Education And Careers Of Black Teachers Changing Identities Changing Lives:

The Education and Careers of Black Teachers Audrey Osler, 1997 Headteachers teacher unions and education authorities all acknowledge the need for more teachers from black and ethnic minority communities yet until now very little has been known about the professional experiences of black teachers or of the factors which discourage and exclude black and ethnic minority people from teaching as a career This book draws on the life histories of headteachers advisors teachers and student teachers from black and ethnic communities to find out what their working lives are really like Detailed case studies and quotations bring their stories alive It examines how those in positions of influence are seeking to transform schools and improve their pupils life chances How do they achieve success and challenge racism While celebrating black and ethnic minority achievement in education this book does not overlook the costs of success for individuals Drawing on teachers own accounts of their work it explores the complexities of their lived experiences and the tensions which can develop between teachers professional identities and their political identities as black people The findings and recommendations of this book will be of great interest to educational policy makers and decision makers to academics working in the field of race relations and to all engaged in the training and professional development of teachers both in universities and schools It includes practical suggestions for promoting racial justice within the context of current policy frameworks It will also prove useful to trainers and educators in other professional fields such as social work and public administration

From Victims of Change to Agents of Change Martin Johnson, Joe Hallgarten, 2002 Changing Teacher Professionalism Sharon Gewirtz, Pat Mahony, Ian Hextall, Alan Cribb, 2009-01-08 Significant changes in the policy and social context of teaching over the last 30 years have had substantial implications for teacher professionalism This collection of work by leading international scholars in the field makes a unique contribution to understanding both how these changes are impacting on teaching and how teachers might change their practice for the better

Changing Citizenship Osler, Audrey, Starkey, Hugh, 2005-04-01 Changing Citizenship supports educators in understanding the links between global change and the everyday realities of teachers and learners It explores the role that schools can play in creating a new vision of citizenship for multicultural democracies

Nordic Perspectives on Human Rights Education Audrey Osler, Beate Goldschmidt-Gjerløw, 2024-07-29 Backed by a range of case studies and recent developments in human rights education research Nordic Perspectives on Human Rights Education guides readers through an analysis of educational inequities and identifies how internationally agreed upon human rights standards may inform social justice practices within schools In an age characterised by authoritarianism and extremism but also social and climate justice movements this book provides a critical analysis of current practice within schools Contributing authors also discuss how a human rights framework may improve practice supporting intersectional thinking and more sustainable learning environments while also empowering teachers to confidently navigate issues of gender national identity and minority rights Divided into three distinct sections chapters invite readers to consider The context behind human rights education HRE Rights based approaches to teaching and education International dialogue and how we may learn from the approaches of other countries Drawing on research from the Nordic region and discussing its implications elsewhere this volume is an essential resource for scholars developing theory and practice in human rights education social studies citizenship education and international and comparative education Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license Chapters 1 6 7 9 12 and 13 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Islam and Higher Education in Transitional Societies, 2019-02-11 Islam and Higher Education in Transitional Societies explores and illuminates the intersection of Islam and higher education in changing societies The critical question explored in this book is what role does Islam play in higher education in transitional societies This book presents research conducted in geographic regions that are generally under researched including Iran Turkey Pakistan and where the place of Islam in higher education is often not well explored Because higher education is embedded in the cultural social economic and political contexts of particular countries it is important to examine the role of Islam in higher education systems in different countries to better grasp how next generation of leaders in these countries will be shaped Islam and Higher Education in Transitional Societies serves as an important benchmark for understanding Islam and potentially inform policies to transform higher education institutional processes and structures to be responsive to the Muslim world

Human Rights and Schooling Audrey Osler, 2016 Most of the struggles for equitable schooling including multicultural curricula and culturally responsive teaching have largely taken place on a local or national stage with little awareness of how international human rights standards might support these struggles Human Rights and Schooling explores the potential of human rights frameworks to support grassroots struggles for justice and examines the impact that human rights and child rights education can make in the lives of students including the most marginalized The author Audrey Osler examines the theory research and practice linking human rights to education in order to broaden the concept of citizenship and social studies education Bringing scholarship and practice together the text uses concrete examples to illustrate the links between principles and ideals and actual efforts to realize social justice in and through education Osler anchors her examination of human rights in the U N Convention on the Rights of the Child as well as the U N Declaration on Human Rights Education and Training Audrey Osler offers timely and relevant insights into education for human rights and social justice The book examines complex global realities and the power of narrative to create a grounded and critical cosmopolitanism Monisha Bajaj associate professor International and Multicultural Education University of San Francisco Educators specializing in social studies civic education multicultural comparative and or social justice education will find Audrey Osler's Human Rights and Schooling a fascinating read It is filled with practical strategies for teaching about in and for human rights In her wide ranging discussion of concepts such as cosmopolitan citizenship intersectionality and identity and narrative Osler draws on examples from across the globe to show how educators can foster solidarity with human rights struggles near and far as they empower youth to take action for social justice at home and abroad Carole L Hahn Charles Howard Candler Professor of Educational Studies Emory University

Education for Values: Morals, Ethics and Citizenship in Contemporary Teaching Cairns, Jo,Gardner, Roy (all of Institute of Education, University of London),Lawton, Denis,2013-05-13 Values in education in terms of both how they are taught and of the ethics of teaching itself are an area of lively debate This text provides a resource of ideas issues and practice for all those with an interest in this area of education

Inequalities in the Teaching Profession M. Moreau,2014-05-06 Countering the commonplace view of teaching as inclusive this collection highlights the persistence of inequalities in the teaching profession It explores the ways in which gender ethnicity social class and other identity markers shape teachers experiences in a range of institutional and national contexts

Learning from Latino Teachers Gilda Ochoa,2007-10-05 Learning from Latino Teachers offers insightful stories and powerful visions in the movement for equitable schools This compelling book is based on Gilda Ochoa s in depth interviews with Latina o teachers who have a range of teaching experience in schools with significant Latina o immigrant populations The book offers a unique insider s perspective on the educational challenges facing Latinas The teachers stories offer valuable insights gained from their experiences coming up through the K 12 system as students and then becoming part of the same system as teachers

Mixed-Race, Post-Race Suki Ali,2020-05-27 Social scientists claim that we now live in a post race society where race has been replaced by ethnicity Yet racism is endemic to British society and people often think in terms of black and white With a marked rise in the number of children from mixed parentage there is an urgent need to challenge simplistic understandings of race nation and culture and interrogate what it means to grow up in Britain and claim a mixed identity Focusing on mixed race and inter ethnic families this book not only explores current understandings of race but it shows using innovative research techniques with children how we come to read race What influence do photographs and television have on childrens ideas about race How do children use memories and stories to talk about racial differences within their own families How important is the home and domestic culture in achieving a sense of belonging Ali also considers through data gathered from teachers and parents broader issues relating to the effectiveness of anti racist and multicultural teaching in schools and parental concerns over the social mobility and social acceptability of their children Rigorously researched this book is the first to combine childrens accounts on race and identity with contemporary cultural theory Using fascinating case studies it fills a major gap in this area and provides an original approach to writing on race

Mixed Matters Denise Williams,2011 More often than not mixed race pupils are simply referred to as black and tend to be encompassed in a larger more diverse group of black pupils but the increased presence of mixed race pupils in schools needs to focus the efforts of education professionals to address issues of race ethnicity and culture Mixed Matters is essential reading for all educational professionals who want to get to grips with the issues that face mixed families and the pupils themselves as they share their personal experiences of what it is like to be them in the British schooling system The young people featured in this book challenge some of the commonly held assumptions made about them especially regarding their aspirations This book contains some resources that can be used to support work with mixed race pupils as well as initial training and professional development of teachers The book also details the approach of Mix d formerly the Multiple Heritage Project in organising youth conferences and training youth facilitators of mixed race to lead their peers in discussions about school and identity

Young People and Offending Martin Stephenson,2006-11 This book seeks to explore the full extent of the implications of the relationship between education and youth crime in terms of social policy and public opinion It will be essential reading for youth justice practitioners as well as students taking courses on youth crime and youth justice or on youth justice or probation training courses

Multiculturalism and Multilingualism at the Crossroads of School Leadership Jon C. Veenis,Sylvia Robertson,Jami Royal Berry,2020-10-01 This volume builds upon emergent understandings about educational leadership and policy in hopes of continuing to refine our understanding of what effective leadership means in linguistically and culturally diverse school contexts The volume seeks to entrench a deeper understanding of the broader leadership policies and practices that promote the success of linguistically and culturally diverse students while also recognizing that effective leadership can be highly dependent on context It offers original empirical research that enhances an understanding of the interdependencies between leadership culture language and policy i e the mechanisms that engender or hinder successful stewardship of linguistic and cultural plurality The confluence of school leadership linguistic diversity and multiculturalism makes this volume unique especially considering the pace at which global migration continues to accelerate coupled with the need to accommodate an array of diverse learning needs in today's schools The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History Ivor Goodson, Ari Antikainen, Pat Sikes, Molly Andrews, 2016-10-04 In recent decades there has been a substantial turn towards narrative and life history study The embrace of narrative and life history work has accompanied the move to postmodernism and post structuralism across a wide range of disciplines sociological studies gender studies cultural studies social history literary theory and most recently psychology Written by leading international scholars from the main contributing perspectives and disciplines The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History seeks to capture the range and scope as well as the considerable complexity of the field of narrative study and life history work by situating these fields of study within the historical and contemporary context Topics covered include The historical emergences of life history and narrative study Techniques for conducting life history and narrative study Identity and politics Generational history Social and psycho social approaches to narrative history With chapters from expert contributors this volume will prove a comprehensive and authoritative resource to students researchers and educators interested in narrative theory analysis and interpretation Race, Education and Educational Leadership in England Paul Miller, Christine Callender, 2019-04-18 In recent years the issue of race in education in the UK have been submerged in wider discourses of diversity leading to an invisibility of the quotidian experiences of marginalised peoples in educational institutions Race Education and Educational Leadership in England looks at how the experiences of black and ethnic minority BME students and academics in education has changed and investigates how the implementation of current policies on race equality are being monitored by the government The contributors take an integrated approach looking at issues and themes that occur across all educational phases in England and draw on expertise from within and outside the education system The editors highlight areas of weakness and good practice in access curriculum progression and the lived experience This book makes a compelling argument for why race equality matters in England's education system Gender, Identity and Educational Leadership Kay Fuller, 2013-10-31 Gender Identity and Educational Leadership explores how head teachers social identities particularly pertaining to gender social class and ethnicity influence their leadership of diverse populations of pupils and staff Informed by new research conducted throughout the first decade of the 21st century and advances in gender theories the book draws attention to how head teachers views of their diverse school populations influence school leadership Connections are made between head teachers social identities their personal and professional histories and their perceptions of diversity amongst the children young people staff and the wider communities they serve Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice

Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World Women and School Leadership Cecilia Reynolds, 2012-02-01 This international collection of work by leading feminist scholars in educational administration from five Western liberal democratic countries presents state of the art research on women in school leadership positions. The contributors focus on the need for critical reflections which reveal hidden aspects of leadership phenomena and advocate diverse forms of positive action to improve the condition for women in school settings. As such this collection challenges the reader to consider the partiality of all perspectives on leadership as well as future directions for research and practice. It also brings together views of schools and school systems at the macro level with discussions and case studies focused on the micro levels of school life.
