Education For Development An Analysis Of Investment Choices:

Education for Development George Psacharopoulos, Maureen Woodhall, 1985 This book analyzes the policy issues facing educational planners administrators and policy makers in developing countries in choosing between alternative strategies of educational investment It draws on the World Bank's twenty years of experience in education sector analysis and research to discuss both theoretical and practical problems of analyzing investment choices The topics covered include the contribution of education to economic and human development criteria for investment cost benefit analysis demand for educated manpower finance internal efficiency and quality equity considerations and the links between investment in education and investment in other sectors No comparable work exists which deals solely with the problems of analyzing education investment in developing countries While written for those involved in policy formulation and planning it does not assume a high degree of technical knowledge of economics

Sustaining Development Rony Gabbay, Kartik Chandra Roy, 1999 The Central Theme Of This Book Is That Human Resource Development And Preservation Of The Environment Are Two Important Factors In Promoting Growth And Development One Very Important Issue In Human Resource Development Which Has Received Both Extensive And Intensive Coverage In Social Science Literature And In Policy Making Discussions At National And Supra National Organisations During The Last Two Decades Is The Gender Issue But Since There Is A Nexus Between Women And The Environment The Environmental Issues Also Need To Be Pondered Over In All Policies For Promoting Growth And Development Hence A Number Of Important Issues Relating To Human Resource Development Gender And Environment Have Been Discussed In The Essays Included In This Book Education for Development, 1989

Education and Development in India Jandhyala B.G. Tilak, 2018-09-15 Drawing on empirical interdisciplinary research this book presents a critical review of some of the major issues that are of interest to researchers policymakers and planners in developing as well as advanced countries including specifically in India It provides an in depth review of some of the major development policy issues in education in general and in India in particular over the past 2 3 decades Besides presenting an overview of the educational developments in India that reflects issues such as growth equity efficiency foreign aid decentralization center state relations financing and cost recovery the book puts forward in depth analyses of education poverty interrelations between education and poverty low level of outcomes in elementary education effects of structural adjustment policies and approaches on education south south cooperation etc It also critically discusses changes in policies relating to financing higher education external assistance for education and how the growth of private higher education is affecting society at large The dichotomy between public policy and action is also highlighted in many chapters On the whole while the importance of education is being increasingly recognized the state does not seem to be as willing to foot the bill for education as the households and even the private sector Occasionally contrasting with international evidence on for example financing higher education private higher education or the effects of neo liberal policies the book offers an interesting read for a wider audience World Bank Anne C. M. Salda,1995 Finance & Development, December 1985 International Monetary Fund. External Relations Dept.,1985-12-01 This paper elaborates the introduction of surveillance that gave the IMF broader responsibilities with respect to oversight of its members policies than existed under the par value system The IMF s purview has been broadened under the new system but by the same token its members are no longer obliged to seek its concurrence in changes in exchange rates The continuing volatility of exchange rates and their prolonged divergence from levels that appear to be sustainable over time have been matters of growing concern World Bank Financing of Education Phillip W. Jones,2007-02-12 Based on detailed analysis of thousands of confidential World Bank documents this book demonstrates that the World Bank lies at the centre of the major changes in global education of our time It outlines the evolution of World Bank lending policies in education and assesses the policy impact of the Bank s educational projects looking at how it has shaped the economic and social policies of many governments including policies that affect education been an influential proponent of the rapid expansion of formal education systems around the world financing much of that expansion been instrumental in forging those policies that see education as a precursor to modernisation served as a major purveyor of Western ideas about how education and the economy are or should be related Following on from the success of the first edition this revised edition covers topical issues of globalisation and looks into the political debate concerning aid to developing countries It will be of enormous value to those studying or working in educational policy in developing countries international organisations and financial institutions and aid agencies Assessing the Current State of Education in the Caribbean Bissessar, Charmaine,2016-10-11 To meet the various needs of students administrative policies and instructional techniques must consistently be improved upon This allows schools to deliver a higher quality of education to students Assessing the Current State of Education in the Caribbean is a pivotal reference source for the latest research on recent developments and innovations for schools in the Caribbean region Focusing on teacher leadership learning assessment techniques and technology uses this book is ideally designed for educators school administrators professionals and researchers interested in recent developments within the education sector Lessons of Cross-national Comparison in Education David Phillips,1992-01-01 This collection of articles is a contribution to the debate about two important questions in the study of comparative education What lessons can be learned from cross national studies of issues in education and What problems of comparative method do such studies have to address Learning Spaces in Africa Ola Uduku,2018-06-14 With a key UN Sustainable Development Goal for 2030 being to make basic education available to all the world s children Learning Spaces in Africa explores the architectural socio political and economic policy factors that have contributed to school design the main spaces for education and learning in Africa It traces the development of school building design focusing on Western and Southern Africa from its emergence in the 19th century to the present day Uduku s analysis draws attention to the past historic links of schools to development processes from their early 19th century

The Practice of International Development Jerrold Keilson, Michael Gubser, 2017-09-22 Development analysts tend to give short shrift to the seemingly minor bureaucratic hitches faced by practitioners those who design manage implement and evaluate aid projects Often critical of foreign aid either for its apparent ineffectiveness at alleviating poverty or its purported neocolonial implications the academic literature rarely acknowledges the experiences and pressures faced by practitioners themselves as they implement aid funded development projects the meetings paperwork negotiations site visits financial transactions logistical arrangements interviews program activities and beneficiary interactions that keep projects running And yet the impact of aid projects and indeed the impact of development itself often grows out of the daily activities and personal interactions of development practitioners This unique book considers challenges from the perspective of development practitioners who confront technical managerial political theoretical and moral quandaries on a daily basis With chapters written by expert practitioners on different aspects of design and management of international development activities this book examines real issues and navigates the often contradictory demands of local development needs including international donor imperatives limited financial resources time information and assurance of results the competing pulls of administrative efficiency and the desire to alleviate suffering It also gives readers access to the crucial but little heard voices of those who spend their professional lives designing and managing foreign aid projects offering insight into what did or did not work on projects they have managed implemented or evaluated These insights do not seek to identify universally right or wrong ways of doing development instead they highlight pros and cons associated with various approaches and decisions This book provides valuable insights for students and others interested in a development career encourages practitioners to engage in reflection and persuades researchers to further consider the influence of practice on project success or failure

Managing Vocational Training Systems Vladimir Gasskov, 2000 Provides state of art materials relating to the management and organization of public vocational education and training VET systems and suggests a framework for developing the management competence of senior VET administrators encouraging them to review critically their administrative practices in order to move towards professional excellence Covers management organizational structure target setting planning financing and training administration

Economics of the Reversal in Gender Disparities in Education and Development Masayoshi Okabe, 2025-09-30 This book examines the background and consequences of the reversal in gender disparities in education through the case of the Philippines While global education and development discourse has long emphasized girls disadvantage a reversal where boys are falling behind in education has also recently emerged in a number of countries in developing contexts This book critically investigates this issue in the Philippines hailed as the top runner of gender equality in Asia and the Pacific where boys especially those from poorer households and in rural areas are increasingly falling behind Drawing on data from three provinces across the archipelago's main regions Luzon Visayas and Mindanao the book empirically traces the background and consequences of the reversal in family dynamics and school environments amid poverty and uneven development It reveals that boys' educational disengagement cannot be understood independently of broader socioeconomic structures While girls may outperform boys in education labor market and familial systems often continue to disadvantage women recursively shaping boys' educational disengagement Through the lens of intergroup heterogeneity this book offers an in depth examination of the nature of the reversal The economics of reversal is thus used not merely to describe but to rigorously interrogate surface level shifts that may obscure deeper enduring asymmetries The book adopts an interdisciplinary approach combining development economics education and area studies aiming to bridge econometric rigor and field based contextual sensitivity It is intended for scholars educators policymakers and students interested in evolving patterns of education and development This volume presents an expanded and refined development of the author's earlier research which was awarded the Main Prize at the 19th Asia Pacific Research Prize Iue Prize conferred by the Asia Pacific Forum Awaji Conference Japan

International Handbook of Comparative Education

Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very dif cult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of dif culties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were wo ing and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook
