Education And Modernization Society Today Tomorrow S:

Tomorrow's Politics Ian Christie, Ian Hargreaves, 1998      Learning Democracy in School and Society: Education, Lifelong Learning, and the Politics of Citizenship Gert J.J. Biesta, 2011-10-21 This book explores the relationships between education lifelong learning and democratic citizenship It emphasises the importance of the democratic quality of the processes and practices that make up the everyday lives of children young people and adults for their ongoing formation as democratic citizens The book combines theoretical and historical work with critical analysis of policies and wider developments in the field of citizenship education and civic learning The book urges educators educationalists policy makers and politicians to move beyond an exclusive focus on the teaching of citizenship towards an outlook that acknowledges the ongoing processes and practices of civic learning in school and society This is not only important in order to understand the complexities of such learning It can also help to formulate more realistic expectations about what schools and other educational institutions can contribute to the promotion of democratic citizenship The book is particularly suited for students researchers and policy makers who have an interest in citizenship education civic learning and the relationships between education lifelong learning and democratic citizenship Gert Biesta www.gertbiesta.com is Professor of Education at the School of Education University of Stirling UK      Deleuze and Guattari, Politics and Education Matthew Carlin, Jason Wallin, 2014-05-22 Deleuze Guattari Politics and Education mobilizes Deleuzian Guattarian philosophy as a revolutionary alternative to the lingering forms of transcendence identity politics and nihilism endemic to Western thought Operationalizing Deleuze and Guattari's challenge to contemporary philosophy this book presents their view as a revolutionary alternative to the lingering forms of transcendence identity politics and nihilism endemic to the current state of Western formal education This book offers an experimental approach to theorizing creating an entirely new way for educational theorists to approach their work as the task of revolutionizing life itself Examining new conceptual resources for grappling with and mapping a sustainable political alternative to the clichés that saturate contemporary educational theory this collection of essays works toward extracting a genuine image of education and learning that exists in sharp contrast to both the neo liberal educational project and the critical pedagogical tradition      Trends in Education ,1972      Gu Mingyuan's Educational Thought Yingjie Wang, 2025-04-01 This book systematically reviews the educational thought of Mr Gu Mingyuan one of the most prestigious educationists in contemporary China and details the development of his pioneering educational ideas The content covers virtually all areas of education from pre school to higher education and lifelong learning from general education to vocational education and informal learning In the process it comprehensively reflects Mr Gu's insights on global education and his perspectives on Chinese education reviews China's educational history assesses the status quo and outlines the future of education Since he has not only been a significant witness but also a key promoter of all major educational changes since China's reform and opening up over the past 40 years this book is more than a personal biography of a Chinese educationist rather it epitomizes the evolution of China's educational thinking over the past four decades Rural Education in China: Policy and Development (1978 - 2018) Wu Zhihui, 2025-09-23 This book reveals the policy changes and profound transformations in rural education in China over the past 40 years of reform and opening up. The book emphasizes the need to accurately address the relationship between urban and rural educational development, adopt an integrated urban-rural education mindset and establish a mechanism for promoting balanced development by linking urban and rural areas, advancing overall progress and ensuring urban-rural integration. This will comprehensively revitalize rural education. We must treat the development of rural education as the most foundational livelihood project and regard promoting fairness and justice in urban-rural education as a long-term task focusing on balance, strengthening the foundation and addressing shortcomings. We must adhere to the rule of law in education, enhance and improve the leadership of the party and government over rural education and correctly guide public opinion and manage societal mindset. We must strengthen research on rural education, make top-level designs for the future development of rural education and inspire innovative vitality among grassroots educators, effectively conducting rural education modernization experiments to lay a solid foundation for achieving the fundamental modernization of socialism with Chinese characteristics. Modern English Society Judith Ryder, Harold Silver, 2024-01-01 First published in 1970, Modern English Society is primarily concerned with the period since the Great Exhibition of 1851. Judith Ryder and Harold Silver begin by surveying the consequences, good and ill, of industrialization and go on to explore the changing pattern of social relationships to which it gave rise. They discuss such topics as the growth of towns and of large-scale administration, the development of welfare services, the emergence of mass politics, the mass media and mass production. They show how social attitudes and the interpretation of historical facts are colored by our ideological views. In the second half of the book, they examine the structure and functioning of contemporary social institutions, the family, education, the economic and political systems, and assess their implications for the individual, for specific social groups and for society as a whole. This book will be of interest to students of history and sociology. Florence Nightingale on Society and Politics, Philosophy, Science, Education and Literature Lynn McDonald, 2006-01-01 Florence Nightingale on Society and Politics, Philosophy, Science, Education and Literature Volume 5 in the Collected Works of Florence Nightingale is the main source of Nightingale's work on the methodology of social science and her views on social reform. Here we see how she took her call to service into practice by first learning how the laws of God's world operate; one can then determine how to intervene for good. There is material on medical statistics, the census, pauperism and Poor Law reform, the need for income security measures and better housing, on crime, gender and the family. Her comments on a new edition of The Dialogues of Plato are given with their impact on the revision of the next edition. We see Nightingale's condemnation of Plato's community of wives with her stirring approval of love even outside marriage, marriage and the family. In this volume also her views on natural science, education and literature are reported. Nightingale was an astute behind the scenes political activist Society and Politics publishes much of it for the first time her correspondence with such leading political figures as Queen Victoria W E Gladstone and J S Mill There are notes and essays on public administration and personal observations on various members of royalty prime ministers and ministers and Indian viceroys Nightingale s support of the vote for women contrary to much in the secondary literature is here shown Correspondence and notes on British general elections from 1834 to 1900 is reported with letters to and for Liberal political candidates and fierce condemnations of Conservatives Currently Volumes 1 to 11 are available in e book version by subscription or from university and college libraries through the following vendors Canadian Electronic Library Ebrary MyiLibrary and Netlibrary

Resources in Education , 1998

Re-schooling Society David Hartley, 2014-01-21 This text describes and explains the sense of uncertainty faced by educators as the millenium approaches It highlights the many transitions taking place in all aspects of public life and education during the postmodern phase of late capitalism by using examples from the study of childhood curriculum pedagogy assessment and organization of education It also considers attempts made so far by policy makers in the western industrialized nations to come to terms with rapid cultural and social changes whilst at the same time trying to maintain competitive economies to meet the growing challenge of the emergent Pacific Rim nations

Education for Modern Man Sidney Hook, 2020-02-18 a remarkable book A most penetrating study of education Saturday Review of Literature an admirable defense of the critical mind in education Sidney Hook is among the the Children of the Light that is to say of the Enlightenment Albert Guerard New York Herald Tribune Mr Hook has put his finger upon the profound fallacy of most of the current attempts to reorganize higher education exciting reading Howard Mumford Jones New York Times needed by anyone who wishes to have a comprehensive view of the problems of modern education Wendell Johnson Chicago Sun Sidney Hook brings a new high standard of sanity and clarity

For sheer excellence of logic and for magic of comprehensiveness the book is head and shoulders above all recent competitors William Randel St Louis Post Dispatch a fine book it has the advantage of Mr Hook s dissecting mind operating with the cleanness of a surgical instrument Jerome Nathanson The New Republic Wisely sane John Dewey Fabricating Europe António Nóvoa, M. Lawn, 2007-05-08 Fabricating Europe has within it a core idea a crucial but imprecise idea that of a European educational space which transnational governance networks and cultural and economic projects are creating now Yet the perceptible creation of this contemporary space of European policy making and networking has not been a subject of study It appears offstage in studies of national systems in which national and professional identity political organization policy formation and public private markets are all viewed as contained within the borders of the state Fabricating Europe is concerned with the new possibilities to be discerned and imagined in the European public and institutional spaces and discourses in education and the lack of impetus within the broad area of educational studies to meet the task of creating analyses and responses America's Education Deficit and the War on Youth: Reform Beyond Electoral Politics

Henry A. Giroux, 2013 America s latest war according to renowned social critic Henry Giroux is a war on youth While this may seem counterintuitive in our youth obsessed culture Giroux lays bare the grim reality of how our educational social and economic institutions continually fail young people Their systemic failure is the result of what Giroux identifies as four fundamentalisms market deregulation patriotic and religious fervor the instrumentalization of education and the militarization of society We see the consequences most plainly in the decaying education system schools are increasingly desi

Higher Education for Modern Societies Sjur Bergan, Radu Damian, 2010-01-01 Developing learners competence is an important part of the mission of higher education The kind of competences that higher education should develop depend on what we see as the purposes of higher education The term converging competences points to the need not only to train individuals for specific tasks but to educate the whole person Education is about acquiring skills but also about acquiring values and attitudes As education policies move from an emphasis on process to a stronger emphasis on the results of the education processes learning outcomes have come to be seen as an essential feature of policies both in Europe and North America This book explores the roles and purposes of higher education in modern complex societies and the importance of competences in this respect Although public debate in Europe could give the impression that the sole purpose of higher education is to prepare for the labour market this important role is complemented by at least three others preparation for democratic citizenship personal development and the development of a broad and advanced knowledge base This work draws on the experiences in both Europe and North America to underline that the discussion is not in fact about which of these different purposes is the real one they are all important and they coexist

A Liberal Education Brendan Apfeld, Emanuel Coman, John Gerring, Stephen Jessee, 2024-01-18 Enlisting a natural experiment global surveys and historical data this book examines the university's evolution and its contemporary impact Its authors conduct an unprecedented big data comparative study of the consequences of higher education on ideology democratic citizenship and more They conclude that university education has a profound effect on social and political attitudes across the world greater than that registered by social class gender or age A university education enhances political trust and participation reduces propensities to crime and corruption and builds support for democracy It generates more tolerant attitudes toward social deviance enhances respect for rationalist inquiry and scientific authority and usually encourages support for Leftist parties and movements It does not nurture support for taxation redistribution or the welfare state and may stimulate opposition to these policies These effects are summarized by the co authors as liberal understood in its classic nineteenth century meaning
