Australia's Health 2012 Australian Institute of Health and Welfare, 2012      Australia Margo Daly, 2003 With fresh journalistic writing and reams of information on what to see and do this guide takes readers from the big cities to the countryside Includes candid reviews on restaurants and accommodations for all budgets 83 maps Full color insert Two color throughout      Pentecostal Churches in Transition Shane Clifton, 2009-05-20 The global growth of Pentecostal movements during the course of the twentieth century has been widely documented although to date there has been little written on their developing ecclesiology After making the case for a concrete rather than idealised approach to ecclesiology this book describes and analyses the transitions that have framed the ways in which Australian Pentecostals have understood church life and mission From a loosely knit faith missions movement to congregational free church structures to the so called apostolic models of mega churches Australian pentecostalism stands as a microcosmos of ecclesial developments that have occurred throughout the world This book therefore provides a means of reflecting upon what has been gained and lost in the process of ecclesiological change      The Empress of Weehawken Irene Dische, 2008-02-05 At the end of what is she cannot help observing an extraordinary life Elisabeth Rother has decided to write her memoirs She brushes aside her narrow escape with her Jewish husband from the Nazis and the perilous voyage to the New World of New Jersey The subject that really consumes her is the waywardness of her impossible daughter Renate and her granddaughter Irene Renate performs autopsies on the bodies of politicians whom death has harvested in the nighttime arms of their mistresses Worse she sleeps on unironed sheets Irene drops out of school to roam the world refuses to correct her nose with plastic surgery and shows alarming signs of enjoying sex What is to be done with such women A curiously touching love letter to the difficult but sustaining love of mothers and daughters The Empress of Weehawken is a masterpiece of comedy with an unexpected lilt of redemption at its close      Australian Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements, 2020-04-28 In Australian Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements Arguments from the Margins Rocha Hutchinson and Openshaw argue that Australia has made and still makes important contributions to how Pentecostal and charismatic Christianities have developed worldwide This edited volume fills a critical gap in two important scholarly literatures The first is the Australian literature on religion in which the absence of the charismatic and Pentecostal element tends to reinforce now widely debunked notions of Australia as lacking the religious tendencies of old Europe The second is the emerging transnational literature on Pentecostal and Charismatic movements This book enriches our understanding not only of how these movements spread worldwide but also how they are indigenised and grow new shoots in very diverse contexts      Ethnographic Worldviews Robert E. Rinehart, Karen N. Barbour, Clive C. Pope, 2013-09-24 This book discusses ethnography from the three points of view of Emerging Methodologies Practice and Advocacy and Social Justice and Transformation with an over arching emphasis on researchers and participants worldviews While these three thematic threads cut across each other the actual chapters will be located so that the reader understand many of the current issues and concerns with specific exemplars from around the globe for ethnographers Ethnographic Worldviews Transformations and Social Justice will have its finger on the pulse of contemporary ethnography Chapters demonstrate up to the moment awareness of ethnographic methods concerns and subject matters within contemporary ethnographic writing Authors are deeply engaged in both their subject matter and their method For example discussion of ethical issues surrounding visual methods of collecting for photo ethnographies is anticipated as a potential hot topic for this book Unlike other ethnographic books which often suggest giving voice to others this book will actually give voice to a wide variety of perspectives from the points of view of researchers

Reading the Bible in Australia Deborah R. Storie, Barbara Deutschmann, Michelle Eastwood, 2024-01-03 Reading the Bible in Australia invites reflection about how the Bible matters to Australia Contributors probe intersections between vital debates about Australian identity who we have been are and aspire to become and the Bible bringing a range of perspectives to critical themes indigeneity colonization and migration landscape biodiversity and climate gender and marginality economics ideology and rhetoric Each chapter explores the past and present influence of a biblical text or theme Some offer fresh contextually and ethically informed readings All interrogate the wider outcomes of reading the Bible in different ways Given the tragic consequences of how it has been used historically and sometimes still is some Australians would exclude the Bible and its interpreters from public debate Yet as Meredith Lake s The Bible in Australia demonstrates a degree of biblical literacy along with critical skill in evaluating how the Bible has been taken up and interpreted in our history can only help Australians grapple well with the choices Australia faces Love it or hate it there is no getting around the reality that the Bible and how it is read still matters

Extreme Wine Mike Veseth, 2013-07-17 In Extreme Wine wine economist and best selling author Mike Veseth circles the globe searching for the best worst cheapest most expensive and most over priced wines Mike seeks out the most outrageous wine people and places and probes the biggest wine booms and busts Along the way he applauds celebrity wines tries to find wine at the movies and discovers wines that are so scarce that they are almost invisible Why go to such extremes Because Mike argues the world of wine is growing and changing and if you want to find out what s really happening you can t be afraid to step over the edge Written with verve and appreciation for all things wine Extreme Wine will surprise and delight readers spirit     Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world s Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide     Culture in Australia Tony Bennett, David Carter, 2001-09-03 A 2001 survey of the changing policies and priorities that are evident in a range of contemporary cultural institutions in Australia     Australia's New Aged John McCallum, 2023-04-28 The idea that our society is ageing is a popular source of gloomy predictions for the future We see today s youth struggling in their mature years to pay for the masses of geriatric baby boomers whose productive years lie far behind Australia s New Aged shows that this belief is part reality and part myth While there will be an increase in the proportion of aged people in the next 20 years this is a temporary phenomenon and it is likely that tomorrow s elderly will quite differently from their parents Australia s New Aged examines public policy for the aged in the context of an increasingly vocal and active elderly population and cutbacks to health and welfare spending The authors argue that policy makers have become trapped in a social problem approach to ageing that assumes the elderly are a homogeneous disadvantaged group with common interests They examine a range of cases and identify negative consequences of inappropriate assumptions in terms of structural blindness and brutality They show that this approach is no longer viable and argue that both policy makers and the aged care industry will need to be more sensitive to diversity and more flexible than ever before Australia s New Aged is essential reading for students policy makers and anyone working with the aged John McCallum is Professor of Public Health and Dean of the Faculty of Health at the University of Western Sydney Macarthur and co editor of Grey Policy 1990 Karin Geiselhart is a journalist previously employed by the Office for the Status of Women in Canberra     Life in England and Australia John Bunyan McCure, 1876 Commerce , 1921     Catalogue of the Free Public Library, Sydney, 1876 New South Wales. Library, 1880     The New Age of Naval Power in the Indo-Pacific Catherine L. Grant, Alessio Patalano, James A. Russell, 2023 Competition at sea is back as a central issue of international security Today the US led maritime order and the freedom to use the ocean as a vast maneuver space to access different markets and theaters stands contested Nowhere is the urgency to address state on state competition at sea more strongly felt than in the Indo Pacific region where freedom of navigation stands challenged by regional states continuous investments in naval power and the renewed political will to use it The international groups of distinguished contributors to this volume survey and analyze the implications of the return of naval power as a critical consideration of international relations in the Indo Pacific region Catherine L Grant Alessio Patalano and James A Russell develop an original framework in which five factors of influence help explain how and why naval power matters in this pivotal part of the world for cooperation coercion and competition The chapters also provide historical background outline key issues and conduct a close examination of key subregions This book will be read by both academics and policy makers alike seeking to navigate the complexity of maritime security and regional affairs      Mass Historia Chris Regan,2008-08
