Luck David Wright, 2020-09-10 My reason for writing this book was to have something to do after I got fired from C W Post It was one in a long line of failed jobs over the years The theme of luck grew out of the fact that through all the job losses there was Millie my wife and how having her in my life was a stroke of luck All the things that happen in your life good and bad have a tinge of luck attached to them By putting things into perspective I was able to cope with what was going on in my life and make peace with it Ultimately this book is about luck what it is and how it affects the way one handles life I was able to pour my feelings out and express what I was going through each and every day I was out of work Writing is a good way to reflect on your life and to examine what role you have in how your life is going I hope you find it funny as well as poignant and maybe you'll find some good luck in your life after reading it
