Educating Women At Ursuline College:

Educating Women at Ursuline College Rosemarie Carfagna,1998 In the early 1990s Ursuline College a Catholic women s college in Cleveland completely redesigned its core curriculum to maximize access retention and success The findings presented in this study support the theories upon which the curriculum was designed and add a valuable contribution to the scholarship of educating women Women's Universities and Colleges Francesca B. Purcell,Robin Matross Helms,Laura E. Rumbley,2005-01-01 This book is a pioneering venture It is the first effort to provide an international inventory of women s universities and colleges Apart from providing such inventory the book intends to raise questions and suggest new ways of improving the education of women worldwide It is an invitation to network and to create a community of institutions with a common purpose and orientation It is hoped especially that women s institutions in the north and especially in the United States can use this resource to link up with counterpart colleges and universities in developing countries Providing higher education opportunities for women understanding the role of women in societies and contributing to the expansion of women s studies as a new field are all important goals and women s institutions are central both to understanding and to ameliorating inequalities This book hopes to make a small contribution to these goals Cradles of Conscience James A.
