Education 14 19 Critical Perspectives:

Education 14-19 Sally Tomlinson, 1997 A unified curriculum for young people of ages 14 19 and a unified qualification system will eventually be developed in England This work is intended to encourage all those interested in the education of all young people to make sure it happens sooner rather than later

Teaching 14-19 Learners in the Lifelong Learning Sector Sheine Peart, Liz Atkins, 2011-01-14 More and more teachers in the lifelong learning sector are required to teach the 14 19 age group This book is a practical guide to delivering learning to 14 19s It begins by looking at the background to teaching 14 19 in FE and covers current pathways for achievement Coverage of effective delivery of the new Diploma qualification is included giving guidance on planning and assessment It goes on to explore the challenges of behaviour participation and re engaging disaffected learners Finally it considers the wider context of building partnerships with schools and the needs of industry and employers

Education In A Post Welfare Society Tomlinson, Sally, 2005-11-01 Providing a critical overview of education policy since 1945 this book includes chronologies of education acts reports and initiatives and summaries of major legislation

EBOOK: Race and Education: Policy and Politics in Britain Sally Tomlinson, 2008-03-16 How successful has Britain been in accommodating racial religious and cultural diversity in the education system Have there been contradictory policies that have encouraged migrant labour while urging immigration control Has the introduction of market principles to education created further problems for ethnic minorities This book provides crucial information on key educational issues events and conflicts in Britain from the 1960s to the present day as the education system has attempted to incorporate racial and ethnic minorities and educate young people to live in an ethnically diverse society It uses examples such as political and media reactions to Afro hairstyles in the 1970s through to hijabs and niqabs today to illustrate how misplaced are the simplistic arguments that blame multiculturalism or minorities for segregation or lack of community cohesion Race and Education Policy and Politics in Britain describes how over the decades schools teachers parents local communities and local authorities have worked towards the incorporation of minority children into the education system It asserts that negative and contradictory policies by governments and a continued climate of hostility to those variously labelled as immigrant ethnic minority or non white has made this extremely difficult The book sets educational issues and events within a wider social and political context taking account of national and global influences and changing political beliefs and actions over the years Sally Tomlinson argues that debates needs to focus less on dress and more on the educational housing and employment problems symptomatic of the continued poverty in many minority areas that works against social cohesion Race and Education Policy and Politics in Britain is an invaluable resource for all those concerned with education and social policy especially students and professionals working in education sociology and social policy

Becoming A Teacher: Issues In Secondary Education Dillon, Justin, Maguire, Meg, 2011-07-01 Becoming a Teacher 4e remains a unique and powerful combination of ideas analysis questions answers and wisdom drawing on the professional experience of the editors and contributors Inclusive Education Harry Daniels, Philip Garner, 1999 Inclusive education is the term now being used to incorporate special needs into mainstream education This selection of papers divided into three sections provides different perspectives dialogue on inclusive education from around the world The book defines the philosophical political educational social implications of inclusion maps out the dilemmas facing it Examples of good practice for the future are provided with detailed referencing World Yearbook of Education 1999 Harry Daniels, Philip Garner, 2013-01-17 Inclusive education is the term now used to describe the incorporation of special needs into mainstream education This selection of papers provides perspectives and dialogue on inclusive education from around the world defining the philosophical political and educational implications Combating Educational Disadvantage Dr Theo Cox, Theo Cox, 2002-01-04 The New Labour Government puts Education Education Education at the heart of its agenda but is it doing enough to combat educational disadvantage Combating Educational Disadvantage sets the discussion of educational disadvantage within the socio political context of the 1980s and 1990s with its market philosophy in education and brings together the contributions of leading writers and researchers of international standing Education, Skills and Social Justice in a Polarising World Bill Esmond, Liz Atkins, 2022-01-25 This book explains how education policies offering improved transitions to work and higher level study can widen the gaps between successful and disadvantaged groups of young people Centred on an original study of ongoing further education and apprenticeship reforms in England the book traces the emergence of distinctive patterns of transition that magnify existing societal inequalities It illustrates the distinction between mainly male technical elites on STEM based courses and the preparation for low level service roles described as welfare vocationalism whilst digital and creative fields ill suited to industry learning head for a new economy precariat Yet the authors argue that social justice can nevertheless be advanced in the spaces between learning and work The book provides essential insights for academics and postgraduate students researching technical vocational and higher education It will also appeal to professionals with interests in contemporary educational policy and emerging practice School Effectiveness for Whom? Roger Slee, Sally Tomlinson, Gaby Weiner, 2003-05-20 School effectiveness research together with what is now described as the school improvement movement Barber 1996 has captured both the Conservative and New Labour imaginations as a basis for educational planning and policy making in the UK Internationally school effectiveness enjoys and expanding and enthusiastic audience This book provides a critique of this research genre particularly in the light of the recent calls for teaching to go back to the basics The editors argue that this school effectiveness research is simplistic in its analysis of educational problems Far from getting to the bottom of the problem of failing students and schools they argue these movements are merely scratching at the surface of the problems and coming up with notions for superficial improvements Choice, Pathways and Transitions Post-16 Stephen Ball, Sheila Macrae, Meg Maguire, 2013-11-05 This internationally appealing book is based on a two year case study of a group of young people as they move through their final year of mandatory schooling and into their first year of post 16 experience It looks at their choices the market behaviour of local education and training providers and those who help and advise these choices The authors show that recent and current political policies for post 16 education disadvantage marginalise and exclude young people rather than improve their life chances The book draws together the major issues and attempts to suggest alternative ways forward for a more inclusive post 16 education and training system Education Policy and Social Class Stephen J. Ball, 2006 This book brings together in one place Stephen Ball's key writings Drawing on over 20 years work Professor Ball has selected his most seminal work from education policy and sociology to his work on education and social class

Differing Visions of a Learning Society Vol 1 Frank Coffield, 2000-07-26 This volume provides an examination of what is meant by the learning society and how it can contribute to the development of knowledge and skills for employment and other areas of adult life Gender, Policy and Educational Change Sheila Riddell, Jane Salisbury, 2003-05-20 Gender equality has been a major educational theme for the past two decades and has become interwoven with other policy themes including those of marketisation and managerialism Contributors to this strong collection are key researchers in their fields and seek to address the following questions What patterns are discernible in the educational attainment of girls and boys over the past two decades To what extent are changes attributable to gender equality policies What form have gender equality policies taken in different parts of the UK What has been the impact of European equality policies How have gender equality policies been experienced by particular groups including pupils from ethnic minority and working class backgrounds This book aims to take an overall look at how significant have been the changes in experiences aspirations and culture of girls and boys and male and female teachers It explores how attempts to improve equal opportunities in education have fared and examines the tensions and contradictions in recent policies Comparative Inquiry and Educational Policy Making

David Phillips, 2007-11-22 Building on an increasingly sophisticated body of research on policy borrowing in education this collection explores ways in which the foreign example in education has been and is being used by policy makers in a variety of settings its principal aim being to assess the usefulness of foreign experience in home contexts Balancing the skills equation Hayward, Geoff, James, Susan, 2004-10-27 Governments worldwide assume that national competitiveness can be improved by developing workforce skills This book critically examines this high skills vision at both policy and practice levels It challenges an oversimplified policy rhetoric that underestimates the complexity of the processes involved in developing a skilled workforce The book focuses on key issues relating to the high skills agenda skills and political economy different investment strategies for producing skills qualification systems and learning A multidisciplinary team of authors from a range of disciplines including economics management and education provides the cross cutting international and comparative analysis Editorial comment links their explorations to wider questions of skill formation processes and overarching questions are addressed through in depth analysis of the roles of higher education apprenticeship and formal school learning in skill formation

English Teaching in the Secondary School Mike Fleming, David Stevens, 2009-12-04 A comprehensive guide to the theory and practice of teaching English in secondary schools

Further Education Re-formed Pamela Robinson, Alan Smithers, 2002-11-01 After more than a century of being undervalued further education has been thrust into the limelight How have the colleges fared How have they been shaped by the new arrangements for funding governance inspection and the new qualifications framework What do those running the colleges and working in them make of the changes What are their prospects for the new millennium

Further Education Reformed is the definitive account of where further education has got to and where it might be heading Containing specifically commissioned papers by some of the most respected academics currently working in the field of further education this book draws the situation as it is now and looks forward to the developments of the coming years It will be vital reading for anyone concerned with further education in particular and education in general whether as a policy maker governor manager teacher employer or student
