legal issues in order to develop pastors students core competency in stewardship leadership After going through this book most students and pastors should be able to read exegete and make sense of the financial reports that will be given to them by church accountants treasurers finance committees This book helps pastors to understand and interpret the accounting and monetary issues of their ministries in a professional and theologically sound way
