Education and the Politics of Memory in Russia and Eastern Europe Sergey Rumyantsev, 2025-01-21 This book examines both formal and extracurricular education and the politics of memory and historical narratives in Armenia Azerbaijan Russia and Ukraine The misalignment between memory politics and history politics forms a central theme of this book Structured in three parts it focuses on school education in the post Soviet states over the 30 years between the collapse of the Soviet Union and the 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine The chapters inquire as to how post Soviet school education politics of memory and history politics became active participants in the production of state approved ideology patriotism and a state prescribed understanding of the national past Armed conflicts in the territory of the former USSR not only saw numerous victims and refugees but also the emergence of new borders and unrecognized de facto states and the annexation of territories They also contributed to the creation of new sites of memory generated their own traditions of commemoration for the heroes and victims of these confrontations and led to the reconstruction of historical narratives and the construction of new national myths The research in this book foregrounds how the nationalization of the public space and the reconstruction of national historical narratives in the independent states reflect a desire to monopolize the power to interpret the past with low tolerance of alternative accounts In this light the book covers issues such as the nation state Sovietization national history creation memory politics religion mass media nationalism and patriotism and analyzes the relationship of Azerbaijani and Armenian Russian and Ukrainian societies with their histories and pasts A novel study on the topic of memory and history writing this is a timely contribution to the field of Post Soviet history and Russian and Eastern European Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

The Making of Nagorno-Karabagh Levon Chorbajian, 2001-08-08 The first major territorial struggle in the late Soviet period involved Nagorno Karabagh an Armenian inhabited territory that had been assigned to the Azerbaijan Soviet Socialist Republic In the early 1920s Armenian protests calling for reunification with Armenia in 1988 led to Azerbaijani pogroms against Armenians and later to armed conflict that claimed over twenty thousand lives The struggle remains unresolved A distinguished group of historians and social scientists analyze the Karabagh struggle in this unique volume that covers one of the world's strategic oil rich regions

War and Children Kendra E. Dupuy, Krijn Peters, 2009-11-19 A comprehensive up to date presentation of how children and young people are affected by and respond to situations of armed conflict and postwar reconstruction War and Children A Reference Handbook looks at one of the most wrenching aspects of armed conflict ranging across the globe to examine the different ways armed conflict and postwar reconstructions affect children and young people and how they have responded to both war and efforts to alleviate war's destruction While war has always affected children the nature of that impact has changed in the last half century Civil conflicts break out in mostly poor developing countries with large populations of young people and combatants are less hesitant to turn civilian areas into battlegrounds War and Children explores these phenomena by focusing primarily on recent conflicts worldwide with case studies dramatizing important issues and controversies including the considerable number of children soldiers throughout the world Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2000: Related agencies United States. given by professional teachers in classrooms it took even universal traits However on the other hand the fact that education became state education organised or at least controlled by the state was the beginning of another tradition line education in the form of state organised educational institutions became a means of creating national identity Universal inclusion as for the light of reason shining for everybody is opposed to more or less nationalist exclusion of all the others shaping the feature of a particular nation state with a particular educational system This fundamental dialectical tension between the universal and the particular was one to the important motives to make this handbook One of the central issues of the country studies is precisely to display the relationship between universal values and the search for national identity Another motive is given by the European dimension of the handbook

Contested Territories and International Law Kamal

Makili-Aliyev, 2019-10-14 This book considers the possibilities for resolution of the Nagorno Karabakh Conflict in the context of comparative international law The armed conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan over the territory of the Nagorno Karabakh has been on the peace and security agenda since the dissolution of the Soviet Union This volume draws parallels with a similar situation between Sweden and Finland over sovereignty of the Aland Islands in the early 20th century Resolved in 1921 it is argued that this represents a model autonomy solution for territorial conflicts that include questions of territorial integrity self determination and minority rights The book compares both conflict situations from the international law perspective finding both commonalities and dissimilarities It advances the application of the solution found in the Aland Islands precedent as a model for the resolution of the Nagorno Karabakh Conflict and provides appropriate recommendations for its implementation The book will be of interest to academics researchers and policymakers in the areas of international law and security conflict resolution and international relations The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Education Of Nagomo : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
