Education Where Its Been Where Its At Where Its Going:

Assessment in Education Shelleyann Scott, Donald E. Scott, Charles F. Webber, 2015-10-20 This book provides key insights into how educational leaders can successfully navigate the turbulence of political debate surrounding leading student assessment and professionalised practice Given the highly politicised nature of assessment it addresses leaders and aspiring leaders who are open to being challenged willing to explore controversy and capable of engaging in informed critical discourse The book presents the macro concepts that these audiences must have to guide optimal assessment policy and practice Collectively the chapters highlight important assessment purposes and models including intended and unintended effects of assessment in a globalised context The book provides opportunities to explore cultural similarities and particularities It invites readers to challenge taken for granted assumptions about ourselves and colleagues in other settings The chapters highlight the cultural clashes that may occur when cross cultural borrowing of assessment strategies policies and tools takes place However authors also encourage sophisticated critical analyses of potential lessons that may be drawn from other contexts and systems Readers will encounter challenges from authors to deconstruct their assessment values beliefs and preconceptions Indeed one purpose of the book is to destabilise certainties about assessment that prevail and to embrace the assessment possibilities that can emerge from cognitive dissonance

Transitions and Learning Through the Lifecourse Kathryn Ecclestone, Gert Biesta, Martin Hughes, 2009-10-16 Transition has numerous everyday and conceptual meanings yet while certain transitions are unsettling and difficult for some people risk challenge and even difficulty might also be important factors in successful transitions for others

Learning How to Let It Go in the Shadow of the Belvedere James Louis Hagerty, 2023-06-23 Sometimes it becomes difficult for us to recognize the beauty of the forest in its full splendour and diverse grandeur even though it has always been right in front of us Our view becomes obscured by the thick opaque tangle of branches To overcome this universal challenge for us all we need to be able to adopt a new perspective This can come from meeting new people and considering their point of view or even by putting oneself in an entirely different time and place In doing so even the most stubborn and set in their ways can be jostled out of their slumber and comforting complacency The elements necessary for this process of self transformation are already in our souls for those who allow them to surface while for others who are more resistant a more literal journey can be exactly what is required to shake us loose from our preconceived notions

Taking a Fresh Look at Education Mary C. Dalmau, Hafdís Guðjónsdóttir, Deborah Tidwell, 2017-03-22 Taking a Fresh Look at Education Framing Professional Learning in Education through Self Study examines the use of self study in professional learning through justice in education collaboration teacher education and the concept of a Professional Working Theory Justice in education includes research on pedagogy in inclusive practices on social justice issues within a doctoral program through the lens of critical race theory and on indigenous epistemologies and experiences Collaboration can be seen across several chapters as an integral part of teacher education and is discussed

specifically in chapters addressing research on praxis inquiry within Active Group Practice a collaborative dynamic and on collaboration as a critical aspect of self study research by teachers addressing efficacy of practice for students with significant disabilities Included in the discussion on teacher education is research on the beliefs and practices of mid and later career literacy English teacher educators Professional Working Theory PWT addresses the critical aspects of teacher knowledge experience and ethics Specifically this book includes research on examining the process involved in developing a PWT on the development of teacher identity of preservice teachers through their engagement in creating PWTs and on the process of and reflections on developing PWTs with teacher educators and U A E and U S A graduate students within the context of literacy and special education This book brings to the fore the work of Mary C Dalmau as a teacher educator whose career embodies the values of inclusion across educational settings the empowerment of teachers and the importance of ethics in educational decision making
