Brown, Rafael

Lara-Aicio, Dr. Shirley A. Jackson, 2013-03-01 Although educational theories are presented in a variety of textbooks and in some discipline specific handbooks and encyclopedias no publication exists which serves as a comprehensive consolidated collection of the most influential and most frequently quoted and consulted theories There is a need to put such theories into a single easily accessible volume A unique feature of the Handbook is the way in which it conveys the theories The organization of the chapters within each section makes the volume an easy to use and understandable reference tool as researchers and practitioners seek theories to guide their research and practice and as they develop theoretical frameworks In addition to the traditional theories presented the Handbook includes emerging theories for the 21st Century as well as presenting practical examples of the use of these theories in research from dissertations and published articles An appendix which indicates which theories have instruments associated with them and where those instruments can be found is also included The Handbook consists of 12 sections Section I provides the introduction with a focus on what constitutes good theory as well as how theory guides research and practice The remaining sections address Philosophical Educational Constructs Learning Theory Instructional Theory Curriculum theory Literacy and Language Acquisition Theory Counseling Theory Moral Development Theory Classroom Management Theory Assessment Theory Organizational Theory and Leadership Management Theory Each section consists of an overview written by the section editor of the general theoretical concepts to be addressed by the chapter authors Each chapter within the section will include a a description of the theory with goals assumptions and aspects particular to the theory b the original development of and interactions of the theory c validation of the theory d generalizability of the theory across cultures ethnicities and genders e the use and application of the theory f critiques of the theory g any instruments associated with the theory and h two to five particular studies exemplifying particular theories as individuals have used them in theoretical framework of dissertations or published articles and be written by the original theorist or prominent contributors to the theory The Handbook is intended for graduate students enrolled in research courses or completing theses and dissertations Additionally professors of all educational disciplines in the social sciences would be an interested audience There is also potential use of the text as administrators counselors and teachers in schools use theory to guide practice As more inquiry is being promoted among school leaders this book has more meaning for practitioners

Cohesion in a Post-conflict and Divided Nation Taro Komatsu, 2024-01-22 This book discusses education's role of developing social cohesion in a post conflict environment where tensions continue to exist between the three constituent ethnic groups. It offers fresh insights into the relationship between education and social cohesion in a specific context of Bosnia Herzegovina where the need to rebuild social trust is acutely felt. This book first elaborates the concept of social cohesion and illustrates possible mechanisms through which education can develop or further erode social cohesion in already divided societies. Then it carefully examines such mechanisms using a case study of a Bosnia Herzegovina which witnessed violent conflict instigated by ethno identity politics during 1992-1995 and has been struggling to reconstruct its broken social fabric since then. Minnesota Journal of Education, 1925 Supplementary Educational Monographs, 1927 White House Conference on Education, 1965 Contemporary Issues in American Education, 1965 The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament, 1897 Education and Social Change in Chile Clark C. Gill, 1966 Chile Report on the historical development and administrative aspects of education covers primary education, secondary education and higher education, vocational training, teacher training, adult education etc. Bibliography pp 139 to 143 Nordic Superintendents: Agents in a Broken Chain Leif Moos, Elisabet Nihlfors, Jan Merok Paulsen, 2015-12-11 This book analyses the superintendent position and relations and shows how the well known policy umbrella the New Public Management (NPM) is being adapted to national contexts. School superintendents are civil servants at the heart of the governance of municipal education. Educational governance in the Nordic countries Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden is currently undergoing comprehensive restructuring and reconceptualisation at the hands of national governments influenced by transnational agencies. Our analyses of the superintendent position and relations show that the well known policy umbrella the New Public Management (NPM) is moving towards focusing on soft governance and social technologies as the preferred means of influences. Thus we rename it New Public Governance (NPG) Handbook of Conflict Management William J. Pammer, Jerri Killian, 2003-06-20 The Handbook of Conflict Management cuts across theoretical perspectives, strategic models and situational contexts as the first all encompassing conflict management reference. A young field in both research and practice, this foundational text sets precedents for furthering academic study and real world progress in managing diverse instances of conflict. It draws on more than 600 references to probe sources of conflict and to prescribe means of reducing tension in organizational, institutional and community settings. Introducing core themes and issues into the dialogue, the handbook provides techniques to promote peaceful negotiation, cooperation and consensus. Resources in Education, 2001 Navigating School Board Politics Carrie Sampson, 2024-11-06 A visionary overview of the political role of publicly elected school boards and a proactive take on the work they can accomplish toward social justice.
