Educational Measurement and Evaluation J. Swarupa Rani, 2004

Imparting knowledge is one thing and measuring the same is another Similarly perfect teaching is one thing and evaluating the learners is another In fact for measurement and evaluation of the level of knowledge of learners requires a particular acumen and a different skills In today's educational world the scholars have accorded the status of an art to the capability of an educator or teacher which he or she possesses and exhibits in testing and ranking his or her pupils at various intervals of time Now we find expert evaluators and examiners who specialise in conducting different tests and examinations In fact all teachers should master this skills However this is a new stream which demands flawless methods and techniques for carrying out the exercises known as Evaluation and Measurement

Educational Measurement William H. Angoff, American Council on Education, 1971

In this second edition twenty three authorities with the assistance of more than ninety collaborators present chapters that deal with the recent developments under three broad headings technological developments and their reverberations and implications conceptual developments and social and political issues impinging upon the testing enterprise Automation of test scoring and the evaluation of educational programs are the subjects of two new chapters
